fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Je-

place:

69 They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work
three score and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities,
and all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER III.

1 The altar is set up. 4 Offerings frequented.

AND when the seventh month
was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up <sup>1</sup> Joshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and <sup>2</sup> Zerubbabel the son of <sup>3</sup> Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is written <sup>a</sup> in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; (for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries:;) and they offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt-offerings morning and evening.

4 They <sup>b</sup> kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom,
as the duty of every day <sup>c</sup> required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt-offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts <sup>d</sup> of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will-offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD. But <sup>e</sup> the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

Workmen prepared.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the <sup>o</sup> carpentors; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon <sup>e</sup> to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant <sup>f</sup> that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 ¶ Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began <sup>g</sup> Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from <sup>h</sup> twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then stood Jeshua <sup>with</sup> his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of 7 Judah, <sup>o</sup> together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadai, <sup>with</sup> their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders <sup>i</sup> laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set <sup>k</sup> the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because <sup>l</sup> he is good, for his mercy <sup>endureth</sup> for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they <sup>m</sup> raised the LORD, because the foundation <sup>n</sup> of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But <sup>o</sup> many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept <sup>p</sup> with a loud voice: and many shouted aloud for joy.

13 So that the people could not distinguish a noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping <sup>q</sup> of them: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Letter to Artaxerxes.

you: for <sup>d</sup> we seek your God, as ye <sup>e</sup> do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Sardanapalus king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel said unto them, You <sup>d</sup> have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God: but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king <sup>e</sup> Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land <sup>f</sup> weakened the hearts of the people of Judah, and troubled <sup>g</sup> them in building.

5 And hired counsellors <sup>h</sup> against them to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of <sup>i</sup> Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they <sup>j</sup> unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote <sup>k</sup> Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their <sup>l</sup> companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter <sup>m</sup> was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the <sup>n</sup> scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their <sup>o</sup> companions, the Danites, <sup>p</sup> the Apharsathaces, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archvites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Belevites, and the Elamites.

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble <sup>q</sup> Asshapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest <sup>r</sup> that are on this side the river, and <sup>s</sup> at such a time.

11 ¶ This <sup>t</sup> is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king: <sup>u</sup> by servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious <sup>v</sup> and the bad city, and have <sup>w</sup> set up the walls thereof, and <sup>x</sup> joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto <sup>y</sup> thy king, that if this city be built, and the walls set up again,

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the Lord, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own free will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven p counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which g the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem.

16 And s all the silver and gold that thou findest in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will-offering of the people, and of the priests, offering t willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings u and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the v altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do w after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure-house.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily.

CHAPTER IX.

Ezra prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated a themselves from the people of the lands doing b according to their abominations, c even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have taken c of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy d seed have e mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair g of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.h

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled i at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.k

5 ¶ And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my l heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread l out my hands unto the LORD my God,

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, n and our o trespass is grown o up unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers p have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered q into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as u is this day.

8 And now for a little s space grace hath been showed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us t a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten r our eyes, and give us v little reviving s in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen; t ye

our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall v in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,

11 Which thou hast commanded 6 by thy servants the prophets, saying, the land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from 7 one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace 8 or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less 9 than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this:

14 Should g we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldst not thou be angry with us till 2 thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escape?

15 O Lord God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, hast 10 been merciful, be hold, we are before thee in our trespasses, for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

CHAP. XI.

Ezra prayeth for the remission of the sins of the people.

NOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he had finished, weeping and fasting was, he bowed before the face of God, the congregation of Israel in a very great assembly, a multitude of men and women sitting on the ground for the people wept many days.

2 And Shethar, the son of Jehonadab, one of the sons of Eliam answered and said unto Ezra, We have transgressed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now we desire to turn unto thee concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a decree, that we turn unto our God, and put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the commandment of thy God, and of those that tremble e at the commandment f of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee; we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear g that they should do according to this word. And they swore.

6 ¶ Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashub: and when he came thither, he h did eat no bread, nor drink water; for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be 3 forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because i of this matter, and for the great fear.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have 2 taken strange wives, to increase the trespasses of Israel.

11 Now therefore make confession unto k the Lord God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the remnant of the land, from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so we will do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, and the here-15 wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

3 And they said unto me, The great affliction and reproach: the down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven.

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth the covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now therefore are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand,

11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cup-bearer.

Artaxerxes sendeth Nehemiah to Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was brought him, and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad when thou moah, repaired the 3 other piece,

and the tower of the furnaces.

12 And next unto him repaired
Shallum the son of Halobeshi,
the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem,
he and his daughters.

13 The valley-gate l repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah;
they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits
on the wall unto the dung-gate. m

14 But the dung-gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem;
he built it, and set up the doors
thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain n repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah;
he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah o by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him repaired Nehemiah
the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool p that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

17 And after him repaired the Levites, Rehun the son of Bani.
Next unto him repaired Hashabiah,
the ruler of the half part of Keilah,
in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadai,
the ruler of the half part of Keilah. q

19 And next to him repaired Ezer
the son of Ieshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning r of the wall.

20 After him Baruch the son of 4 Zabbai, earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him repaired Meremoth, the son of Urijah, the son of Koz, another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib, even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

22 And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain.

23 After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Mauseiah, the son of Ananiah by his house.

24 After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadai another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.

25 Palal, the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah, the son of Parosh.

26 Moreover the 5 Nehumias dwelt in 6 Ophel, unto the place over against the water-gate, toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

27 After them, the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

28 From above the horse-gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

29 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him repaired also Sheamiah the son of Sheamiah, the keeper of the east gate.

30 After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanan the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his chamber.

31 After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nehumias, and of the merchants, over against the gate-Miphkad, and to the going up of the 7 corner.

32 And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep-gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

2 And he spake before his bre- thren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these 4 feeble Jews? will they 1 fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even so which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God; for we are 2 despised: and turning their re- proach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And 3 cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall: and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were 4 made up, and that the branches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth.

8 And conspired 5 all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to 6 hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watchmen against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is de- cayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, 7 They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwell by them came, they said unto us ten times,

13 From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

14 ¶ Therefore set I 8 in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

15 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the peo- ple, Be not ye afraid of them:

member the Lord, which is at p and terrible, and tight q for r brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your

And it came to pass, when our ladies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought in counsel to nought, r that we armed all of us to the wall, every (unto his work.

And it came to pass from that e forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the others were behind all the house of Judah.

They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, h those that laded, every one h one of his hands wrought in work, and with the other hand d a weapon.

For the builders, every one had sword girded h by his side, and mailed. And he that sounded trumpet was by me.

¶ And I said unto the nobles, to the rulers, and to the rest of the people. The work is great, and we are separated in the wall, one far from another. In what place therefore ye hear sound of the trumpet, resort hither unto us: our God t shall be for us.

So we laboured in the work: half of them held the spears, and the rising of the morning till stars appeared.

Likewise at the same time said unto the people, Let every one h his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they be a guard to us, and labour all the day.

So neither I, u nor my brethren, my servants, nor the men of guard which followed me, none as put off our clothes, <sup>u</sup> saving every one put them off for 4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh c is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters d are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, e every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed f our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will you even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear g of our God because of the reproach h of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them: so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and i took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also I shook k my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and l emptied. And l all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And m the people did according to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth n year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not o eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver: yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but p so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 Think I upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER VI.

Sanballat practiseth by craft to terrify Nehemiah.

NOW it came to pass, when Sanballat, a and Tobiah, and i Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates:)

2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. c But they d thought to do me mischief.

3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort: and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand:

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and g Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be the king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and us like counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now, therefore, O God, q strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night h will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should I such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore k was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, l and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, think on thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for n they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 ¶ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto him.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah: and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshulam the son of Betelech.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

AND a all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water-gate: b and they spake unto Ezra the scribe, c to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water-gate from the 2 morning until mid-day, before the men and the women, and those that could understand: and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a f pulpit of wood which they had made for the purpose: and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Amariah, and Uryah, and Hilkiah, and Maasiah, on his right hand: and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Michael, and Meshaiam, and Husham, and Hashabai, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

CHAPTER IX.

A solemn fast, and repentance of the people.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth a upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves b from all 1 strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and read c in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshiped the LORD their God.

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the 2 stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried d with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand e up, and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed f be thy glorious name, which is exalted above g all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, h even thou art LORD alone; thou hast made i heaven, the heaven of heavens, k with all their hosts, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou l preservest them all; and the host m of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who n didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name o of Abraham;

8 And foundest his heart faithful p before thee, and madest a covenant q with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the

Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Gergashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed r thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 And didst see s the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by t the Red sea;

10 And showedst signs u and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knowest that they dealt proudly v against them. So didst thou get thee a name, w as x it is this day.

11 And x thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou throwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; y and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them z right judgments and z true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And made'st known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commanded'st them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them bread a from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water b for them out of the rock for their thirst; and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened c their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, neither did we remember thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in the e rebellion appointed e a captain to resist, to their bondage; but thou art a God ready to pardon, merciful, and plentiful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and lovestest him not.

18 Yea, when f they had made thee an idol, and said, This is thy God that brought' thee out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies, forsooke'st g them not in their wilderness, the g ill of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them h the way wherein they

20 Thou gavest also thy good a spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of b Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of c Oz king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multiplied, as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess d it.

24 So the children e went in and possessed the land, and e thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them f as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, g wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, h and debilitated themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, i and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind j their backs, and slew k thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore l thou deliverest them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest m them from heaven; and according to n the manifold mercies thou gavest them, saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore testest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies.

29 And thoustedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again, unto thy law: yet they despised thy commandments, and set against thy judgments, (which in do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. Yet many years didst thou <sup>11</sup> forsake them, and testifiedst <sup>12</sup> against sin by thy spirit <sup>13</sup> in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. Nevertheless for thy great mercies sake thou didst not utterly forsake them, nor forsake them: thou art a gracious and merciful God.

Now therefore, our God, that art, the mighty, and the terrible art, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the <sup>13</sup> trouble be little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and our prophets, and on our fathers, but on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou art done right, but we have done wickedly.

Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

For <sup>2</sup> they have not served thee in thy kingdom, and in thy law at goodness that thou gavest us, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, whither thou turned them from their wicked works.

Behold, we are servants <sup>h</sup> this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, old, we are servants in it:

And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings <sup>c</sup> whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also we have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

And because of all this we have made a sure covenant, and written and our princes, Levites, and scribes, <sup>15</sup> seal unto it.

These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren, in the days of Jeshua. d

8 Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnai, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Jodadah, and Mattaniah, e which was over the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Bakkukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

10 ¶ And Jeshua begat Josakim, Josakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada.

11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

12 And in the days of Josakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiiah, Meraiiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Ama-riah, Jehohanan;

14 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

15 Of Harim, Adia; of Meraioth, Helkai;

16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

17 Of Abijah, Zechari; of Miniamin;
of Moaddiah, Piltai;

18 Of Bilgah, Shamun; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

19 And of Joiarib, Mattaniah; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiiah, Nathaneel.

22 ¶ The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written f in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites:
Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua
the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment g of David the man of God, ward h over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakkukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters, keeping the ward
at the i thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim, the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nebumiah i the governor, and of Ezra
the priest, the k scribe.

27 ¶ And at the dedication l of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

8 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both at of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Jerusalemi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall, toward the dung-gate:

32 And after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and She-maiah, and Jeremiaih.

35 And certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; q namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of She-maiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, She-maiah, and Azariah, Mikai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 And at the fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;

39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish-gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep-gate; and they stood still in the prison-gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Elakim, Maaseiah, Minannin, Michaiah, Eliashub, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and She-maiah, and Eleazar, and Uzai, and Jehonathan, and Malchijah, and Elson, and Ezer. And the singers sang for us with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ And at that time were so appointed over the chambers: the treasures, for the offerings, the first-fruits, and for the tithes to gather into them out of the field of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of the gate, and the ward of the purification according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief singers, and songs of praise as thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel, in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAPTER XIII.

Divra abuses reformed by Nehemiah

ON that day they read a book of the book of Moses in the audience of the people: and there was found written, that the Levites and the Moabites should come into the congregation of Israel for ever:

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Baalam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they rated from Israel all the multitude.

4 ¶ And before thus, Eliashub, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of Asaph, was added unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared a great chamber, where they had the most-offering of frankincense, and the very tithes of the corn, wine, and the oil: and he commanded to be Levites, and the stewards, and the of priests.

shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath:
and some of my servants set i at the gates, that there should no burden
be brought in on the sabbath-day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them,
and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they s should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. Remember t me, O my God, concerning this also, and

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and <sup>18</sup> could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of <sup>17</sup> each people.

25 And v I contended with them, and <sup>28</sup> cursed them, and smote
certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear w
by God, saying, Ye shall not give take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26 Did not Solomon x king of Is-

many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved z of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

28 And one of the sons of Joiada, a from me.

29 Remember b them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant c of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards
d of the priests and the Levites,
every one in his business:

31 And for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the first-for good.

CHAPTER I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10
Vashti sent for.

NOW it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, a (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over b an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan c the palace,

3 In the third year in his reign, he made a feast d unto all his princes and his servants: the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

4 When he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when three days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace:

6 Where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement e of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

7 And they gave f them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another) and royal wine in abundance, according to the g state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house, which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 On the seventh day, when was in heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehu-

15 ¶ What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

§ ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together d unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness e of him; and he speedily gave her her things for f purification, with <sup>10</sup> such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he <sup>11</sup> preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not showed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her g that she should not show it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know <sup>12</sup> how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 ¶ Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, h and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women:)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shashgaz the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except i the king delighted in her, and that she were called by k name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, (who had taken her for his daughter,) was come to go unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour l in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto the king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, (which is the month Tebeth,) in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and sh

o<sup>1</sup> perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.

9 ¶ Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman restrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself: and to-morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet in all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to-morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman: and he caused the gallows to be made.

CHAPTER VI.

Abasuerus rewardeth Mordecai.

ON that night I could not let the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles: and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Abasuerus.

3 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 ¶ And the king said, Who is in the court? (Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 ¶ And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

8 Let the royal apparel brought which the king useth wear, and the horse that he rideth upon, and the crown which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and he be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man and whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horse through the street of the city, as proclaim before him, Thus shall be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horse back through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 ¶ And Mordecai came as to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house mourning, having his head covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife came unto him, If Mordecai be seed of the Jews, before thou hast begun to fall, he will not prevail against him, but surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hurried him into the banquet that had prepared.

tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king.

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he had his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it hath been, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may be reversed. Then wrote the king's scribes, and let that be done in the name of the king, and the king's seal, on the thirteenth and twentieth day of the month: and was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to do to the Jews, and to the eunuchs, and the deputies, and rulers of the provinces which are from a head unto a foot, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every one according to the writing of the king, and unto every troop of them, and unto every people of their land, and to the Jews according to the writing, and according to their language.

9 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries.

10 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city, to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, or to slay, and to cause to perish, in the power of the people and provinces that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, they ⁵ that plough iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and by ¹ the breath of his nostrils
are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth c of the young lions, are broken.

11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

7 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more are than his Maker?

18 Behold, he put no trust in his servants: and ⁹ his angels d he charged with folly:

19 How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 They are ¹⁰ destroyed from morning to evening: they perish
for ever without any regarding it.

21 Doth e not their excellency which is in them go away? they die f even without wisdom.

CHAPTER V.

God is to be regarded in affliction.
CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and ² envy slayeth the silly
one.

3 I a have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are far from safety,
and they are crushed in the gate,
neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eat-eth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although ² affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground:

7 Yet b man is born unto trouble,
as the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Which doeth great things and 6 unsearchable; marvellous things
7 without number:

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth,
and sendeth waters upon the fields.

11 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn
may be exalted to safety.

12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform ⁹ their enterprise.

13 He d taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 They ¹⁰ meet with darkness in the day-time, and grope in the noon-day as in the night.

15 But e he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

He complaineth of restlessness.

2 As a servant <sup>2</sup> earnestly desireth

looketh for the reward of his work:

3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights <sup>b</sup>

are appointed to me.

4 When <sup>c</sup> I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the <sup>d</sup> night be gone? and I am full of tossings to day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms

and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind:

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine

eyes are upon me, and <sup>g</sup> I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth

down to the grave shall come up no

10 He <sup>h</sup> shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terriest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16 If loathe it; I would not live always: let me alone; for my days are vanity.

17 What <sup>g</sup> is man, that thou shouldest magnify him! and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?

18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him

every moment?

19 How <sup>h</sup> long wilt thou not de-

I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a burden to myself?

21 And why dost thou not pardon

my transgression, and take away <sup>l</sup>

me in the morning, but I'm <sup>sh</sup>

Biddad sheweth God's justice.

CHAPTER VIII.

Biddad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men.

THEN answered Biddad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 Doth a God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;

5 If b thou wouldst seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 (For we c are but of yesterday, and know d nothing, because our days upon earth are e a shadow.)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 Whilst e it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope f shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's g web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it h shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him from his place, then i shall deny him, saying, j I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this k is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others l grow.

20 Behold, God k will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he m help the evil doers.

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with n rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with o shame; and the dwelling-place of the wicked shall come to naught.

Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth:

but a how should man be just? with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He b is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

CHAPTER X

Job entreatheth God for the shortness of life.

MAN that is born of a woman is 1 of few days, and full of trouble.

2 He b cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And e dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest d me into judgment with thee?

4 Who 2 can bring a clean e thing
out of an unclean? not one.

5 Seeing his days are determined,
the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed f his bounds that he cannot pass:

6 Turn from him, that he may 2 rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water
it will bud, and bring forth boughs
like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and 4 wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth
not: till the heavens g be no more,
they shall not awake, nor be raised
out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall h he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change i come.

15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 For k now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling
2 cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones:
thou 6 wastest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changeest

his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

CHAPTER XV.

Eliphaz reproveth Job's impiety in justifying himself.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk, or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, thou hast cast off fear, and restrainest thy prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou chooseth the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 With us are both the gray-headed, and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at?

13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints: yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will show thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare:

18 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it:

19 Unto whom man alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the 21 A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bones of his bucklers:

27 Because he covereth his face with his fulness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompense.

32 It shall be accomplished before him, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of vanity.

35 They shall conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

CHAPTER XVI.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I have heard many such things: miserable are comforters all ye are.

3 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake b mine head at you.

3 Wherefore are we counted as

19 He shall neither i have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

20 They that come after him shall be astounded at his day, k as they that went before 5 were affrighted.

21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not l God.

CHAPTER XIX.

21 Job craveth pity: 22 He bewails the resurrection.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words!

3 These ten a times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye 1 make yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, and prevail against me: ye reproach:

6 Know how that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of 2 wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

9 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

10 He c hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14 My d kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am alien in their sight.

16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I entreated him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

18 You, 4 young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.

19 All 5 my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

20 My e bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Have pity upon me, have pity on me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye persecute f me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 6 Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

25 For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

26 And 7 though, after my skin, worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh g shall I see h God:

27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another: though 8 my reins be consumed within me.

28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him? 11 seeing the root of the matter is found in me.

29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishment of the sword, that i ye may know there is a judgment.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

CHAPTER XXI.

The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said, 2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolation.

3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

5 Mark me, and be astonished, and lay a your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and fail- eth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand; the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out! and how oft counteth their destruction upon them?

All are alike in death.

God distributeth sorrow in his anger.
18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

19 God layeth up ⁷ his iniquity for his children: ⁸ he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall h any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth in his ⁸ full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His ⁹ breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall be down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling-places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens?

30 That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

33 The floods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall dwell at ease him, as there arenumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me in k vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth 11 falsehood?

CHAPTER XXII

Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 Can a man be profitable a unto God, as the 12 that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 13 I have seen peace to the Almighty, that thou art righteous: or is it 14 given to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

Address of Eliphaz.

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the ² naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the ³ mighty man, he had the earth; and the ⁴ honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore snares ⁵ are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the ⁶ height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, ⁷ How can God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden?

16 Which were cut down out of time, whose ⁸ foundation was overthrown with a flood:

17 Which 17 said unto God, Depart from us; and what can the Almighty do ⁹ for them?

18 Yet 18 he filled their house with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see 19, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our ²⁰ substance is not cut down, but ²¹ the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: ²² for thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up ²³ his words in thine heart.

23 If thou return ²⁴ to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold ²⁵ as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have ²⁶ plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up ²⁷ thy face unto God.

27 Thou 28 shalt make thy way ²⁹ unto him, and he shall bear thee up, and thou shalt pay thy wages.

4 They turn the needy out of the 5 Behold, as wild asses in the de-

13 They are of those that rebel

be broken as a tree.

21 He evil-entreateth the barren that beareth not, and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, wheroun he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

CHAPTER XXV.

Bildad sheweth that man cannot be justified before God.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 Dominion a and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?

4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.

6 How much less man, that is a worm! and the son of man, which is a worm!

CHAPTER XXVI.

Job reproveth the uncharitable spirit of Bildad.

BUT Job answered and said,

2 How a hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing which is?

4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

CHAPTER XXVII.

The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

MOREOVER Job continued his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils.

4 My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go; my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but he shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity.

parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were as in months past,
as in the days ^u when God preserved
me;

3 When his ^v candle shined upon my head, and ^w when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth,
when the secret ^x of God ^y was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty ^z was yet with me, ^a when my children ^b were about
me;

6 When ^c I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured ^d me out rivers of oil:

7 When I went out to the gate
through the city, ^e when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking,
and laid ^f their hand on their mouth.

10 ^g The nobles held their peace,
and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard ^h me, then it blessed ⁱ me; and when the eye
saw ^j me, it gave witness to me;

12 Because I delivered ^k the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me:

and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

11 If I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAPTER XXX.

Job's honour turned into extreme contempt.

BUT now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness: in former time desolate and waste.

4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper-roots for their meat.

5 They were driven forth from among men, they cried after them as after a thief:

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of a base men: they were viler than the earth.

9 And now am I their song, yea, am their by-word.

11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me: the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dost dissolve my substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29 I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to vipers.

ways of man, and he seeth ⁱ all his 22 There is no darkness. k nor of iniquity may hide ! themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more ^m than ⁿ right ; that he should ^o enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without ^p number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth ^q them in the night, so that they are ¹⁰ destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked
men in the ¹¹ open sight ^r of others ;

27 Because they turned back

31 Let men of ¹⁴ understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 ¹⁵ My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAPTER XXXV.

Comparison is not to be made with God.

ELIIHU spake moreover, and said, 2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, a My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For thou saidst, What b advantage will it be unto thee? and. What profit shall I have, 1 if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds, which are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 Ifd thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make th oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, Where is God my Maker, who giveth signs in the sky?

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 Yea, they cry, but none giveth answer: because of the pride of their heart.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty condescend to them.

14 Therefore shall they say, thou shalt not be rewarded for thy favour: for thou shalt not be rewarded.

15 But now, because th art vexed, thou hast boasted in his anger; yet thou knowest th art not in great excellency.

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain: he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways.

ELIIHU also proceeded, and said, 2 Suffer me a little, and I will show thee that 1 I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and ² wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the ³ poor.

7 He b withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if c they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction.

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasure.

12 But if they obey not, they shall ⁴ perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry and when he bindeth them.

14 They die in youth, and their life is among the ⁵ unclean.

15 He delivereth the ⁶ poor mis affliction, and openeth their ears to oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed them out of the straitness: a broad peace, where there is straitness; and that which he had set on thy table should be to thee of fitness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice 3 take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, therefore lest he take thee away with 4 stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches? 5 no, nor gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not sleeping for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

20 Hearken unto this, O Job:
stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

21 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

22 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

23 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

24 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking-glass?

25 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order
our speech by reason of darkness.

26 Shall it be told him that I speak?
If a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

27 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth and cleanseth them.

28 Fair weather cometh out of

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

God, by his mighty works, convinceth
Job of ignorance.

THEN the Lord answered Job
out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words a without knowledge?

3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee,
and answer thou me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stones thereof?

7 When the morning stars came together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when I brake forth as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud th

garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it.

10 And ^a brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors.

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed.

12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know his place:

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof?

20 That thou shouldst take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldst know the paths to the house thereof?

21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

22 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who hath divided a water-course for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder?

26 To cause it to rain ^a on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man:

27 To satisfy ⁱ the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath rendered it?

30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is g proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together;
and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 ¶ Behold now 1 behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth
grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, h where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees,
in the covert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 ¶ He taketh it with his eyes:
his nose pierceth through snares.

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed iron? or his head with fish spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? what do I ever receive under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15 His 4 scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his nosings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 The 6 flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him hurt: stones are turned with him into stubble.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Job submitteth himself unto God. 16 Job's age and death.

THEN Job answered the Lord, and said,

2 I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

3 Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

6 Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 ¶ And it was so, that after the Lord had spoken these words unto Job, the Lord said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me y. the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now 7 seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for 2 him will I accept; lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the Lord commanded them: the Lord also accepted 2 Job.

10 And the Lord turned 1 the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, of all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and with

read with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; every man forgave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 So a the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning; for he had e fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

16 After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

PSALM I.

The happiness of the godly. 4 The unhappiness of the ungodly.

BLESSED is the man that walketh not a in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth b in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight c is in the law of the LORD; and in his law d doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree e planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not f wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. 4 The ungodly are not so: but re like the chaff f which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand g in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD knoweth h the way of the righteous: but the way i of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM III.

The security of God's protection. A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifer up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

5 I laid me down and slept; e I awaked; for the LORD sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD: save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the tee of the ungodly.

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience: 2 he reprooveth and exhorteth his enemies, etc.

To the ¹ chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will show us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

1 David prayeth and professeth his study in prayer. 7 David, professing his faith, prayeth unto God to guide him.

To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth. A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

2 Harken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD: in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For a thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple. 8 Laud me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine ene-

PSALM VI.

David's complaint in his sickness. To the chief Musician on Neginoth, ¹ Shemithah. A Psalm of David.

LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD: for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long!

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning; all the night I make my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer.

10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

PSALM VII.

David prayeth against the malice of his enemies.

Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the sons of Cush the Benjamites.

LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion rending it in pieces, whilst there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if this; if there be it hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, and lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake I for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts, I and reins.

10 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he be turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and he is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

PSALM IX.

David praiseth God for executing of judgment.

To the chief Musicians upon Mathathias. A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart: I will show forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praises to thy name, O thou most high.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou satest in the throne judging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy! destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; and their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name, O LORD, shall put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD: consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou liftest me up from the gates of death:

15 That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made; in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. 6 Higgaion. A Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD: let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

PSALM X.

1 David complaineth to God: 12 He prayeth for remedy: 16 He professeth his confidence.

Why standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: 4 God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he perleth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

7 His mouth is full of cursing and bitterness and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He steth in the lurking-places of the villages: in the secret places he murdereth the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the just.

9 He hath in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he hath in wait to catch the poor: when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself: that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: c he hideth his face: he will never see it.

PSALM XI.

David encourageth himself in God against his enemies.

To the chief Musicians. A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: how can I say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 The LORD is in his holy temple: the LORD's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eye-lids try, the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness: his countenance doth behold the upright.

PSALM XII.

David's confidence in God's true promises.

To the chief Musicians upon 1 Shemith. A Psalm of David.

HELP, LORD; for the godly man censeth: for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all the flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh a proud tongue.

4 Who have said, With our ill we prevail; our lips are <sup>4</sup> our <sup>1</sup> men; who is lord over us?

 For the oppression of the poor,
 & the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, (saith the LORD;) I will set him in safety from him that <sup>2</sup> pull-

The words of the LORD are <sup>3</sup> do

 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, that thou shalt preserve <sup>4</sup> them from

The wicked walk on every side,
 when the vilest <sup>5</sup> men are exalted.

PSALM XIII.

David prayeth for preventing grace:

 To the <sup>2</sup> chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

HOW long wilt thou forget me,
 O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide a thy face from me?
 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart
 daily? how long shall mine enemy

Consider and hear me, O LORD
 my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep <sup>3</sup> the sleep of death;

Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that scold me rejoice when I am cause he hath dealt bountifully

 with me.

David describeth the corruption of a natural man: <sup>4</sup> He convinceth

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

THE fool hath said in his heart,

 works, there is none that doeth good.

The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
 to see if there were any that did

PSALM XV.

David describeth a citizen of Zion.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth
 not.

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

PSALM XVI.

David, in distrust of merits, sheweth
 the hope of his calling, of the resurrection, and life everlasting.

A Michtem of David.

PRESERVE me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my LORD: thy goodness extendeth not to thee;

But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, to whom is all my delight.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied
 that hasten after another god:
 their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup:
 thou maintainest my lot.

The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand <sup>1</sup> are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XVII.

David crooneth defence of God against his enemies.

A Prayer of David.

HEAR <sup>1</sup>the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, <sup>2</sup>that goeth not out of feigned lips.

<sup>3</sup> Thou hast proved a mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

<sup>6</sup> I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

<sup>11</sup> They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

<sup>15</sup> As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

PSALM XIX.

*1 The creatures show God's glory,
7 the word, his grace.*

To the chief Musicians. A Psalm of David.

THE heavens a declare the glory of God: and the firmament showeth his handiwork.

<sup>2</sup> Day unto day uttereth speech,
and night unto night showeth knowledge.

<sup>1</sup> where their voice is not heard.

all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

<sup>5</sup> Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

<sup>6</sup> His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

<sup>4</sup> converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

<sup>8</sup> The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

A thanksgiving

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

PSALM XX.

The church bleareth the king in his exploits.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble: the name of the God of Jacob defend thee.

2 Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion.

3 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt-sacrifice. Selah.

4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

PSALM XXII.

David propheth in great distress.

23 He propheth Gad.

To the chief Musician upon Ajaleth Shairar. A Psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me! why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my bemoaning?

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in the night-season, and am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am a worm, and not a man: a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shake out at the lip, they shake y the head, saying,

8 He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou hast taken me hope when I was in my mother's belly.

1 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from thy mother's belly.

2 Be not far from me: for trouble near: for there is none to help.

3 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

4 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

5 I am poured out like water, and my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

6 My strength is dried up like a sherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

7 For dogs have compassed me: a assembly of the wicked have closed me: they pierced my sides and my feet.

8 I am in pain, I may tell all my bones: they mock and stare upon me.

9 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

10 But be not thou far from me, O God: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

11 Deliver my soul from the sword; deliver me from the power of a dog.

12 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me on the horns of the unicorns.

13 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

14 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him: all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the end of Israel.

15 For he hath not despised nor scorned the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he roared unto him, he heard.

16 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: thou wilt pay my vows before them that fear thee.

17 The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart all live for ever.

18 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

19 For the kingdom is the LORD's: he is the governor among the nations.

20 All they that be far upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep his own soul.

PSALM XXIII.

David's confidence in God's grace.

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou shalt anoint my head with oil; my cup shall runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

PSALM XXIV.

The citizens of God's spiritual kingdom.

A Psalm of David.

THE earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?

4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

PSALM XXV.

David's confidence in prayer.

A Psalm of David.

UNTIL thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed: a let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yea, let not that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

4 Show b me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation: on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.

10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

11 For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

12 What man is he that feareth the LORD? him he shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant.

15 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

18 Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.

19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.

21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

PSALM XXVII.

David sustains his faith by the power of God.

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to hold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.

5 For d in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me: he shall set me up upon a rock.

PSALM XXIX.

David exhorteth princes to give glory
to God.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE a unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD b glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the 2 glory
due unto his name; worship the LORD in 3 the beauty c of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is 5 powerful; the voice of the LORD is 6 full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh
the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh
the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion
like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth
the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh
the wilderness; the LORD shaketh
the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh
the hinds to c calve, and discovereth the forests: and d in his temple e doth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; f yea, the LORD sitteth King f for ever.

11 The LORD will give strength g unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace. h

PSALM XXX.

David praiseth God for his deliverance.

A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol thee, O LORD: for thou hast lifted me up, and hast
not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

3 O LORD, thou a hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks i at the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For j his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour k is life:
weeping may endure l for a night,
but m joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

7 LORD, by thy favour thou b hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face,
and I was troubled.

unto the LORD I made supplication.

but those that wait upon the LORD,
they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth: and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked + plotteth against the just, and gnaweth upon him with his teeth.

13 The LORD shall laugh at him:
for he seeth that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out
the sword, and have bent their bow,
to cast down the poor and needy,
and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

16 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy and giveth.

22 For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth: and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD
upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old: yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

26 He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good;
and dwell for evermore.

28 For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints:
they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

30 The mouth of the righteous

speakeh wisdom, and his tongue calkethe of judgment.

31 The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end is of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he will deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

PSALM XXXVIII

David moeth God to take compass of his painful case.

A Psalm of David, to bring to a remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath; neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

David's care of his thoughts, and prayer.

To the chief Musician, even to a Jebethan. A Psalm of David.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue:

1 I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue.

4 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as a handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man is at his best state at altogether vanity. Behin.

6 Surely every man walketh in vanity show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heareth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide
even unto death.

PSALM XLIX.

Worldly prosperity is not to be admired.

A Psalm for
the sons of Korah.

To the chief musician. A Psalm for
the sons of Korah.

HEAR this, all ye people: give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a poor man: I will open my dark sayings upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear as days of evil, when the inquiry
my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that trust in their own and boast themselves in their multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any redeem his brother, nor can God ransom for him:

8 (For the redemption of soul is precious, and it cost ever.)

9 That he should still live
and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that die, likewise the fool and the unwise person perish, and wealth to others.

11 Their inward thoughts shall comfort them, and their houses shall comfort them: and they shall say in their heart, we are safe for ever.

12 Nevertheless man
after his own name
shall perish, like the beasts of the field.

13 This they will yet their posterity
sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep
grave, death.

and the upright shall have dominion h over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume h in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for he shall receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

17 For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

PSALM L

The majesty of God in the church.

A Psalm of Asaph.

THE a mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather e my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God g is judge himself. Selah.

7 Hear, h O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he-goats out of thy stalls.

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High:

17 Seeing thou hatest my instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother: thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation right will I show the salvation of God.

PSALM LI

God delighteth not in sacrifice, but in sincerity.

To the chief Musicians. A Psalm of David, when a Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: g that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, h I was shapen in iniquity: and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide n thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create n in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free Spirit.

13 Then g will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God; then God of my salvation; and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: then delightest not in burnt-offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken heart, and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shall thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt-offering and whole burnt-offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM LII.

David, upon his confidence in God's mercy, giveth thanks.

To the chief Musician, Maschil. A Psalm of David; when Doeg the Elonite came and told to Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man! the goodness of God endureth continually.

2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and shall root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

PSALM LIII.

David describes the corruption of a natural man.

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath Maschil. A Psalm of David.

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done an abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

2 God hath looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

3 Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.

5 There I went that in great fear: where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 O that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM LIV.

David, upon his confidence in God's help, giveth thanks.

To the chief Musician upon Negebah, Maschil. A Psalm of David, when the Ziphims came and said to him, Will not David hide himself with us?

SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength. 2 Hear my prayer, O God: give heed to the words of my request.

3 For strangers have risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.

4 Behold, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy truth. 6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, O Lord, for it is good.

7 For he hath delivered me of all trouble: and none shall see his teeth upon me.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: 8 bloody and deceitful men shall not 9 live out half their days: yet I will trust in thee.

David professeth his confidence in God's word.

To the chief Musician upon Jonathan-levechokin, 1 Micham of David, when a the Philistines took him in Gath.

BE merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow b me up: he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2 Mine 2 enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou Most High.

3 What time I am afraid, c I will trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust: d I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: e all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark f my steps, when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? g in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

8 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book? h

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know: 2 for i God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word: in the Lord will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust: i will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render e praises unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living? j

PSALM LVII

David encourageth himself to praise God.

To the chief Musician, 1 Abiathar, Micham of David, when a he fled from Saul in the cave.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my son

trusteth in thee: yea, in b the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4 My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down; they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.

7 My heart is fixed: O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.

8 Awake up, my glory: awake, psaltery and lute: I myself will awake early.

9 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.

10 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

11 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

PSALM LVIII.

To the chief Musician, A A-tachith, Michiam of David.

2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness: ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

4 Their breast is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

PSALM LIX.

David, praying to be delivered from his enemies, trusteth in God.

To the chief Musician, A A-tachith, a Michiam of David: when a Saul was, and they watched the house to kill him.

DELIVER c me from mine enemies, O my God: a defend me from them that rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; note for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to a help me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to my wicked transgression. Selah.

6 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear?

8 But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them: thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for God is my a defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall prevent a me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine a enemies.

11 Slay a them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power, and bring them down, O LORD our shield.

12 For a the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that thou rulest in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

14 And at evening let them not and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

15 Let them wander up and down for meat, and grudge if they be not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing; for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

PSALM LX.

David complaineth to God of former judgment.

To the chief Musician upon a Shebanseth. 1 Micham of David, to teach; when he strove with Akish-naharaim and with Aram-poth, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

O GOD, thou hast cast us off, thou hast <sup>2</sup>scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal <sup>3</sup>the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast showed thy people <sup>4</sup>hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 Thou hast given a banner <sup>5</sup>to them that feared thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

5 That if thy beloved may be delivered; save <sup>6</sup>with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine hand; Judah is my lawgiver;

8 Moab is my wash-pot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, triumph <sup>9</sup>because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

10 Will not thou, O God, which hast cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?

11 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the <sup>12</sup>help of man.

12 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he <sup>13</sup>is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM LXII.

No trust is to be put in worldly things. To the chief Musician, to a Jeduthan.

A Psalm of David.

TRULY <sup>1</sup>my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my <sup>3</sup>defence; I shall not be <sup>4</sup>greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies; they bless with their mouth, but they curse <sup>5</sup>inwardly. Selah.

5 My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour <sup>9</sup>out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are <sup>10</sup>altogether lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11 God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that <sup>12</sup>power belongeth unto God.

12 Also unto thee, O Lord, longeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his w

PSALM LXIII.

1 David's thirst for God: A Hymn of blessing God.

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee; my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

2 To seek thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy loving-kindness is far better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips.

6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night-watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for the fowls.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM LXIV.

David prayeth for deliverance, complaining of his enemies.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsels of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 Who bloweth their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities: they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them

PSALM LXV.

The blessedness of God's doves, his reason of benignity.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm and Song of David.

PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and comest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness will thou answer us, O God of our salvation: who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains: being girded with power.

7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at the tokens: thou makest the outgoing of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest their corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou shalt the furrows thereof: thou shalt it soft with showery: thou shalt the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest this year with thy goodness; and thy ways are fatness.

12 They drop upon the pasture of the wilderness: and the hills shall rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are enriched with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn: they shall sing joy, they also men.

PSALM LXIX.

1 David complaineth of his affliction: 13 He prayeth for deliverance.

To the chief Musician upon a Shabaz nim. A Psalm of David.

SAVE me, O God: for the waters are come in unto my soul.

2 I sink in 1 deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into 2 deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness: and my 3 sins are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not the multitude be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul :
let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha !

4 Let all those that seek e thee d rejoice and be glad in thee : and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 But I am poor and needy : make haste unto me, O God : thou art
my help and my deliverer ; O LORD make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

David prayeth in confidence of faith,
and experience of God's favour.

IN a thee, O LORD, do I put my trust : let me never be put to confusion.

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness,
and cause me to escape : incline
thine ear b unto me, and save me.

3 Be thou s my strong habitation, whereunto c I may continually resort : thou hast given commandment to save me ; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art my hope, d O LORD God : thou art my trust from my youth.

6 By e thee have I been holden up from the womb : thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels :
my f praise shall be continually of
thee.

7 I am as a wonder g unto many ;
but thou art my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age ; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak against me ; and they that s lay wait for my soul take counsel h together,

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him

persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

12 O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help.

13 Let them be confounded and consumed that be adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 My mouth shall show forth thy righteousness and thy salvation till the day; for I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

18 Now also when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not: until I have showed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, in whom hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee!

20 Thou, which hast showed me great and sore troubles, shalt a quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise thee with the psalter, O Lord thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

PSALM LXXII.

David praying for Solomon, sheweth the goodness and glory of his kingdom, in type, and of Christ's, in truth.

A Psalm for Solomon.

GIVE a the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills by righteousness.

He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor. d

5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 He shall come down like rain

upon the mown grass: as showers

their water the earth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace

so long as the moon endureth.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him: and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Senna and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yea, all kings shall fall down

before him: all nations shall serve

him.

12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; and the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

15 And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: in prayer also shall he be made for him continually; and daily

shall he be praised.

16 There shall be an hundred of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains: the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

17 His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued

as long as the sun: and all nations shall call him blessed.

18 Blessed is the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.

19 And blessed be his glorious

name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory.

Amen, and amen.

20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

3 For I was envious a at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no hands in their death: but their strength a is firm.

5 They are not in a trouble as other men; neither are they plagued a like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment b.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they a have more than heart could wish.

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak c lustily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return father: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, How d doth God know! and is there knowledge in the Most High!

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 Verily e I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and a chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus: behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, it was g too painful for me;

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou catest them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awaketh; yea, O LORD, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

PSALM LXXIV.

The Prophet's complaint of the desolation of the sanctuary.

Maschil: of Asaph.

O GOD why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old: the a rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 Thine a enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations: they set up their ensigns for signs.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 They have a cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling-place of thy name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, Let us a destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our sign: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

12 For God is my king b of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 Thou c didst d divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest e the heads of the dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat f to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 Thou didst cleave the fountain, and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made ^a summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the h foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove i unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 Have respect unto the k covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee ^a increaseth continually.

PSALM LXXV.

1 The Prophet praiseth God: 2 He promisethto judge uprightly.

To the chief Musician, 1 Al-tashith, a Psalm or Song ^a of Asaph.

UNTO thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near, thy wondrous works declare.

2 ^a When I shall receive the congregation I will judge b uprightly.

3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah.

4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the c horn:

5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the ^a south.

7 But God is the judge: he d putteth down one, and setteth up another.

8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, e and the wine is red; it is full of mixture: and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

9 But I will declare for ever: I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off: but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSALM LXXVII.

The Psalmist sheweth what fierce combat he had with affliction.

To the chief Musician, in a Tethum, A Psalm ^a of Asaph.

ICRIED unto God with my voice; even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the LORD: my ^a sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit b was overwhelmed. Selah.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered c the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song d in the night: I commune e with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent f search.

7 Will the LORD cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail? ^a for evermore?

9 Hath God forgotten? h is he gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies?

10 And I said, Thine i is my infirmity: but I will remember thee from the right hand of the Most High.

11 With remembrance of thee, O

the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who m is so great a God as our God!

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

16 The waters n saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 The clouds + poured out water: the skies sent out a sound; thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice o of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou p leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM LXXVIII.

An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God.

Maschil a of Asaph.

GIVE h ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We d will not hide them from their children, showing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law c in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

6 That f the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born, who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And g might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that + set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and + carrying bows, turned back i in the day of battle.

of God, and refused to walk in his law;

11 And forgot l his works, and his wonders that he had showed them.

12 Marvellous things n did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

13 He divided a the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made p the waters to stand as an heap.

14 In q the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave r the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He s brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking t the Most High in the wilderness.

18 And he tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

19 Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God + furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the LORD heard th, and was v wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;

22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors w of heaven,

24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 + Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused an east wind to + blow in the heaven: and by s power he brought in the south wind.

27 He *r*ained flesh also upon them as dust, and + feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for y he gave them their own desire;

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths,

31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and + smote down the + chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they sinned: and believed not for his word.

33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 When z he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and inquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that God was their rock, a and the high God their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did flatter b him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

37 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they steadfast in his covenant.

38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave c their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and d did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For he remembered e that they were but flesh: a wind f that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they g provoke g him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

41 Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited h the *h*ly One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the i enemy.

45 He l sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He m gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 He n destroyed their vines with n hail, and their sycamore trees with o frost.

48 He p gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to o hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels q among them.

50 He r made a way r to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their s life over to the pestilence.

51 And smote all the first-born t in Egypt: the chief of their strength t in the tabernacles of Ham.

52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And u he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea u overthrew their enemies.

55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided g them as inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:

57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel.

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men:

61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 He s gave his people over s unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were t given to marriage.

64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awaked in one out of sleep, and like a mighty man u that shouteth by peace, and wine.

66 And v he smote his enemies in the hinder part: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion x which he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary the high y palaces, like the earth which he hath z established for ever.

70 He chose David y also his servant, and took him from the sheepfold:

71 From z following the ewe great with young he brought him to feed z Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

of God.

unto the God of Jacob.

2. Take a psalm, and bring hither

the psalttery.

3. Blow up the trumpet in the new

4. For this d was a statute for Is-

5. This he ordained in Joseph for

I heard a language c that I under-

6. I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands d were delivered from the pots. d

7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah.

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

9 There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But <sup>1</sup> my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.

12 So I gave them up <sup>2</sup> unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

13 Oh <sup>3</sup> that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of the LORD should have <sup>4</sup> submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should have fed them also with the <sup>5</sup> finest of the wheat: and with honey <sup>6</sup> I out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

3 Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: <sup>6</sup> all the <sup>7</sup> foundations of the earth are <sup>8</sup> out of course.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

A prayer containing a grievous complaint.

A Song or Psalm l for the sons of Korah: To the chief Musician upon Mahalath Lemoth, m Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD God of my salvation, I b have cried day and night before thee:

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

3 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth high unto the grave.

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:

5 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off h from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath c lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.

8 Thou d hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 Wilt thou show wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

PSALM LXXXIX.

The Psalmist praiseth God for his covenant and wonderful power. Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to a all covenant sons.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn b unto David my servant.

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.

5 And the heavens c shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation d of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

8 O LORD God of hosts, who e art strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

9 Thou f rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken g Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with h thy strong arm.

11 The heavens i are thine, the earth also j is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast k a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 Thou l hast had a habitation of old, and thy name shall be

33 Nevertheless in my loving-kindness I will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once have I sworn by my holiness: that I will not lie unto David.

36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

PSALM XC.
Moses setteth forth God's providence, and divine chastisements.

A Prayer of Moses the man of God. LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday, when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass, which groweth up.

6 In the morning it flourisheth

and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon out off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish it thou it.

The Prophet exhorteth to praise God for his great works.

A Psalm or Song for the sabbath-day.

IT a is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High:

2 To show forth thy loving-kindness in the morning; b and thy faithfulness c every night.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

6 A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When d the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; e it is that they shall be destroyed for ever.

8 But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed f with fresh oil.

PSALM XCV.

An exhortation to praise God for his goodness.

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD: let a us make a joyful noise to the rock b of our salvation.

2 Let us 1 come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For c the LORD is a great God,
and a great King d above all gods.

4 In 2 his hand are the deep places of the earth: the 3 strength of the hills is his also.

5 4 The sea is his, and he made e
it: and his hands formed the dry

6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker.

7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To-day g if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, as in the 5 provocation, h and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted i me, proved me, and saw my work.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart,
and they have not known my ways:

4 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou d dost establish equity, thou executeest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool; e for 2 he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samueel among them that call upon his name; they f called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spake unto them in g the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God: thou h wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

9 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy i hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

4 Enter d into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

PSALM CII.

The mercies of God are to be recorded.

A Prayer 1 of the afflicted, when a he is overwhelmed, and poureth b out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR c my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee.

2 Hide d not thy face from me in the day when i am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when i call answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed 2 like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that i forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my 3 skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: i am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn e against me.

9 For i have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for f thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are like a shadow g that declineth; and i am withered like h grass.

12 But thou, i O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time k that i favour her, yea, the set l time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

17 He m will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This n shall be written for thy generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 To a hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose a those that are appointed to death;

21 To p declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He a weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

24 I q said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

25 Of r old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But s thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM CIII.

An exhortation to bless God for his mercy.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 Who forgive a all thine iniquities; who healeth b all thine diseases;

4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies:

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 The LORD excludeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel:

8 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

9 He d will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 For u as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As u as the east is from the

PSALM CIV.

A meditation upon the mighty power and providence of God.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

2 Who coverest thyself with light b as with a garment; who c stretchest out the heavens like a curtain;

3 Who d layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters; who maketh the clouds e his chariot; who f walketh upon the wings of the wind;

5 h Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6 Thou i coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7 At j thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

PSALM CV.

An exhortation to praise God, and to seek out his works.

O <sup>a</sup> GIVE thanks unto the LORD:
call upon his name: make <sup>b</sup>
known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek
the LORD.

4 Seek <sup>c</sup> the LORD, and his strength: seek <sup>d</sup> his face evermore.

5 Remember his marvellous works
that he hath done: his wonders,
and the judgments of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God: his <sup>e</sup> judgments are in all the earth.

8 He <sup>f</sup> hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

9 Which <sup>g</sup> covenant he made with Abraham, <sup>g</sup> and his oath unto Isaac; <sup>h</sup>

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob <sup>i</sup> for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the <sup>1</sup> lot of your inheritance:

12 When there were but a few <sup>k</sup> men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom
to another people;

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes;

15 Saying, Touch not mine anoint-ed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover <sup>l</sup> he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff in of bread.

17 He <sup>n</sup> sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold <sup>o</sup> for a servant:

18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: <sup>2</sup> he was laid in iron:

19 Until the time that his wo-came: the word of the LORD tried him.

20 The king p sent and loosed him; even the ruler of thappeople, and let him go free.

21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his s substance:

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his senators wisdom.

23 Israel q also came into Egypt: and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

24 And r he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

26 He sent Moses s his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 They showed t his signs t among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness, u and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.

29 He turned their waters v into blood, and slew their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogs w in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

31 He x spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

32 He gave y them hail y for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.

34 He spake, and the locusts z came, and caterpillars, and that without number.

35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 He smote also all the first-born a in their land, the chief b of all their strength.

37 He c brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 Egypt d was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 He e spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.

40 The people asked, f and he brought quails, g and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 He h opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy and his chosen with gladness:

PSALM CVI.

The Psalmist exhorteth to praise God.

PRAISE 1 ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who b can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can show forth all his praise?

3 Blessed c are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

4 Remember c me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That i may see the good of thy chosen, f that i may rejoice in the gladness g of thy nation, that i may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We i have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt: they remembered not the multitude of the mercies; but k provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that m he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 He n rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And o the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words: they sang p his praise.

13 They q soon forgot q his works: they trusted not for his counsel:

14 But r trusted r exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness s into their soul.

16 They t envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in the company; the flame burned the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.
20 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, & they believed not his word:

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And he served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, inasmuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the d Ps.

14 He m brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For n he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools, because o of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then p they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word q and healed them, r and delivered them from their destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, t and declare his works with u rejoicing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For a he commandeth, and b riseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted c because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and d are at their wit's end.

28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He e maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He f turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the water-springs into dry ground;

34 g h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z aa ab ac ad ae af ag ah ai aj ak al am an ao ap aq ar as at au av aw ax ay az ba bb bc bd be bf bg bh bi bj bk bl bm bn bo bp bq br bs bt bu bv bw bx by bz ca cb cc cd ce cf cg ch ci cj ck cl cm cn co cp cq cr cs ct cu cv cw cx cy cz da db dc dd de df dg dh di dj dk dl dm dn do dp dq dr ds dt du dv dw dx dy dz ea eb ec ed ee ef eg eh ei ej ek el em en eo ep eq er es et eu ev ew ex ey ez fa fb fc fd fe ff fg fh fi fj fk fl fm fn fo fp fq fr fs ft fu fv fw fx fy fz ga gb gc gd ge gf gg gh gi gj gk gl gm gn go gp gq gr gs gt gu gv gw gx gy gz ha hb hc hd he hf hg hh hi hj hk hl hm hn ho hp hq hr hs ht hu hv hw hx hy hz ia ib ic id ie if ig ih ii ij ik il im in io ip iq ir is it iu iv iw ix iy iz ja jb jc jd je jf jj jk jl jm jn jo jp jq jr js jt ju jv jw jx jj ky ka kb kc kd ke kf kg kh ki kj kl km kn ko kp kq kr ks kt ku kv kw kx ky kz la lb lc ld le lf lg lh li lj lk ll lm ln lo lp lq lr ls lt lu lv lw lx ly lz ma mb mc md me mf mg mh mi mj mk ml mm mn mo mp mq mr ms mt mu mv mw mx my mz na nb nc nd ne nf ng nh ni nj nk nl nm nn no np nq nr ns nt nu nv nw nx ny nz oa ob oc od oe of og oh oi oj ok ol om on oo op oq or os ot ou ov ow ox oy oz pa pb pc pd pe pf pg ph pi pj pk pl pm pn po pp pq pr ps pt pu pv pw px py pz qa qb qc qd qe qf qg qh qi qj qk ql qm qn qo qp qq qr qs qt qu qv qw qx qy qz ra rb rc rd re rf rg rh ri rj rk rl rm rn ro rp rq rr rs rt ru rv rw rx ry rz sa sb sc sd se sf sg sh si sj sk sl sm sn so sp sq sr ss st su sv sw sx sy sz ta tb tc td te tf tg th ti tj tk tl tm tn to tp tq tr ts tt tu tv tw tx ty tz ua ub uc ud ue uf ug uh ui uj uk ul um un uo up uq ur us ut uu uv uw ux uy uz va vb vc vd ve vf vg vh vi vj vk vl vm vn vo vp vq vr vs vt vu vv vw vx vy vz wa wb wc wd we wf wg wh wi wj wk wl wm wn wo wp wq wr ws wt wu wv ww wx wy wz xa xb xc xd xe xf xg xh xi xj xk xl xm xn xo xp xq xr xs xt xu xv xw xx xy xz ya yb yc yd ye yf yg yh yi yj yk yl ym yn yo yp yq yr ys yt yu yv yw yx yy yz za zb zc zd ze zf zg zh zi zj zk zl zm zn zo zp zq zr zs zt zu zv zw zx zy zz done it.

PSALM CX.

The kingdom, priesthood, and pos-
 sion of Christ.

A Psalm of David.

THE a LORD said unto my Lord,
 Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy foot-stool.

2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule b
 thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 Thy people shall be willing c in the day of thy power, in the beauties d of holiness e from the womb of the morning: thou f hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, thou e art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

5 The LORD at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day f of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he g shall wound
 the heads over h many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook i in the way: therefore shall he lift up
 the head.

PSALM CXIII.

An exhortation to praise God for his excellency and mercy.

PRAISE ¹ ye the LORD. Praise ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.

2 Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and is evermore.

3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the LORD's name is to be praised.

4 The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the LORD our God, who ² dwelleth on high.

6 Who b humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

7 He c raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and setteth the needy out of the dunghill:

8 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

9 He maketh the barren woman to ³ keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXIV.

An exhortation, by the example of dumb creatures.

WHEN a Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language:

2 Judah c was his sanctuary, and d Israel his dominion.

3 The sea e saw it, and fled: Jordan f was driven back.

5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy and truth.

O PRAISE a the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

2 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth b

Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVIII.

The coming of Christ in his kingdom
is expressed.

O GIVE a thanks unto the LORD;
for he is good: because his mercy b endureth for ever.

2 Let c Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth

distress: the LORD answered me,
and set me in a large place.

6 The e LORD 2 on my side; I will not fear: what can man do

7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate
me.

8 It is better to trust in the LORD
than to put confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the LORD
than to put confidence in g princes.

10 All nations compassed me

LORD will I 3 destroy them.

11 They compassed me about;
y-a. They compassed me about;
but in the name of the LORD I will 12 They compassed me about like fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but k the LORD

song, and is become my salvation.

righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

17 I m shall not die, but live, and declare thy works of the LORD.

18 The LORD hath chastened o me sore: but he hath not given me ever unto death.

19 Open p unto me the gates of right-

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me?

83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.

84 How many are the days of thy servant! when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?

85 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law.

86 All thy commandments are faithful: they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.

87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts.

88 Quicken me after thy loving-kindness; so shall I keep thy testimony of my mouth.

LAMED.

89 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.

90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

91 They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants.

92 Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction.

93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me.

94 I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts.

95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.

96 I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

MEM.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

102 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.

103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

104 Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate a every false way.

NUN.

105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

106 I have sworn, and will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.

107 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.

108 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill-offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments.

109 My soul is continually in thee: and yet do I not forget thy law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts.

111 Thy testimonies, have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

112 I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes always, even unto the end.

SAMECH.

113 I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.

114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word.

115 Depart from me, ye evil-doers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

118 Thou hast trodden a down all them that err from thy statutes: for their deceit is falsehood.

119 Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.

David professeth his joy for the church, and prayeth therefor.

A Song of degrees of David.

I WAS glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.

2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:

4 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.

5 For there are set thrones of judgement, the thrones of the house of David.

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

A Song of degrees.

U nto thee a lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

1 The safety of such as trust in God.

4 A prayer for the golly.

A Song of degrees.

THEY that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

3 For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

PSALM CXXVI.

The church celebrateth her incredible return out of captivity.

A Song of degrees.

WHEN the LORD turned us again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.

3 The LORD hath done great things for us: whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.

5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

with him is plentiful redemption.

from all iniquity.

PSALM CXXXI.

David, praising his humility, exhorteth Israel to hope in God.

A Song of degrees of David.

1 O LORD, my heart is not haughty:
neither mine eyes lofty: neither do I exalt myself in great matters.

2 Surely I have behaved and quieted myself as a child: that as a child of his father, my soul
waiteth on him, as a weaned child.

3 Let Israel hope in the LORD
from henceforth and for ever.

PSALM CXXXII.

David's prayer at the removing of the ark.

A Song of degrees.

1 LORD, remember David, and all his afflictions:

2 How he swore unto the LORD,
and vowed a unto the mighty God
of Jacob:

3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed:

4 I will not give sleep to mine
eyes, nor slumber to mine eyelids.

5 Until I find out a place for the LORD, I will habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Yea, we heard of it at Ephratah:
we saw it in the fields of the wood.

7 We will go into his tabernacle:
we will worship at his footstool.

The benefit of the communion
of saints.

A Song of degrees of David.

BEHOLD, how good and pleasant it is for brethren
to dwell together in unity:

2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down
the beard, even Aaron's beard:

3 As the dew of Hermon, that descended upon the mount of Zion: for there
the LORD commanded the blessing,
even life for ever.

*B*y the rivers of Babylon, there

2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

3 For there they that carried us away captive required of us 1 a song ; and they that 2 wasted a us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us
one of the songs of Zion.

4 How shall we sing the LORD's

6 If I do not remember thee, let

PSALM CXXXVIII.

David praiseth God for the truth of his word.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth: for a thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

6 Though b the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

7 Though c I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The LORD will perfect d that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM CXXXIX.

David praiseth God for his all-seeing providence.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

O LORD, thou hast searched a me, and known me.

2 Thou b knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising, thou c understandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou d compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For e there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou d knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me: it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 Whither e shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, g behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

A Psalm of David.

HEAR my prayer O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath snitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

5 I remember the days of old; c I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth d after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, 1 lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy loving- kindness in the morning; e for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way f wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: i 2 flee unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach g me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy Spirit is good; h lead me into the land i of uprightness.

11 Quicken k me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

PSALM CXLIV.

David blesseth God for his mercy both to him and to man.

A Psalm of David.

BLESSED be the LORD my strength, a which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:

2 My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

4 Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

5 Bow down thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

7 Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children;

8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings; who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:

12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner-stones, polished after the similitude of a palace:

13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets:

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour; that there be no breaking in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy is that people that is in such a case: yea, a happy is that people, whose God is the LORD.

CHAPTER I.

1 The use of the proverbs. 7 An exhortation to fear God and believe his word.

THE proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel ;

2 To know wisdom and instruction ; to perceive the words of understanding ;

3 To ^b receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and ¹ equity ;

4 To give subtlety to the simple, ^c to the young ^d man knowledge and ² discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning ; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels :

6 To understand a proverb, and ³ the interpretation ; the words of the wise, and their dark ^e sayings.

7 ¶ The fear of the LORD is the ⁴ beginning of knowledge : but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother :

9 For they shall be an ⁶ ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause :

HEAR, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2 For I give you good doctrine, &
forsake ye not my law.

3 For I was my father's son, tender & only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 He c taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments,
and live.

5 Get wisdom, get understanding:
forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.

7 Wisdom is the principal thing:
therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

9 She shall give to thine head as ornament of grace: & a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings: and the years of thy life shall be many.

11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom: I have led thee in right paths.

12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened: and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

13 Take fast hold of instruction;
let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

14 ¶ Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief: and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

18 But is the path of the just as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

19 The way of the wicked is darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

20 ¶ My son, attend to my words
incline thine ear unto my saying.

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes: keep them in the midst of thine heart.

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

23 ¶ Keep thy heart & thy diligence: for out of it are issues of life.

the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his 5 sins.

23 He m shall die without instruction ; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAPTER VI.

Against suretyship, idleness, and mischievousness.

MY son, if thou be surety a for thy friend, (if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend ; go, humble thyself, 4 and make sure thy friend.

4 Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ¶ Go b to the ant, thou sluggard ;
consider her ways, and be wise :

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 How long wilt thou sleep, O
sluggard ? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep ?

10 Yet c a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep :

11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ¶ A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a forward
mouth.

13 He d winketh with his eyes, he spaketh with his feet, he teacheth
with his fingers ;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, he e
deviseth mischief continually ; he 2 soweth discord f

15 Therefore g shall his calamity come suddenly ; suddenly shall he be h broken without i remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate : yea, seven are an abomination 3 unto him :

17 4 A proud look, 5 a lying l tongue, and hands m that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart n that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet o that be swift in running to mischief,

19 A p false witness that speaketh lies, and he q that soweth discord
among brethren.

20 ¶ My son, keep r thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother :

21 Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

22 When s thou goest, it shall lead thee ; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee ; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 For the commandment is a l lamp ; and the law is light ; t and reproofs of instruction are the way of life :

24 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the l tongue of a strange woman.

25 ¶ Lust u not after her beauty in thine heart ; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

26 For v by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread : and w the l adulteress will hunt x for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned ?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned ?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife ; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry ;

31 But if he be found, he shall restore seven-fold ; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh u understanding ; he that y doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get, and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy z is the rage of a man : therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not u regard any ransom ; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

CHAPTER VII.

Solomon persuadeth to a sincere and kind familiarity with wisdom.

MY son, keep my words, and lay up a my commandments with thee.

2 Keep b my commandments, and live ; and my law as the apple c of thine eye.

3 Bind d them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister ; and call understanding thy kinswoman :

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which fluttereth with her words.

house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the l youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner, and he went the way t to her house,

9 In the twilight, in the u evening, in the black and dark night :

10 And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtle of heart.

11 (She is loud y and stubborn ; h her feet i abide not in her house :

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and z with an impudent face said unto him,

14 a I have peace-offerings with me ; this day have I paid my vows :

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen k of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning : let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the Goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey :

20 He hath taken a bag of money s with him, and will come home at the u day appointed.

21 With her much fair speech t she caused him to yield, with the flattering m of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her l straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks ;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver ; as a bird hasteth to the snare, n and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 ¶ Hearken unto me now, therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

26 For she hath cast down many wounded : yea, many strong o men have been slain by her.

27 Her p house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

settled, before the hills was I brought forth :

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the s fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When u he prepared the heavens, I was there : when he set a compass upon the face of the depth :

28 When he established the clouds above : when he strengthened the fountains of the deep :

29 When e he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment : when he appointed the foundations of the earth :

30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him : and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him ;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth ; and my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children : for blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 Blessed x is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall s obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul : all they that hate me love death.

CHAPTER IX.

The discipline and doctrine of wisdom.

WISDOM hath builded her house, a she hath hewn out her seven pillars :

2 She b hath killed her i beasts ; she hath mingled her wine ; she hath also furnished her table.

3 She c hath sent forth her maidens : she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither ; as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 Come, d eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live ; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame : and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove e not a scorner, lest he hate thee : rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give f instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser ; teach y just man, and he will increase i learning.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 ¶ A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city.

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

17 Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that the dead are there: and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAPTER X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth, are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: and he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a prating fool shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hured stirreth up strife: but he covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a red eye is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth sorrow with it.

23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, so the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the slander to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall inhabit the earth.

31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it teneth to poverty.

25 The liberal soul shall be made fat; and he that watereth
shall be watered also himself.

26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but he that seek-

28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that win-

31 Behold, the righteous shall be

CHAPTER XII.

WHOSO loveth instruction lov-

hateth reproof is brutish.

2 A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

9 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender
mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he
that followeth vain persons is void
of understanding.

There l shall no evil happen to filled with mischief.

Lying m lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

A prudent n man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth o foolishness.

The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the <sup>6</sup> slothful shall be under tribute.

Heaviness in the heart of man
maketh r stoop: but p a good word

The righteous is more <sup>7</sup> excel-

The slothful man roasteth not the substance of a diligent man is life: and in the pathway thereof

CHAPTER XIII.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner
heareth not a rebuke.

A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but b the soul of serteth, and saith nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made cometh to shame.

CHAPTER XVI.

12 A scorner ^k loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go ^l into the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but ^m by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart ⁿ hath a continual feast.

16 Better ⁿ is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better ⁿ is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful ^o man is as an hedge of thorns: but ^p the way of the righteous is ^q made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Fully is joy to him that is ^r destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh ^s uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in ^t due season, how good is it!

24 The way ^r of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell ^u without.

25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 The thoughts ^v of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but ^w the words of the pure are ^x pleasant words.

27 If ^y a man that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: ^z but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear ^{aa} that heareth the reproof of life abideth ^{ab} among the wise.

32 He that refuseth ^{ac} instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that ^{ad} heareth reproof ^{ae} getteth understanding.

THE ¹ preparati^on of the heart in man, and the answer ² of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 Committ thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is proud ¹ in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be ² unpunished.

6 By ³ mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When ⁴ a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right.

9 A ⁵ man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.

10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 A ⁶ just weight and balance are the LORD's; all the ⁷ weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for ⁸ the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life: and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How ⁹ much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth ¹⁰ his soul.

18 Pride ¹¹ goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better ¹² it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that ¹³ handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whose trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise is full of knowledge, and his tongue bringeth forth wisdom.

CHAPTER XVIII.

2 A fool hath no delight in under-

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 The words of a man's mouth
are as deep waters, and a the w'

spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 The words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth entreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way; and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4 Wealth taketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 Many will entreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and he is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

CHAPTER XXIV.

BE not thou envious a against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips b talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom c is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious d and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is 1 strong; yea, a man of knowledge 2 increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is too high f for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deviseth g to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought h of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint i in the day of adversity, thy strength is 3 small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver k them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know l it? and shall I not he render to every man according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because m it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet n to thy taste:

14 So o shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous: spoil not his resting place:

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth p up again; but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rescue q not when thine enemy is perished, and set not thine heart against him when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it r displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 s Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious of the wicked;

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the t candle of the wicked shall be put out.

THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah, copied out.

2 It a is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out b a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings c is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 d Put not e forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men.

7 For better f is it for thee, that thou shouldest be lowly than that thou shouldest be high.

8 g Do not lift up thy voice against the king, nor say, I will vex him: for he will say, I will vex him, and he will say, I will vex him.

9 h Do not lift up thy voice against the king, nor say, I will vex him: for he will say, I will vex him, and he will say, I will vex him.

in sport?

50 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out; so where there is no tale-bearer, the strife ceaseth.

51 As coals are to burning coals,
and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

52 The words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

53 As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool o returneth to his folly.

54 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

55 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; o it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

56 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

57 He that passeth by, and o meddleth with strife belonging not to him is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

58 As a mad man who casteth
firebrands, arrows, and death,

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth 14 dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 When he 15 speaketh fair, believe him not; for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 Whose 16 hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation.

27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein; and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Observations of self-love, and of care to avoid offences.

BOAST not a thyself of 1 to-morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another b man praise thee, and not thine own mouth, a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone is 2 heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 Wrath is 3 cruel, and anger is 4 outrageous; but who c is able to stand before 5 envy?

5 Open d rebuke is better than secret love.

6 Faithful e are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are 6 deceitful.

7 The full soul 7 loatheth an honey-comb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend 9 by hearty counsel.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better g is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

11 My son, be wise, and make thy heart glad, h that I may answer h in that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man foreseeth i the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

13 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

General observations of impiety, and religious integrity.

THE wicked flee when a man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by 4 a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor 5 man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping dust which leaveth no foot.

4 They c that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such 5 keep the law contend with d them.

5 Evil 6 men understand not judgment: but they f that seek the LORD understand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Wm

gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He a that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 Whoso cansteth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise in a his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is a hidden.

13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose a confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that feareth a day: but he a that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging ear: so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person, shall flee into the pit; let no man stay him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly l shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be 7 innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good: for, for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

22 He m that a hasteth to be rich th an evil eye, and considereth st that poverty shall come upon m.

23 He that rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso rebudgeth his father or mother, and saith it is no transgression: the same is the companion of a 2 destroyer.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Agur's confession of faith: 7 The two points of his prayer.

THE words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 Surely I am more brutish a than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

4 Who hath ascended up into heaven or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 Every word of God is pure: he is a shield e unto them that put their trust in him.

6 Add d thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; 3 deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food 4 convenient for me:

9 Lest e I be full, and 5 deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation, that are pure in their own eyes, and yet f is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how filthy are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw-teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horse-leech hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not,

16 The grave; h and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

17 The eye that mocketh at its father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the middle of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman: she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

25 The ants m are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 The conies are but a feeble folk, n yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them in bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 There be three things which so veil, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion, which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A greyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay o thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the chattering of teeth bringeth forth hatred, and wrangling of the tongue bringeth blood: n p the chattering of teeth bringeth forth hatred, and wrangling of the tongue bringeth blood.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye f is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done, is that which shall be done: and there is no new g thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new! it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 ¶ I the Preacher was king h over Israel in Jerusalem:

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God i given to the sons of man to <sup>3</sup> be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That k which is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is <sup>4</sup> wanting l cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more m wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had <sup>6</sup> great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And n I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For o in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER II.

The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure.

I said a in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, b therefore enjoy pleasure: c and, behold, this also is vanity.

2 I said of laughter, d It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it!

3 I sought in mine heart to <sup>1</sup> give myself unto wine, e (yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom: ) and to lay ho'd on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven f all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all w of fruits:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had <sup>2</sup> servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I got me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical <sup>3</sup> instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy: for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and <sup>4</sup> this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all <sup>5</sup> was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit <sup>6</sup> I under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, <sup>7</sup> and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? <sup>8</sup> I saw that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw that <sup>9</sup> wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 The <sup>10</sup> wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one p event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As <sup>11</sup> happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth <sup>12</sup> even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance <sup>13</sup> of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth <sup>14</sup> the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had <sup>15</sup> taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, <sup>16</sup> wherein I have showed myself under the sun. This is also w

the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness <sup>17</sup> was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

<sup>17</sup> I said in mine heart, God shall judge q the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.

<sup>18</sup> I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. r

<sup>19</sup> For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea,
they have all one breath; so that a man hath no pre-eminence above a beast: for all <sup>20</sup> is vanity.

<sup>20</sup> All go unto one place; all s are again.

<sup>21</sup> Who knoweth the spirit e of man that f goeth upward, t and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth f

<sup>22</sup> Wherefore u I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him.

CHAPTER IV.

Vanity is increased unto men by oppression.

<sup>S</sup>O I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed,
and they had no comforter; and on the <sup>1</sup> side of their oppressors
there was power; but they had no comforter.

<sup>2</sup> Wherefore I praised the dead
which are already dead, more than the living which are yet alive.

<sup>3</sup> Yea, a better is he than bot
they, which hath not yet been, w

hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this is a man envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 Better d is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For f whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 Better f is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angels that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be h higher than they.

9 ¶ Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 Also he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath q with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: s it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun. t All the days of his life, which u God giveth him: for v he knoweth not what shall come.

of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 i Sorrow is better than laughter;
for b by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 It is better to hear the rebuke c
of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the d crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

7 ¶ Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift d de-stroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient e in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry; for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire i wisely concerning this.

11 ¶ Wisdom is i good with an inheritance; and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a d defence, and money is a defence; but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom f
giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for g who can make that straight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity he joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath h set the one over against h the other, to the end that man should find nothing after
him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is i a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth k his life in his wickedness.

16 Be l not righteous over much;
neither make thyself over wise:
why shouldest thou m destroy in thyself?

17 Be not over much wicked,
neither be thou foolish: why n
shouldest thou die o before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he o that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 For p there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also <sup>a</sup> take no heed unto all <sup>g</sup> words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 ¶ All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 <sup>10</sup> I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: <sup>11</sup> whoso pleaseth <sup>1</sup> God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, (saith the preacher,) <sup>12</sup> counting one by one, to find out the account:

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; <sup>13</sup> but they have sought out many inventions.

CHAPTER VIII.

It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity.

WHO is as the wise man? and who <sup>a</sup> knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's <sup>b</sup> commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 Be <sup>c</sup> not hasty to get out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who <sup>d</sup> may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment shall <sup>e</sup> feel no evil thing; and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him <sup>f</sup> when it shall be?

8 There <sup>g</sup> is no man that hath power over the spirit, to retain the spirit: neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no <sup>h</sup> discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness <sup>g</sup> deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten <sup>h</sup> in the city where they had so done. This is also vanity.

11 Because <sup>i</sup> sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore <sup>k</sup> the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ Though <sup>l</sup> a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that I shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow, because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth: that there be just men, unto whom <sup>n</sup> it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous. I said, that this also is vanity.

15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat <sup>o</sup> and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes.)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun, because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAPTER IX.

Like things happen to good and bad.

FOR all this I <sup>1</sup> considered in my heart even to declare a <sup>2</sup> all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. 2 All <sup>3</sup> things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; and to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: so is the way of them all, as he

CHAPTER X.

Observations of wisdom, folly, riot,
and slothfulness.

DEAD flies cause the ointment
of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool
walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place;
for yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error
which proceedeth from the ruler:

6 Folly is set in great dignity,
and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wear-ieth every one of them: because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness

By much slothfulness the ling decayeth; and through ness of the hands the house speth through.

A feast is made for laughter, wine maketh merry: but they answereth all things.

Curse not a the king, no, not thy thought; and curse not be rich in thy bed-chamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Directions for charity. 9 The day of judgment to be thought on.

CAST a thy bread upon the waters: b for thou shalt find it after many days.

2 Give a portion to seven, c and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth;
and if the tree fall toward the south,
or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As d thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou f knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet g let him remember the days of darkness; for they h shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee
in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know that, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment. k

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

The SONG of SOLOMON.

CHAPTER I.

*The church's love unto Christ: 5
She confesseth her deformity.*

THE a song of songs, which is Solomon's.

2 Let him kiss b me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy 1 love is better than wine.

3 Because of the savour of thy good ointments, c thy name d is as ointment poured forth, therefore do
the virgins love thee.

4 Draw e me, we will run after thee. The king hath brought me into his chambers: f we will be and and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: 2 the upright love thee.

5 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the curtains of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath darkened upon me: my mother's children were angry with me;
they made me keeper of the vineyards: but mine own vineyard have not kept.

7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul
loveth, where h thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that 2 turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions!

8 ¶ If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps i of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

9 I have compared thee, O my love,
to k a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

10 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, l thy neck with chains of gold.

11 We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver.

12 ¶ While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth
the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a candle of cinnamon in the vineyards of En-gedi.

15 Behold, thou art fair, my 5 love;
bold, thou art fair, thou hast 28 eyes.

CHAPTER II.

The mutual love of Christ and his church.

In AM the rose of Sharon, and
the lily of the valleys.

2 As the lily among thorns, b so is my love among the daughters.

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. 1 I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit c was sweet to my 2 taste.

4 He brought me to the 3 banqueting-house, and his banner over me was love.

5 Stay me with flagons, 4 comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love.

6 His e left hand is under my head,
and his right hand doth embrace
me.

7 I 5 charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roses, and by the hands of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 ¶ The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he looketh forth at the windows, 6 showing himself through the lattice.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair
one, and come away.

11 For lo, the winter is past, 7 the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth: the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land.

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape gave a good smell.
Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ¶ O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice:
for sweet h is thy voice, and thy voice is comely.

i is the foxes, the W

foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

16 ¶ My beloved is mine, & I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

17 Until m the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be n thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of y Bethor.

CHAPTER III.

The church's fight and victory in temptation.

BY night a on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I b found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways, I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen c that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little d that I passed from them, but I found e him whom my soul loveth: I held f him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 I g charge you, O ye daughters h of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness i like pillars of smoke, k perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant l?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's: threescore valiant m men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh, n because of fear in the n night.

9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold o king Solomon with the crown wherewith p his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, q and in the day of his gladness r of his heart.

CHAPTER IV.

the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be <sup>1</sup> esta-and shall be exalted above the hills; and all b nations shall flow unto it.

<sup>3</sup> And many people shall go and say, Come c ye, and let us go up the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let the ruin be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer: for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The show of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

CHAPTER V.

Under the parable of a vineyard, God
exerciseth his severe judgment.

NOW will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a a vineyard in ² a very fruitful hill:

2 And he ² fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, b and built a tower in the midst of it, and also ³ made a wine-press therein:
and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes!

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the c hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be ⁴ trodden down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged: but thorns shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

9 ^a In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, ^b Of a truth, many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ^c ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ Wo unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine ^d inebriate them!

12 And ^e the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they ^f regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 ¶ Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because ^g they have no knowledge; and their honorable men ^h are furnished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and ⁱ the God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat.

For all ³ this his anger is not turned away but his hand is stretched out still.

26 ¶ And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly:

IN the year ^a that king Cizai died I saw ^b also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and ^c his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain ^d he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And ^e one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: ^f the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the ^g door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 ¶ Then said I, Wo is me! for I am ^h undone; because ⁱ I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people: for mine eyes have seen the king, the LORD.

6 Then drew ^j I near to him, and said, Alas, alas, I am perished!

therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabael:

7 Thus saith the Lord God, it shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken,
that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remalim's son. ⁷ If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ⁹ Moreover the LORD spake
again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign ^h of the LORD thy God; ⁹ ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign; Behold, e a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, d and ¹⁰ shall call his name Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 ¹¹ The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah;
even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss
for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And e they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all ¹¹ bushes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD
shave with a razor that is hired,
namely, by them beyond the river,
by the king of Assyria, the head,
and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish
a young cow, and two sheep;

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give that he shall eat butter for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left ¹² in the land

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

CHAPTER VIII.

Comfort shall be to them that fear God.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning ¹ Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah ^a the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I ² went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 For ^b before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the ³ riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away ^c before the king of Assyria.

5 ⁴ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah ^d that go softly, and rejoice in Hezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even ^e the king of Assyria, and all his glory; and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even ^f to the neck; and the ⁴ stretching out of his wings shall fill ^g the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ⁵ Associate yourselves, O ye people, ⁵ and ye shall be broken ^g in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God ^h is with us.

11 ⁶ The LORD spake thus to me ⁶ with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not ⁱ walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither ¹ fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for a sanctuary; ² but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence ² to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind up the testimony, seal ³ the law among ³ thy disciples.

17 And ⁴ I will wait upon the LORD, that hideth ⁴ his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

18 Behold, ⁵ I and the children whom the LORD hath given me, are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 ⁶ And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

20 To ⁷ the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no ⁷ light in them.

21 And they shall pass through ⁸, hardly beset and hungry; and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret ⁸ themselves, and curse to their king and their God, and look upward.

22 And they shall look upon the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

CHAPTER IX.

What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions by Christ.

NEVERTHELESS, the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee ¹ of the nations.

2 The people ² that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied their joy, as they joyed

The judgments

For ^a thou hast broken the yoke his burden, and the staff of his sulder, the rod of his oppressor, in the day ^b of Midian.

For ^a every battle of the warrior with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; ^b but this will be with burning and ^c fuel of ^d.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government ^d shall be upon his shoulder: ^e his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty ^d, ^e The everlasting Father, The prince of Peace.^f

Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no ^g end, upon the throne of David, and on his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever. The zeal of the LORD of ^h will perform this.

¶ The LORD sent a word into ⁱ col, and it hath lighted upon ^jael.

And all the people shall know, ^k Ephraim and the inhabitant ^l Samaria, that say in the pride of stoutness of heart,

^m The bricks are fallen down, but ⁿ will build with hewn stones: ^o sycamores are cut down, but ^p will change them into cedars.

^q Therefore the LORD shall set ^r the adversaries of Rezin against ^s n, and ^t join his enemies together;

^u The Syrians before, and the ^v distances behind; and they shall ^w your Israel with ^x open mouth. ^y All this his anger is not turned ^z ay, but his hand is stretched out ^{aa} ll.

Zion and on Jerusalem, I will ⁶ punish ⁷ the fruit of the ⁷ stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high ⁷ looks.

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done ¹² it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like ⁹ a valiant ¹⁰ man:

14 And my hand hath found us a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs ¹⁴ that are left, have I gathered all the earth: and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if ⁹ the rod should shake ¹⁰ itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up ¹⁰ itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore ¹⁶ shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones ¹⁶ leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, ¹⁷ and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one ¹⁷ day:

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, ¹⁸ both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be ¹⁹ few, that a child may write them.

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, ²⁰ that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; ²⁰ but shall stay upon the ²⁰ Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 The remnant I shall return, ²¹ even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, ²² yet ²² thou a remnant ²² of them shall return: the consumption ²² decreed shall overflow ²² with righteousness.

23 For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, ²³ in the midst of all the land.

24 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, O my people, that dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, ²⁴ and shall ²⁴ lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

CHAPTER XIII.

God mustereth the armies of his wrath. 19 The desolation of Babylon.

THE burden of Babylon, a which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my hatred.

The noise of a multitude in the mountains, I like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together:
the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

They come from a far country,
from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

Howl ye; for the day c of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

Behold, the day d of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof, shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up; they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

22 And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

CHAPTER XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence;
because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:
2 He is gone to Bajah, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep:
Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out: his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab: his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old:
for by the mounting up of Luhith
with weeping shall they go it up;
for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away
to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab, the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions e upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

CHAPTER XVI.

Moab is threatened for her pride.

SEND ye the lamb a to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of b Arnon.

3 As a dove, execute judgment as the noon-day:
sray not him

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the <sup>4</sup>extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the <sup>5</sup>oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be <sup>6</sup>established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, <sup>d</sup>judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 ¶ We have heard of the pride <sup>e</sup> of Moab; (he is very proud:) even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth <sup>f</sup> shall ye <sup>7</sup>mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come <sup>even</sup> unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are <sup>9</sup>stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

9 ¶ Therefore <sup>g</sup>I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for <sup>9</sup>the shouting for thy summer fruits, and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And <sup>h</sup>gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in <sup>their</sup> presses; I have made <sup>their</sup> vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels <sup>i</sup>shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-hareseth.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary <sup>k</sup> on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but <sup>l</sup>he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, sayings. Within three years, as <sup>m</sup>the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant <sup>n</sup>shall be very small and <sup>10</sup>feeble.

3 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and <sup>d</sup>the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And <sup>e</sup>it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and respecteth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

6 ¶ (Yet gleanings grapes shall be left in it, as the striking of an olive tree, two <sup>or</sup> three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, <sup>or</sup> or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

9 ¶ In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because <sup>g</sup>thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the Rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish; but the harvest shall <sup>h</sup>be <sup>2</sup>a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 ¶ Wo to the <sup>3</sup>multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like <sup>i</sup>the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but <sup>j</sup>God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like <sup>k</sup>a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flux shall wither.

7 The paper-reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt be like p unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the land of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Cush, and swear to the LORD of hosts: one shall be called, The city of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

22 And the LORD shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, and he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 ¶ In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land:

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

CHAPTER XX.

A type prefiguring the shameful captivity of Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the years that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

2 At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;

4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

The prophet denounceth the captivity of God's people.

THE burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam; besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 My heart paused, fearfulness affrighted me; the nights of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5 Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed:

8 And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day-time, and I am set in my ward whole nights:

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 ¶ The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will inquire, inquire ye: return, come.

13 ¶ The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fed.

15 For they fled from the siege, from the drawn bow, and the bent bow, and the cunningness of war.

16 For thus hath unto me. Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, m and all the glory of Kedar shall fail :

17 And the residue of the number of <sup>a</sup> archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished : for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXII.

The prophet reproveth human wisdom and worldly joy.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops ? a

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous b city : thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled c together, they are bound <sup>1</sup> by the archers ; all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me ; I will <sup>2</sup> weep bitterly, d labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the LORD God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam e bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir <sup>2</sup> uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that <sup>4</sup> thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array <sup>2</sup> at the gate.

8 <sup>8</sup> ¶ And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house f of the forest.

9 Ye g have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many : and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool : but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call h to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, i and to girding with sackcloth :

13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine : let k us eat and drink ; for to-morrow we shall die.

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, l which is over the house, and say,

16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, <sup>6</sup> as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock ?

18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a <sup>9</sup> large country : there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant m Elnikim the son of Hilkiash :

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand : and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder ; n so he shall open, o and none shall shut ; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a nail p in a sure place ; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the <sup>10</sup> vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall ; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off : for the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre : 17 Their unhappy return.

THE burden of Tyre. a Howl, ye ships of Tarshish ; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in : from the land of Chittim b it is revealed to them.

2 Be <sup>1</sup> still, ye inhabitants of the isle ; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

the prophet praiseth God, ISAIAH, XXV, XXVI. for his victorious salvation.

*the LORD God of Israel in the
of the sea.*

¶ From the <sup>5</sup> uttermost part
the earth have we heard songs, glory to the righteous. But I said, <sup>6</sup> My leanness, my leanness, unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; o sea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 Fear, p and the pit, and the mare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that ye who flee from the noise of the war shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare:
for the g windows from on high are open, and the foundations r of the earth do shake.

19 The earths is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved,
the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall reel t to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy v
upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall <sup>7</sup> punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings to of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together, <sup>8</sup> as prisoners are gathered in the <sup>9</sup> pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be <sup>10</sup> visited.

23 Then x the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed,
when the LORD of hosts shall reign
in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and <sup>11</sup> before his ancients gloriously.

CHAPTER XXV.

The prophet praiseth God for his judgments and salvation.

O LORD, thou art my God: I will a exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness b and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defended city a ruin: c
palace of strangers to be no city;
it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify d thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

6 ¶ And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full well refined.

7 And he will <sup>1</sup> destroy in this

12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring

CHAPTER XXVI.

A song inciting confidence in God for his judgments.

IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong a city; salvation will God
appoint for walls b and bulwarks.

2 Open c ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth
the <sup>1</sup> truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in <sup>2</sup> perfect peace, d whose <sup>3</sup> mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust e ye in the LORD for ever: f
for in the LORD JEHOVAH is <sup>4</sup> everlasting strength:

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The g foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way h of the just is uprightness; i thou, most upright, doe
weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, in the way of thy k joinments, O LORD, have we waited thee; the desire l of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; m yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when n thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 Let o favour be showed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness; in p the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty q of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they r will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy s at the people; yea, the fire t of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordain peace u for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works v in us.

13 O LORD our God, other v lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but to by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hast removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble x have they visited thee, they poured out a y prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye g that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 ¶ Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the LORD cometh z out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her a blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

CHAPTER XXVII.

God's chastenments differ from judgments.

IN that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish Leviathan a the ¹ piercing serpent, even Leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard b of red wine.

3 I c the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would d go through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: f Israel shall blossom and bud, and g fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 ¶ Hath he smitten him, h as he smote those that smote him? i or j he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8 In measure, when k it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with l: m he stayeth his n rough wind in the day of the east wind.

9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; o and this p is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and q images shall not stand up.

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for k it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and i ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet m shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the n casts of the land of Egypt, and o worship the LORD in the mount at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Christ, the sure foundation, is promised.

WO to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one, which, as a tempest of hail, and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet:

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be b a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

5 ¶ In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people.

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 ¶ But they also have erred through wine, c and through strong drink are out of the way; the d priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 ¶ Whom e shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand f doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept g must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with h stammering lips and another tongue i will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest *where*with ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But j the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that g they might go, and fall backward, and k broken, and snared, and taken.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come h unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, i a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he k that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand: when the overflowing scourge shall pass through; then ye shall be l trodden down l by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation o unto you to understand the report.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a consumption, p even determined upon the whole earth.

26 13 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

15 For thus saith the Lord God,
the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest o shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue p you be swift.

17 One thousand q shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill.

18 ¶ And therefore will the LORD r wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD s is a God of judgment: blessed s are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall dwell t in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep
no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry;
when u he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed v into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This x is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 Ye shall defile also the covering of 7 thy graven images of silver,
and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast
them away as a menstruous cloth;
thou shalt say unto it, Get thee
hence y.

23 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat z clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great sanctuary, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover the light z of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD
bindeth up the breach of his pe-

ple, and healeth the stroke of wound.

27 ¶ Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and <sup>11</sup> the burden thereof is <sup>12</sup> heavy: his lips are full of indignancy, and his tongue as a devouring fire: a

28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift <sup>b</sup> the nations with the sieve of vanity:
and there shall be a bridle <sup>c</sup> in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song, as <sup>d</sup> in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the <sup>13</sup> Mighty One of Israel.

30 And the LORD shall cause
<sup>14</sup> his glorious voice to be heard, and shall show the lighting down
of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And <sup>15</sup> in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall <sup>16</sup> lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harp: and in battles of shaking will he fight <sup>17</sup> with it.

33 For Tophet <sup>e</sup> is ordained <sup>18</sup> of old; yea, for the king it is prepared;
he hath made it deep, and large:
the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, <sup>f</sup> doth kindle it.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh's blasphemous persuasions to the people.

NOW a it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 ¶ And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are <sup>2</sup> vain words,) <sup>2</sup> I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou believest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of a broken reed, on Egypt; wherein if a man lean, it will go into his and, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, b and led to Judah, and to Jerusalem, shall worship before this altar? Now therefore give <sup>4</sup> pledges, c thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand c horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt d for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it; and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath f my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with g a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the h great king, the king of Assyria:

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make b an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, k and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware, lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. m Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods o of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, n answered him not a word: for king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.<sup>p</sup>

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 Hezekiah sendeth to Isaiah. 36 An angel slayeth the Assyrians.

AND as it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amos.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Macher.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Hama, and Receph, and the children of Eden, which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Iyah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 ¶ And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline to thine ear, O LORD, and hear: open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries.

19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know, that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amos sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him: The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

Hezekiah, by prayer, hath his life
lengthened.

IN a those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ¹Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

²Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto
the LORD.

³And said, Remember ⁸now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight.
And Hezekiah wept ²sore.

⁴¶ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

⁵Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer,
I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

⁶And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

⁷And this shall be a sign ^c unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken:

⁸Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the ²sun-dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

⁹¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick,
and was recovered of his sickness:

¹⁰I said d in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

¹¹I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in ^c the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

¹²Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off ⁴ with pinning sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

¹³I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

¹⁴I like a crane, or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn ^f as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed
⁵ undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, ^a for peace I had great bitterness: but thou hast ^b in love to my soul delivered it from the pit ^c of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 For the grave I cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father ^a to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments, all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAPTER XXXIX.

Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah, hath notice of his treasures.

AT a that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures ^b that I have not showed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: ^a Behold, the days ^c come, that all that is in thine house, and that

CHAPTER XLI.

God expostulateth with his people about his mercies to the church.

KEEP silence a before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up ¹ the righteous man from the east, called ^b him to his foot, gave ^c the nations before him, and made him rule over kings?
he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed ² safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, d and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be ³ of good courage.

will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed l and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and 7 they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even 8 them that contended with thee: 9 they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy m right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

16 Thou shalt fan o them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in p the LORD, and shalt glory q in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

19 I t will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the ole tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together:

20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

25 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before-time, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one 17 that bringeth good & tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could 18 answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity, their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAPTER XLII.

The office of Christ graued with meekness and constancy.

BEHOLD my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, a in whom my soul delighteth; b I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the 1 smoking flax shall he not 2 quench; he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be 3 discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his c law.

5 ¶ Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thee hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light d of the Gentiles;

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out e the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness f out of the prison-house.

8 I am the LORD; g that is my name: and h my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

liver out of my hand : I will work, and who shall let it ?

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ¶ Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise.

22 ¶ But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

YET now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help a thee: Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For d I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, e and my blessing upon thine offspring;

4 And they shall spring up f as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses.

5 One g shall say, I am the LORD; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer h the LORD of hosts; I i am the first, and I am the last; and beside k me there is no God.

7 And I who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people l and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show unto them.

8 Fear m ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my n witnesses. Is there a i God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.

9 ¶ They o that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their p delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image q that is profitable r for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: s and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; set they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 The smith t with u the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth; he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule, he saweth the board,

11 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he <sup>a</sup>strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it: he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 They <sup>s</sup> have not known nor understood: for <sup>t</sup> he hath <sup>u</sup> shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none <sup>e</sup> considereth <sup>u</sup> in his heart, neither is <sup>there</sup> knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to <sup>7</sup> the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart <sup>v</sup> hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten <sup>to</sup> of me.

22 I have blotted out, <sup>x</sup> as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed <sup>y</sup> thee.

23 Sing, O ye heavens; <sup>x</sup> for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified <sup>b</sup> himself in Israel.

CHAPTER XLV.

God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have ^h holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose ^a the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut:

2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break ^b in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which ^c call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.

5 ¶ I ^d am the LORD, and ^e there is none else, ^{there} is none beside me: I girded thee, ^f though thou hast not known me:

7 I ^h form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, ⁱ and create ^k evil: I the LORD do all these things.

8 Drop ^l down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and ^m let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

9 Wo unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd, of earth: Shall the clay say to that fashioneth it, What m:

11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man ² that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, ye g stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness:

13 I bring near my righteousness; h it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: i and I will place salvation in Zion for k Israel my glory.

CHAPTER XLVII.

God's judgments upon Babylon and Chaldea.

COME a down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind meat: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be b uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for our c Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 ¶ I d was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou e didst show them no mercy: upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 ¶ And thou suddest I f shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that g dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multi-

12 ¶ Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied l in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the ⁴ astrologers, m the star-gazers, ⁵ the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; o none shall save thee.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

God saveth his people for his own sake.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters a of Judah, which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not b in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city c and stay d themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art e obstinate, and thy neck is as iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I showed it thee: test thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them; and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this and will not ye declare it? I have showed thee new things from f time, even hidden things, f thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I know g that thou wouldst deal very treacherously, h and wast called a transgressor from thy womb.

9 ¶ For k my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined l thee, but not m with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace n of affliction.

11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for o how should my name be polluted? and o I will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.

13 Mine q hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and r my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I r call unto them, they stand up together.

14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved s him: he will t do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I u have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this: I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the v Lord God, and his Spirit hath sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, x which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldst go.

18 O z that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! thou hadst z a peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Christ complaineth of the Jews. 5. He is sent to the Gentiles.

LISTEN, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far: The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; b in c the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; d in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified.

4 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God.

5 ¶ And now, saith the LORD that smote me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, 2 Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, 2 It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the 4 preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light g to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One; to him a whom man despiseth, b to him whom the nation i abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, kings k shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, l &c.

24 ¶ Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, a or ^u the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the ^u captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with b their own blood, as with ^u sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

CHAPTER L.

Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is the ball of your mother's divorcement, a whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, b and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there none to answer? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, c that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: d he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 ¶ The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not f rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 I gave my back to them that smote, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 ¶ For the Lord GOD will me; therefore shall I not be founded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 Beh is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me: who is he that shall condemn me? lo, k they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth l shall eat them up.

10 ¶ Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, m and hath no light? let him trust n in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk o in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand, ye shall lie down in sorrow. p

CHAPTER LI.

An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ.

HEARKEN a to me, ye that follow b after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Look c unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called d him alone, and blessed e him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: f he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD: joy g and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 ¶ Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law h shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

5 My i righteousness is near, and my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge k the people; the isles l shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for m the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not n be abolished.

7 ¶ Hearken o unto me, ye that know righteousness, the pe-whose heart p is my law;

CHAPTER LIII.

1 The prophet complaineth of the want of faith. 4 The sufferings of Christ,
etc.

WHO hath believed a our report? and to whom b is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him
as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground : he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected c of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted d with grief; and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 ¶ Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows : e
yet we did esteem him stricken,
smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was h wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities : the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his h stripes f we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath h laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth : he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep be her shearers is dumb, so he hath not his mouth.

He h was taken o from prison i from judgment: and who shall share his generation: for he i is cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was h he stricken.

And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich h in his death: because he had done no iniquity, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 ¶ Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: o when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, and he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure o of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his o knowledge shall my righteous o servant justify p many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him o portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because q he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession r for the transgressors.

CHAPTER LIV.

The prophet prophesieth the preservation of the church.

SING, o O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy Maker is thine husband; b the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel: The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

9 For this is as the waters of No unto me: for as I have sworn I the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth: so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For d the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 ¶ O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, hold, I will lay thy stones of f fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

14 In righteousness shall thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear, and from terror; for h it shall come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created smiths that bloweth the coals of fire, and that bringeth forth instrument for his work; and I created the waster to destroy.

blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and d destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no 2 judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked d paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 ¶ Therefore e is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We f grope for the wall like the blind and we grope as if we had no eyes: we g stumble at noon-day
as in the night: we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn h sore like doves: we look i for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For k our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying l
against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart m words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil 6 maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it 7 displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 ¶ And he n saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm o brought salvation unto him;
and his righteousness, it sustained
him.

17 For he put on righteousness p as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal q
as a cloak.

18 According to their 6 deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; r to the islands he will re-

CHAPTER LX.

The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles.

ARISE, i shine; for thy light a is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD b shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings c to the brightness of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because d the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the e forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian e and Ephraim; all they from Sheba f shall come: they shall bring gold g and incense; and they shall show forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and h I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 Surely the isles i shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their k silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of strangers l shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for m in my wrath i smote thee, but in my favour have i had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may

CHAPTER LXIII.

Christ sheweth his power to save.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, walking in the greatness of his strength, that saves.

2 Wherefore a art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3 I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people b there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day b of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and c there was none to help; and I wondered that c there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 ¶ I will mention the d loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises e of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he f was afflicted, and the angel g of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare h them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and vexed i his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, k and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered l the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the 2 shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit m within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the n water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to o make thyself a glorious name.

15 ¶ Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation p of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the 3 sounding of thy bowels q and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, 4 our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 ¶ O LORD, why hast thou made us to err r from thy ways, and hardened s our heart from thy fear? Return t for thy servants' sakes, the tribes of thine inheritance.

CHAPTER LXIV.

The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power.

O H a that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains b might flow down at thy presence.

2 As when 1 the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible c things which we looked not for, thou earnest down, the mountains d flowed down at thy presence.

4 For e since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye 2 seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou f meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness; those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth: for we have sinned: in thine is continuance, g and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our h righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth, shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 ¶ For, behold, I create new heavens, and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner, being an hundred years old, shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another shall inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

CHAPTER LXVI.

The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity.

THUS saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool; where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear; but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word: Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified; but he shall appear to your joy; and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompense to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the 13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Turkish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests, and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of them that have transgressed, for their seed.

25 And they shall say, These are the carcasses of them that have transgressed, for their seed.

26 And they shall say, These are the carcasses of them that have transgressed, for their seed.

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD:
I remember 1 thee, the kindness of thy youth, a the love of thine espousals, when b thou wast after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness c unto the LORD, and the first-fruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil e shall come upon them
saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LOY

O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel :

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, What f iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have g walked after vanity, and are become vain ?

6 Neither h said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up i out of the land of Egypt, that led k us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits ; through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death ; through a land that no man passed through and where no man dwelt ?

7 And I brought you into l a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof ; but when ye entered, ye defiled m my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD ? and they that handle the law n knew me not : the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets o prophesied by Baal, and walked after p things that o do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore q I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass r over the isles of Chittim, q and see ; and send unto Kedar, r and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 Hath s a nation changed t their gods, which are yet no gods ? but my people have changed t their glory for u that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, u at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils ; they have forsaken me the fountain v of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 ¶ Is Israel a servant ? x is he a home-born slave ? why is y he spoiled ?

15 The young lions y roared upon him and z yelled, and they made his land waste ; his cities are burned without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahpanes z have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, b in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way ?

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, c to drink the waters of Sihor ? d or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river ?

correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee : know therefore and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the LORD God of hosts.

20 ¶ For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands ; and thou saidst, I will not transgress ; when upon every high hill, and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed : how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me ?

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim ? See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done : thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways ;

24 A wild ass is used to the wilderness, that sniffeth up the wind at his pleasure ; in her occasions who can turn her away ? all they that seek her will not weary themselves ; in her mouth they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst ; but thou saidst, There is no hope in me ; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed ; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father ; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth : for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face : but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee ? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble : for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me ? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain ye have I smitten your children : they received no correction : your own sword hath devoured your prophets, destroying her word of the wilderness.

4 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor inno-

secret search, but upon all passages.
5 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold, I will end with thee, because thou say-est, I have not sinned.
6 Why gaddest thou about so

7 And I said k after she had done
all these things, turn thou unto me.
But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah 1 saw it.

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart,
but 2 feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me,
The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 ¶ Go and proclaim these words
toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, 1 saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 Only acknowledge o thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married p unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you pastors
q according to mine heart, which shall feed r you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD:
neither s shall it come 4 to mind:
neither shall they remember it;
neither shall they visit it; neither shall 5 that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD;
and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more 1 after the 6 imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days the house of Judah u shall walk 7 with the houses of Israel, and they shall come 1
out of the land of the noland that I have 8 given inheritance unto your fathers

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a <sup>9</sup> pleasant land, <sup>10</sup> a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, My <sup>11</sup> father; and shalt not turn away <sup>12</sup> from me.

20 <sup>13</sup> Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her <sup>14</sup> husband, so have ye doubt treacherously <sup>15</sup> with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping <sup>16</sup> and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their <sup>17</sup> way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 Return, <sup>18</sup> ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for <sup>19</sup> thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is <sup>20</sup> salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly <sup>21</sup> in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We <sup>22</sup> lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise: 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto me; and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 And thou shalt swear, <sup>1</sup> The LORD liveth, in truth, <sup>2</sup> in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations <sup>3</sup> shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall <sup>4</sup> they glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break <sup>5</sup> up your fallow ground, and sow <sup>6</sup> not among <sup>7</sup> thorns.

4 Circumcise <sup>8</sup> yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn <sup>9</sup> that none can quench <sup>10</sup> it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather <sup>11</sup> together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the de-<sup>12</sup> luded cities.

3 O LORD, are not thine eyes c upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they d have not grieved;
thou hast consumed them, but they have refused e to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they f know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them:
for they g have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken h the yoke, and burst
the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf k
of the s evenings shall spoil them,
a leopard shall watch over their cities; every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces:
because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

7 ¶ How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn l by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, m and assembled themselves
by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 Shall n I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but o make not a full end: take away her battlements;
for they are not the LORD's.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They have belied p the LORD, and said, It is not he, neither q shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto
them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD
God of hosts, Because ye speak thus word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, s and thou people wood, and it shall devour
them.

15 Lo, I will bring a nation t v
you from far, O house of Issaith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up ^u thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

19 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not your's.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without ² understanding; which ^y have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

22 Fear ^z ye not me! saith the LORD: will ye not tremble ^a at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound ^b of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; ^c they are revolted ^d and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, ^e both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth ^f unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 ¶ Your iniquities ^g have turned away these things and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: they ^h lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a ⁱ cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen fat, ^j they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not ^k the cause, the cause of the fatherless, ^l they prosper; and the right of ^m needy do they not judge.

CHAPTER VI.

The enemies sent against Judah encourage themselves.

O YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch ^c their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Wo unto us! for ^d the day goeth away, for the shadowe of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As ^f a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence ^g and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, ^h O Jerusalem, lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom ^k shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; ^m they have no delight in it.

by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place: which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put ye your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey ye my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 But they hearkened not, nor obeyed their ear, but walked in their counsels and in the imagination

tion: of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor doth receive correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places: for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which I called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for I they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I curse to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate.

CHAPTER IX.

Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins.

OH that my head were waters,
and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep a day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness
a lodging-place of wayfaring men:
that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, b an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongues c
like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant d for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed e from evil
to evil, and they f know not me,
saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5 And they will <sup>3</sup>deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Their habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow; <sup>1</sup>he shooteth out; it speaketh deceit: <sup>2</sup>one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in <sup>3</sup>heart he layeth <sup>4</sup>his wait.

9 ¶ Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the <sup>6</sup>habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are <sup>7</sup>burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of cattle; <sup>8</sup>both the fowl of the heavens and the beasts are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, <sup>1</sup>and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah <sup>2</sup>desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ¶ Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because ye have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the <sup>10</sup>imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed <sup>6</sup>them, even this people, with wormwood, <sup>7</sup>and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter <sup>8</sup>them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them.

23 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches;

24 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will <sup>1</sup>punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are <sup>2</sup>in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAPTER XI.

Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant,
and rebuketh the Jews.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Cursed a be the man that obeyeth
not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron b furnace, saying, Obey c my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

5 That d I may perform the oath e
which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, ¹ So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do f
them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers, in the day that I brought them up out of the lan
of Egypt, even unto this day, risin

early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice,

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant, which I made with their fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, full of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou showedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox

that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee I have revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine.

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

CHAPTER XII

Jeremiah complaineth of the prosperity of the wicked.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee; pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee: yea, they have called a multitude against thee: I believe them not, they speak vain words.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded
me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and dugged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came
unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar a the pride of Jerusalem, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk b
in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, c which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; d that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word: Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle
shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them,
Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. e

14 And I will dash f ² them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, ³ but destroy
them.

15 ¶ Hear ye, and give ear: be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 Give g glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, ¹ and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains; and, while the LORD looketh for light, he turneth into shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep k in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king l and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your 4 principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: m Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: n where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall o punish thee? (for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee:) shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman, in travail?

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore p come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels q made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are r accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble p that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood q.

26 Therefore will I discover r thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, s the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills t in the fields. Wo unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? u when shall u it once be?

9 Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst f of us, and g we are called by thy name: leave us not.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now remember h their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward : therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee ; I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan i in the gates of the land ; I will be- reave them of 4 children, I will de- stroy my people, since they return not 2 from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas : I have brought upon them, against the 2 mother of the young men, a spoiler at noon-day : I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 She that hath borne seven languisheth : she hath given up the ghost ; her sun hath gone down while l it was yet day : she hath been ashamed and confounded ; and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ No m is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth ! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury ; yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with a thy remnant, verily I will 6 cause the enemy to entreat thee well o in the time of evil, and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel !

13 Thy substance and thy trea- sures will I give to the spoil with- out price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not : for a fire p is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 ¶ O LORD, thou knowest : re- member me, and visit me, and re- venge q me of my persecutors ; take r me not away in thy long- suffering : know that for thy sake s I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them ; and thy word t was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart : for 7 I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced ; I sat alone, because of thy hand t : for thou hast filled me with indignation.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brazen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee, and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAPTER XVI.

The prophet foretelleth the utter ruin of the Jews.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt show this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; (for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:)

13 Therefore, I will cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods: day and night; where I will not show you favour.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Under the type of a potter is showed God's absolute power.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the ¹wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made ²of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he ³made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot a I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as b the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

8 If c that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent d of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return e ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil art.

CHAPTER XX.

*Pashur, smiling Jeremiah, receiveth
a new name, and a fearful doom.*

NOW Pashur the son of Immer a
the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied
these things.

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah
the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Je-reiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him; The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur,
but 1 Magor-missabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold,
I will make thee a terror to thyself and to all thy friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover b I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity; and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die,
and shalt be buried there, thou,
and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied c lies.

7 ¶ O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was 2 deceived; thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed;

mocketh me.

14 But I will ² punish you according to the fruit ^q of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

CHAPTER XXII.

Jeremiah exhorteth to repentance with promises and threats.

THUS saith the LORD, Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

² And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

³ Thus saith the LORD; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor; and do wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow: neither shed innocent blood in place.

⁵ But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

⁶ For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

⁷ And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

⁸ And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

⁹ Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

¹⁰ Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his country.

CHAPTER XXIV.

The restoration of them that were in captivity foretold.

THE LORD showed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD,
after that Nebuchadnezzar a king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah b the son of Jehoia-kim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, c from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs,
even like the figs that are first ripe;
and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, 1 they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me,
What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and d the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD
came unto me, saying,

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, the God
of Israel, Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them 2 that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their e good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and f I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them an heart g

And I will deliver them to be a curse, and a proverb, and a taunt, and a curse, in all places whither I will drive them.

And I will send the sword, famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed out off the land, that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

CHAPTER XXV.

Jeremiah foretelleth the seventy years' captivity.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon: The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

From a the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amun king of Judah, even unto this day, (that is the three and twentieth year,) the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants, the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor hearkened your ear to hear.

They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD: therefore have I provoked you to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts: Because ye have not heard my words,

I, Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land,

Moreover I will take them the voice of mirth, a voice of gladness, the voice of a bridegroom, and the voice of a bride, the sound of the mill, and the light of the candle.

And this whole land shall be desolation, and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve king of Babylon seventy years.

And it shall come to pass when seventy years are fulfilled, that I will punish king of Babylon, and that I will say the LORD, for that I said the land of the Chaldeans, and I will make it perpetual desolations.

And I will bring upon land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even as it is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against the nations.

For many nations and kings shall serve it themselves also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, according to the works of their own hands.

For thus saith the LORD of Israel unto me: Take thine cup of this fury at my hand, cause all the nations to drink it, and they shall be drunken.

And they shall drink it, and be moved, and reel, and fall, and be as a champaign, and they shall be as a second that I will send out.

Then took I the cup of the LORD's hand, and I made the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me.

CHAPTER

I Jeremiah by pro-

He is apprehen-

Threaten-

arraigned,

etc.

In the beginning of the reign of

I Jehoia<sup>a</sup> son of Josiah king of Judah, this word from the LORD, say

2 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah,

which come to worship in the LORD's house, all a the words that I command thee to speak unto them;

dinshish not a word:

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way,

that I may repent b me of the evil,

which I purpose to do unto them

because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them,

Thus saith the LORD; If c ye will not

hearken to me, to walk in my law,

which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent d unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, (but ye have not hearkened;)

6 Then will I make this house

like Shiloh, e and will make this city f a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah

speaking these words in the house

of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when

Jeremiah had made an end of

speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ When the princes of Juda<sup>h</sup>

heard these things, then they ear-up from the king's house unto

house of the LORD, and sat d

1 In the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, <sup>2</sup> This man is worthy to die; for g he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now amend h your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for ye, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as <sup>3</sup> seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 Micah the Morasthite h prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Zion shall be ploughed i like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear j the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah: 21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but Ben Urijah heard it, he was afraid, fled, p and went into Egypt.

CHAPTER XXVII.

The sending of the neighbouring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me: Make thee r bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck;

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah:

4 And command them <sup>2</sup> to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Thus shall ye say unto your masters:

5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my out-stretched arm, and have given it c unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar d the king of Babylon, my servant: e and the beasts f of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And g all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of h his last come: and then i many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed j them.

9 And ye shall say every one to his brother, and every one to his neighbour, I have dreamed a dream.

10 And ye shall say to the king, We have dreamed a dream.

11 And ye shall say to the king, We have dreamed a dream.

CHAPTER XXVIII.
Hananiah prophesieth the return of the vessels and of Jeconiah.

AND a it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah,
in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests, and of all the people saying,
2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke b of the king of Babylon:

3 Within c two 3 full years will I bring again into this place a d
the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoia-kim king of Judah, with all the 2 captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people d that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said,
Amen: e the LORD do so: the LORD perform f thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive,
from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless g hear thou now
this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people:

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old proof war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

then shall the prophet be known that the LORD hath truly sent him

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke m from off the phet Jeremiah's neck, and bra-

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went a his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, (after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah,) saying,

13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him; and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year, in the seventh month.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 (After that Jeremiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem:)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon,

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them, and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek ye the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think & toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

12 Then shall ye call & upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again unto the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ¶ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

CHAPTER XXX.

God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write <sup>2</sup> thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee
in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I <sup>1</sup> will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return <sup>c</sup> to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling,
of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child; <sup>1</sup> wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for that day d is great, so e that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and I will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD
their God, and David f their king, whom I will raise up <sup>g</sup> unto them.

10 ¶ Therefore fear thou not, h O
my servant Jacob, saith the LORD;
neither be dismayed, O Israel: for,
lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee; though I make a full end of all nations whither
I have scattered thee, yet i wil-

not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD: because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

18 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and I have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her, own a heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry; and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And as ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The restoration of Israel. 23 Christ is promised.

AT the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when a I went to cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared to of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy 2 tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchman upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications I will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

that go forth with flocks.

25 For h I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished i every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld;
and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith
the LORD, that I will sow k the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beasts.

28 And it shall come to pass, that
like as I have watched over them,
to pluck up, and to break down,
and to throw down, and to destroy,
and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith
the LORD.

29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eat-eth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith
the LORD, that I will make a new covenant l with the house of Israel,
and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant
that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; (which my covenant they brake, 7 although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:)

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD I will put my law in their inward m parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they a shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD:
for I will forgive o their iniquity,
and I will remember their sin no

which divideth p the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 If those ordinances g depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel, for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD, from the tower r of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring-line s shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields, unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse-gate t toward the east, shall be holy u unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down, any more for ever.

CHAPTER XXXII.

Jeremiah imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up b in the court c of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, d Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape e out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until f I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight g with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right h of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the ^a back, i and not the face : though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house, k (which is called by my name, to defile it.)

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech ; l which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It m shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence ;

37 Behold, I n will gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath ; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell o safely :

38 And p they shall be my people, and I will be their God :

39 And I will give them one q heart, and one way, that they may fear me ⁹ for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them :

40 And I will make r an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away ¹⁰ from them to do them good ; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will rejoice s over them to do them good, and I will plant t them in this land ¹¹ assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD : Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so u will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And v fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast ; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 A gracious return promised. 15 Christ the branch of righteousness promised.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, (while he was yet shut up a in the court of the prison,) saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the maker thereof, b the LORD that formed it, to establish it; 1 The LORD, is his c name:

3 Call d unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and 2 mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, e and by the sword;

5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but f it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all those wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, g I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance h of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as i at the first.

8 And I will cleanse k them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon l all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¶ And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise m and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall n fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, (which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, o in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast.)

11 The voice p of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise q the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks q to lie down.

13 In the cities of the mountaineers in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 ¶ In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch r of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness s in the land.

16 In t those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name where with she shall be called, u The LORD our v Righteousness.

17 ¶ For thus saith the LORD; w David shall never x want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer y burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 Then may also my covenant z be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As the host of heaven a cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so b will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

9 That g every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his h brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-servant,
and every one his maid-servant go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God
of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bond-man, saying,

14 At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned, and polluted
my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return,
and brought them into subjection,
to be unto you for servants and for
handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD;
Ye have not hearkened unto me,
in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, q when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah, and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you.

22 Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

CHAPTER XXXV.

God blesseth the Rechabites for their obedience.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Juazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igadiah, a man of God, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Joadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; for that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Joadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days,

we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Joadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and tell the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Joadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are perfected: for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, I rose up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Joadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Joadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he hath commanded you

Re. 22, 19.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words
of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber; and, lo, all the princes
sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elathai the son of Achbor,
and Gemariah the son of Shaphan,
and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah,
and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears.
So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other,
and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying,
Tell us now, How didst thou write
all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them,
He pronounced it all these words unto me, with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went into the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama
the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber.
And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winter-house, in the ninth month; and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the pen-knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

6 Then d took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of a Hammelech,
that was in the court of the prison ;
and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire ; so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 e Now when Ebed-melech e
the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon : (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin ;)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon ; and he s is like to die for hunger in the place where he is :
for there is no more bread f in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men
h with thee, and take up Jeremiah
the prophet out of the dungeon,
before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now
these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine arm-holes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon : and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 g Then Zedekiah the king sent,
and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the h third entry that is in the house of the LORD : and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing ; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Ze-dekiah, If I declare i unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death ? and if I give thee counsel,
wilt thou not hearken unto me ?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As j
the LORD liveth, that made k us (this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Ze-dekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of l hosts, the God of Israel ;

If thou wilt assuredly go forth into the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house;

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, p I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul q shall live.

21 But if thou refuse r to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath showed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, s Thy friends s have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, t and they are turned u away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children v to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt w cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, x to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they y left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Zedekiah abode in the court of the prison until y the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was z there when Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 7 Zedekiah made blind and sent to Babylon.

The people carried away captive.

IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-shareser, Sangar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharener, Rab-mat, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with a chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people which had nothing in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields a at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah b to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying—

12 Take him, and him, and do him unto him even thus.

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard

hylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah; f and dwell with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor g of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon:

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael h the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan i and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, k and Jezaniah the son of a Manachathite, l they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swate unto them, and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to 4 serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather m ye wine, and summer-fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, n and among the Ammonites, o and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

13 ¶ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah.

14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Balaiz the king of the Ammonites hath sent p Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to q slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah, spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER XLII.

Ishmael treacherously killeth Gedaliah and others.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it.

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shalub, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beard shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with efforts and incense in their hand, to bring him to the house of the Lord.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, by commandment as he went, and he came to pass, as he had feared, he slew them. Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and even them into the midst of the pit, even the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, (whom he had slain because of Gedaliah,) was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to over to the i Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done.

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, that they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even maid men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon.

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chinnah, which is by Beth-lehem, to enter into Egypt.

18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

CHAPTER XLIII.

Jeremiah propheth the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, ¹ that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him, to them, even all these words.

2 Then a spake Azariah the son of Hosabiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud b men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: The LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant c of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 *E*ven men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left e with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So f they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah:

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, h and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid: and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall smite i the land of Egypt, and deliver such k as are for death, to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods l of Egypt; and ye shall burn them, and carry them away captives; and he shall array m himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence n in peace.

13 He shall break also the o images of 2 Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

CHAPTER XLIV.

Jeremiah prophesieth their destruction who commit idolatry.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews, which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at a Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, b and at c Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, d and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because e of their wickedness which they have committed, to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom f they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit I sent g unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, O, do not this abominable h thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury k and my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Wherefore commit ye the great evil against your l souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke m me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye may cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth.

9 Have ye forgotten the 2 wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, whom they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not 3 humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes that I set before you, and before your fathers.

princes, and the people of the land,
did not the LORD remember them,
and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, x because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore a is your land
a desolation, and an astonishment,
and a curse, without an inhabitant,
as at b this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, c and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, d nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; f
therefore g this evil is happened unto you, as at b this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that h are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken i with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish k your vows,
and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn l by my great name, saith
the LORD, that m my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah, in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God
liveth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, n and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed o
by the sword and by the famine,
until there be an end of them.

28 Yet p a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, s mine, q or their's.

29 ¶ And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD: Behold,
I will r give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of the

that seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

CHAPTER XLV.

Baruch being dismayed, Jeremiah comforteth him.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Wo is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 ¶ Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAPTER XLVI.

Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is it that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and her waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up,

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots: and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are they valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go against our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressive sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise: he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the LORD, whose name is the LORD of hosts, Say as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair and beautiful destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

The judgment of Moab for their contempt of God.

A GAINST Moab a thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Wo unto Nebol for it is spoiled; Kiriahtaim is confounded and taken: ¹ Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

² There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon ^b they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation:
also thou shalt be ² cut down, O
madmen; the sword shall ³ pursue
thee.

³ A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

⁴ Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

⁵ For in the going up of Luhith
⁴ continual weeping shall go up;
for in the going down of Horonaim
the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

⁶ Flee, c save your lives, and be like ^b the heath in the wilderness.

⁷ ¶ For because thou hast trusted ^d in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken:
and Chemoshe shall go forth into captivity with his priests ^f and his princes together.

⁸ And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish,
and the plain shall be destroyed,
as the LORD hath spoken.

⁹ Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate,
without any to dwell therein.

¹⁰ Cursed ^g be he that doeth the work of the LORD ⁶ deceitfully, and cursed ^{be} he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

¹¹ ¶ Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled ^h on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste ⁱ remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence.

14 ¶ How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the king, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, be-moan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 Thon daughter n that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O o inhabitant of Aroer, o stand by the way, and espy; ask him that sleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon; that Moab is spoiled.

21 And judgement is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephath, and upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblahaim, 22 And upon Kirathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon, and upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

23 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

24 The horn p of Moab is cut off, and his arm q is broken, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Make ye him drunken: for he hath magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

26 For was not Israel u a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since that yeakest of him, thou hast skippedst for joy.

27 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

28 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,) his ottiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab. mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruits and upon thy vintage.

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-press: none shall tread with shouting. their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbom area unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Jazer even unto Horonaim, as a heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard shall curl: upon the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, He is broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all that hear of him.

40 For thus saith the LORD: He hold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

10 But I have made Esau bare, &
I have uncovered his secret places,
and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is / not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children,
I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD: Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? / thou shalt not go unpunished, but shalt surely drink of it.

13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach,
a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terrible ness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss
at all the plagues thereof.

18 As I in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there,
neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong:
but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a ches-sen man, that I may appoint over her? for whose is like me? and who will appoint me the time?
and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the <sup>2</sup> Red sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ Concerning Damascus, <sup>a</sup> Hamath <sup>b</sup> is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are <sup>c</sup> faint-hearted; there is sorrow <sup>10</sup> on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise <sup>c</sup> not left, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore <sup>d</sup> her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 ¶ Concerning Kedar, <sup>e</sup> and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD: Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.

29 Their tents <sup>f</sup> and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ Flee, <sup>11</sup> get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD: for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto the <sup>12</sup> wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which <sup>g</sup> have neither gates nor bars, which dwell <sup>h</sup> alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are <sup>13</sup> in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER L.

The judgment of Babylon, and the redemption of Israel.

THE word that the LORD spake against Babylon, a and against the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and <sup>2</sup> set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Babel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces: her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In <sup>c</sup> those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, <sup>d</sup> going and weeping: <sup>e</sup> they shall go, and seek <sup>f</sup> the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

21 ¶ Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekol: h waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all t that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound k of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the hammer t of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare m for thee,
and thou art also taken, O Babylon,
and n thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons o of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the 19 utmost border, open her store-houses: 11 cast her up as heaps,
and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks; p let them go down to the slaughter:
wo unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance q of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 ¶ Call together the archers against Babylon: and all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about;
let none thereof escape: recompense s her according to her work;
according to all that she hath done,
do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day,
saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O
thou 12 most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for thy day is come,
the time that I will visit thee.

32 And 12 the most proud shall t stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire u in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took their captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against

Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed: they became o as women: they have burned her dwelling-places: her bars p are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet

another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end,

32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war

are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor, <sup>10</sup> it is time to thresh q her:

yet a little while, and the time of her harvest r shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath s

crushed me, he hath made me an

me up like a dragon, he hath filled

his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 <sup>11</sup> The violence done to me and to my <sup>12</sup> flesh be upon Babylon, u

shall the <sup>13</sup> inhabitant of Zion say;

and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD:

Behold, I will plend thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall <sup>14</sup> yell as howlwhelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, v that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The sea z is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall y of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, go ye out z of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And 15 lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour a that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore behold, the days come, that I will 16 do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing b for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, c saith the LORD.

49 17 As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the 18 earth.

50 Ye that have escaped d the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem e come into your mind.

51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers f are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: g and through all her land the wounded h shall groan.

deans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the cap- tain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the peo- ple, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the mul- titude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land, for vine-dressers and for husbandmen.

17 Also h the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The i caldrons also, and the 7 shovels, and the snuffers, and the 8 bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basins, and the 9 fire- pans, and the bowls, and the cal- drons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the cap- tain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: 10 the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a 11 fillet of twelve cu- bits did compass it; and the thick- ness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter k of brass was upon it; and the height of one chap- ter was five cubits, with net-work and pomegranates upon the chap- ters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pome- granates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the net-work were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and m Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the 12 door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that 13 were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the 14 principal scribe of the host, who mustered the peo- ple of the land; and threescore men the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

25 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon, to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of its own land.

CHAPTER I.

The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin.

1 HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! how is she great among the nations, and how is she become tributary!

2 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and the cause of great servitude: she dwelleth in bitterness, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 In the ways of Zion do mourn, because of affliction, and the cause of great servitude: she dwelleth in bitterness, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper: for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zidon her beauty is departed: her pastors are become like harts that feed in pasture, and they are gone with strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered the days of her affliction and of her miseries, all her pleasures that she had in the days of her peace, when her people fell into the of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sorrows.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned: therefore shall she be silent: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she shall turn back toward her persecutors.

9 Her filthiness is in her remembrance: therefore she can not be comforted: she hath not comfort, because she hath not comfort: her adversaries have seen her nakedness: yea, she shall turn back toward her persecutors.

10 The adversary hath his hand upon all her things: for she hath no helper, whom thou shalt not see: she shall be as a woman that is desolate, and she shall be as a woman that is desolate.

1 All her people sigh, they seek ead; they have given their plea-nt things for meat to <sup>6</sup>relieve the ul: see, O LORD, and consider;
r I am become p<sup>o</sup>vil.

2 ¶ <sup>6</sup>Is it nothing to you, all ye at pass <sup>7</sup>by? behold, and see if ere be any <sup>9</sup>sorrow like unto my row, which is done unto me, herewith the LORD hath afflicted
e in the day of his fierce anger.

3 From above hath he sent fire to my bones, and it prevaleth gainst them: he hath spread a etr for my feet, he hath turned ie back: he hath made me deso-te and faint all the day.

14 The yoke <sup>s</sup> of my transgressions bound by his hand: they are reathed, and come up upon my eck: he hath made my strength
o fall, the LORD hath delivered me nto their hands, from whom I am ot able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under oot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men:
he LORD hath trodden <sup>8</sup>the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a vine-press.

16 For <sup>v</sup>these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that ould <sup>9</sup>relieve my soul is far from me: my <sup>o</sup>children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth <sup>x</sup> her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about <sup>y</sup>him:
Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman
among them.

18 ¶ The LORD is righteous; <sup>z</sup>for I have rebelled against his <sup>10</sup>commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD: for I am in distress; my bowels are troubled:
mine heart is turned within me;
for <sup>b</sup>I have grievously rebelled;
abroad the sword bereaveth, <sup>c</sup>at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh:
there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day of thy wrath <sup>11</sup>called, and they shall be like unto me.

CHAPTER II.

Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not <sup>d</sup>peried: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed her strong holds,
and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away <sup>i</sup>his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar,
he hath abhorred his sanctuary,
he hath <sup>4</sup>given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces:
they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line,
he hath not withdrawn his hand from <sup>6</sup>destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground: he hath destroyed her broken her <sup>o</sup>bars: her king and her princes are among the tiles: the law is no more; her phets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let us not have tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of 20 Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done these things: Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?

21 The young men and the old men on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day, my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up, hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAPTER III.

1 The prophet bewaileth his own calamities: 37 His humble confession of sins.

I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, a but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned, he hath torneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old: he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He is as unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was as a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also covered my teeth with gall.

with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the off-scouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.

47 Fear f and a snare is come upon us, desolation g and destruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission.

50 Till the LORD look down, h and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth 12 mine heart, 13 because of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore,
like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone i upon me.

54 Waters k flowed over mine
head; then, I said, I am cut off.

55 ¶ I called l upon thy name, O
LORD, out of the low dungeon.

56 Thou hast heard my voice:
hide not thine ear at my breathing,
at my cry.

57 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear m not.

58 O LORD, thou hast pleaded the causes n of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.

59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: judge o thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations p against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;

62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their music.

61 ¶ Render unto them a recompense, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

65 Give them 14 sorrow of heart,
thy curse unto them.

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of
the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Zion's pitiful estate bewailed: 13

She confesseth her sins.

HOW is the gold become dim!

How is the most fine gold changed! the stones d of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion comparable to fine gold, b how is

they esteemed as earthen pitchers,
the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast; they give suck to their young ones; the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the adulteress in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child
cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst; the young children ask bread, and will man breaketh it
unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are dejected in the streets; they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown in a moment, f and her hands staid on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk;
they were more richly habited than saffron, their polishing was of sapphire.

8 Their visage is blacker g than death, they are not known in the streets; their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be died of famine; for these have said, We will not eat of the bread of famine, nor will we have of the bread of sorrow.

10 For the sake of the pitiful woman, for the sake of the gentle,
for the sake of the meek in the land, for the sake of the daughter of my people.

11 The sinner hath accomplished his way, he is poured out like oil, and hath kindled in his heel; he will kindle the countryside.

12 The earth, and all that is therein, will be in trouble; for the world, would it could, would not receive the adversary; for the world should have said, I will not receive him.

13 The cities of the wilderness shall be inhabited, and the cities of the mountains shall be built.

14 The wolf shall be multiplied,
and the lion shall be increased;
the lion shall devour the flock, and the wolf shall devour the lamb.

15 The cities shall be desolate, and the countryside shall be waste; the cities shall be desolate, and the countryside shall be waste.

16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes are yet failed
for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets; our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are swifter
than the eagles of the heaven;
they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breach of our nostrils, the mountain of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said Under his shadow we shall become among the heathen.

21 g Rejoice ye and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 h The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, x O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sin.

CHAPTER V.

A pitiful complaint of Zion, in property to God.

CHAPTER I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar: <sup>a</sup> His vision.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month,
in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the <sup>1</sup> captives by the river of Chebar, <sup>a</sup> that the heavens were opened, <sup>b</sup> and I saw visions <sup>c</sup>
of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month,
which was the fifth year of king <sup>d</sup>
Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto <sup>2</sup> Ezekiel the priest,
the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar:
and the hande of the LORD was
there upon him.
4 ¶ And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north,
a great cloud, and a fire <sup>3</sup> infold-ing itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four <sup>f</sup> living creatures. And this <sup>g</sup> was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces,
and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were <sup>4</sup> straight feet; the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled <sup>5</sup> like the colour of burn-ished brass.

8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were <sup>2</sup> stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered <sup>3</sup> their bodies.

12 And they went every one straight forward: whether the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went <sup>4</sup> up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran/and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures,
with his four faces.

16 The appearance of the wheel and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it

a wheel in the middle of a wheel.
17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high m that they were dreadful; and their e rings were full of eyes n round about them four.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 Whithersoever o the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of 7 the living creature was in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of 7 the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible p crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like q the noise of great waters, as the voice r of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: s when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, t as u the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon v it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 As the appearance of the bow in that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory x of the LORD. And when I saw y, I fell upon my face, and heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAPTER II.

1 Ezekiel's commission: 6 His instruction: 9 His prophecy.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, stand a upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And b the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious 1 nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers c have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are 2 impudent children and stiff-hearted. I do send d thee unto them: and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 And they, whether e they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house) yet f shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though 3 briars and thorns h be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid i of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are 4 most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee: Be not thou k rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat l that I give thee.

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold, an hand m was sent unto me; and lo, a roll of a book was therein:

10 And he spread it before me: and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 3 God encourageth him.

MOREOVER he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this a roll, and gospel unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the

the glory which I saw by the river

spake with me, and said unto me,
Go, shut thyself within thine house.

CHAPTER IV.

By the provision of the siege is showed the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and portray upon it the city,
even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege ¹ a against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set ² b battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee
³ c an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city:
and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be sign ⁴ d to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety ^c days: so shalt thou bear ^d the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee ^e each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, I will lay bands ^e upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from ^f one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and ^g fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat ^h shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water: by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it ⁱ as barley-cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even ^j thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces: neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 ¶ Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink

CHAPTER V.

The judgment of Jerusalem for rebellion.

AND thou, son of man, take a sharp knife, take thee her's razor, and cause it to upon thine head, and upon beard: then take thee balance weight, and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a part in the midst of the city: the days of the siege are full, and thou shalt take a third and smite about it with a sword, and a third part thou shalt see in the wind; and I will draw sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof few in number, and bind thy skirts.

4 Then take ^c of them again cast them into the midst of the and burn them in the fire thereof shall a fire come forth all the house of Israel.

5 ¶ Thus saith the Lord: This is Jerusalem: I have set the midst of the nations and cities that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed her judgments into wickedness, than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries the round about her: for they have refused my judgments and statutes, they have not walked therein.

7 Therefore thus saith the God: because ye multiplied: than the nations that are about you, and have not walked my statutes, neither have kept judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you.

8 Therefore thus saith the God: Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgment in the midst of thee, in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee which I have not done, and unto I will not do any more: because of all time abominable.

10 Therefore the fathers of the sons in the midst of the sons shall eat their flesh, and I will execute judgment, and the whole residue will I scatter in winds.

11 Wherefore, say I, Lord God; Surely,

and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And b mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense c thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it 2 watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day d of trouble is near, and not the 2 sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense 4 thee according to thy ways, c and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed; pride g hath bud.

11 Violence h is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their 6 multitude, nor of any of 6 their's; neither shall there be waiting for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, 7 although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, where h shall not return; neither i shall any strengthen himself in 2 the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready: but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword k is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: so that 2 in the field shall die with 2 a sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Turn thce yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five w and twenty men, with their backs toward x the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun y
toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, z
neither will I have pity: and though a they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAPTER IX.

A vision, whereby is showed the preservation of some, and the destruction of the rest.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which 1 lieth toward the north, and every man a 2 slaughter-weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed a with linen, with a writer's ink-horn 3 by his side; and they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the glory b of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshhold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's ink-horn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him,
Go through the midst of the city,
through the midst of Jerusalem,
and 4 set a mark upon c the fore-heads of the men that d sigh and that cry for all the abominations
that be done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to the others he said in mine 6 hearing, Go ye after him, through the city, and smite: e let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay 6 utterly old and young both maids, and little children, 7

I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

CHAPTER XI.

God sheweth Ezekiel his purpose in seeing a remnant.

MOREOVER a the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate b of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold c at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Janzaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes d of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise e mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, It is not f near; g let us build houses: this city is the g caldron and we be the flesh.

4 ¶ Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; h Thus saith the LORD, Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know i the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain k in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, l and will execute judgments among m you.

10 Ye shall fall n by the sword; I will judge you in the border o of Israel; and ye shall know p that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: q for ye have not q walked in my statutes, neither r executed my judgments, but have done s after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah, i the son of Benaiah died. Then u I fell down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Although v I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary w in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I x will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, y and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And I will give them one heart, z and I will put a new spirit a within you; and I will take the stony b heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: c

20 That d they may walk in my statutes, and keep e mine ordinances, and do them: and they f shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them g whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense h their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD.

22 ¶ Then did the cherubims lift i up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain k which is on the east side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterwards the spirit took l me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea to them of the captivity. So th

17 ¶ Moreover the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

21 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God; I will make my proverb to cease, and they shall not use it as a proverb in Israel: but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

25 For I am the Lord: I will say, and the word that I shall say shall come to pass; it shall no more be prolonged: for in your rebellious house, will I say word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with un-tempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel,
which prophesy r concerning Jeru-

peace for her, s and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

17 Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them.

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord
God; Wo to the women that sew pillows to all t arin-holes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature, to hunt souls! Will ye hunt t the souls of my people,
and will ye save the souls alive
that come unto you!

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear v your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord
God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt
the souls u to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls
that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad, and strengthened w the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, 10 by 11 promising him life:

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, x nor divine divinations:
for I will deliver my people y out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

19 I clothed thee also with broaded work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

13 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broaded work; thou didst eat m fine
flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth o
among the heathen for thy beauty:
for it was perfect p through my q comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ But r thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot s because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst
take, and deckedst t thy high places with divers colours, and playedst
the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of s men, and didst commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a s sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and u thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

21 That thou hast slain v my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire
for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked,
and bare thy blood.

23 And

h after

thy wickedness, (wo, wo unto thee!) saith the Lord GOD;

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians & thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the 12 daughters of the c Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, & because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldst not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an impetuous & whorish woman;

31 In 13 that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores; but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and 14 hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms; and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee; therefore thou art contrary.

35 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD:

36 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered; through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

CHAPTER XVII.

The parable of the two eagles and the vine.

AND the word of the LORD came
unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle,
and speak a parable unto the house
of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord
GOD; A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters,
and set it as a willow d tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature,
whose branches turned toward him,
and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil
by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither?
it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power, or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to the rebellious

equal? are not your ways unequal? 26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

CHAPTER XIX.

A lamentation for the princes of Israel, and for Jerusalem.

MOREOVER take thou up a lamentation a for the princes of Israel.

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

5 Now, when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net him: he was taken in their pit, 9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains

of Israel.

10 ¶ Thy mother is like a vine d
in thy blood, planted by the waters: she e was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind f dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry g and thirsty ground.

14 And fire h is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAPTER XX.

God promiseth to gather the children of Israel by the gospel.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month,
the tenth day of the month, that certain of the a elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not b be inquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations
of their fathers:

5 ¶ And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: In the day when I d chose Israel, and 2 lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in e the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring f them forth of the land of Egypt into a,
and that I had espied for them,
owing with milk and honey, which

7 Then said I k unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But l they rebelled against me,
and would not hearken unto me:
they did not every man cast away
the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will m pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But n I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight o I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 And I gave them p my statutes,
and 2 showed them my judgments, which q if a man do, he shall even 12 Moreover also I gave them r my me and them, that they might

13 ¶ But the house of Israel r re-

14 But I wrought for my name's for their heart w went after their

17 Nevertheless z mine eye spar-

neither did I make an end of them

18 But I said y unto their children

And hallow my sabbaths; and

and, and wrought for my name's ake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.
23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries:

24 Because they had not executed
my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place wherunto ye go?
And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 ¶ Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God:

when ye make your sons to pass

As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh u into your mind shall not v be at all,
that ye say, We will not be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 ¶ As I live, saith the Lord God, surely w with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule
over you:

34 And I will bring you out x from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness y of the people, and there will I plead z with you face to face, a

36 Like as I pleaded b with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to pass c
under the rod, and I will bring you into d the bond of the covenant:

38 And I will purge out d from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not e enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am
the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel,
thus saith the Lord God: Go f ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken g unto me: but k pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy mountain, i in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept k them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, l when I bring you out m from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered: and I will be sanctified n in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall know o that I am the LORD, when I shall bring y into the land of Israel, into country for the which I lifted mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And p there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall loathe q yourselves in your own sight, for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, r not s according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings. O ye house of Israel, saith the LORD God.

45 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD God; Behold, I t will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from u the south to the north shall be burned therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

2 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop a thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel.

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee b the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seemest thou that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword c go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return d any more.

6 Sigh e therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, for the tidings: f because it cometh: and very heart shall melt, and all

8 ¶ Again the word of the LORD

came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy and say,

Thus saith the LORD; Say, A sword, g a sword is sharpened, and also furnished:

10 It is sharpened to make a sore

slaughter: it is furnished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? it 2 contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be fur-sword is sharpened, and it is fur-

the slayer.

shall be upon my people: smite it

therefore upon thy thigh.

13 * Because it is a trial, I said what

God.

14 ¶ Thou therefore, son of man,

prophesy, and smite thine 5 hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which cut tereth into their privy chambers.

15 I have set the 6 point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, m and their whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: p the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come:

thee have they dealt by <sup>6</sup> oppres-

Then I saw that she was del, that they took both one way,
And that she increased her redoms: for when she saw men rayed upon & the wall, the im-

million,
Girded with girdles upon their s, exceeding in dyed attire upon heads, all of them princes to to, after the manner of the gloians of Chaldea, the land
their nativity:
And <sup>a</sup> as soon as she saw <sup>i</sup> them
h her eyes, she doted upon em, and sent messengers unto nem into Chaldea.
17 And the <sup>u</sup> Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whored
and she was polluted with th
and her mind was <sup>10</sup> alienated fr
them.
18 So she discovered her whored-oms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.
19 Yet she multiplied her whor-doms, in calling to remembrance
the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.
20 For she doted upon their par-

21 Thus thou calledst to remem-

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus

41 And satest upon a <sup>14</sup> stately k bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense l and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the <sup>15</sup> common sort were brought <sup>16</sup> Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit <sup>17</sup> whoredous with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that m playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous n men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood: because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord God; I o will bring up a company upon them, and will give them <sup>18</sup> to be removed p and q spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and <sup>19</sup> despatch them with their swords; they shall slay r their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out s of the land, that t all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the u sins of your idols: and ye shall know that i am the Lord God.

And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto m, Thus saith the Lord God;

Set on a pot, b set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and <sup>1</sup> burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Wo to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot d fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, e to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause f fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Wo to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for her great.

10 Heap on h wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice i well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that j the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied k herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not l purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest m upon thee.

14 I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will n not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came unto me saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I o take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou p mourn nor weep, neither shalt thy tears q run down.

17 ¶ Forbear to cry, make r no mourning for the dead, bind s no fire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy t feet: cover not thy u lips, and v be not silent.

died; and I did in the morn-
 1 I was commanded.
 2 And the people said unto me, thou not tell us what these are to us, that thou doest so?
 Then I answered them, The
 of the LORD came unto me, 3 and he said unto me, Speak unto the house of Israel, and saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I profane t my sanctuary, the sanctuary u of your strength, the eye v of your eyes, and w that with your soul pitieth; and your left shall fall x by the sword.

 4 And ye shall do as I have done:
 ye shall not x cover your lips, nor

 23 And your tires shall be upon our heads, and your shoes upon our feet: ye shall not mourn x

 at your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.
 24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath one shall ye do: and when b this cometh, ye shall know that I am

 25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, c the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and d that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their

 26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with e thine ears?
 27 In that day d shall thy mouth
 be opened to him which is escaped,
 and thou shalt speak, and be no

5 And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites
 a couching-place for flocks: and c ye
 shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the Lord GOD;
 Because thou hast clapped d thine
 2 hands, and stamped with the 3 feet, and rejoiced in e heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore I will stretch

 heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries:
 I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD;
 Because that Moab d and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the e side of Moab from the cities,

 in possession, that the Ammonites
 may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know
 that I am the LORD.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD;
 Because that Edom e hath dealt against the house of Judah by
g taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself
 upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord
 GOD; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they h of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith
 the Lord GOD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD;
 Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despotic heart, to destroy it i for the old hatred;

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord
 GOD; Behold, I will stretch out

CHAPTER XXVI.

Tyrrus for insulting against Jerusalem is threatened.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, because that Tyrrus hath said against Jerusalem, Alas, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea doth causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God: and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the fields shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and I cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrrus: Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away in their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling: they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of a sea-faring man, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their term to be on all that haunt it!

18 Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

20 When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living;

21 I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord God.

13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the <sup>1</sup> sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the <sup>2</sup> beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the <sup>3</sup> emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed <sup>4</sup> cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain <sup>5</sup> of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity <sup>6</sup> was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned; therefore I will cut thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, <sup>7</sup> from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted <sup>8</sup> thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast denied thy servants by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffic; <sup>9</sup> therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be <sup>10</sup> a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

21 Son of man, set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it.

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, <sup>11</sup> I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know <sup>12</sup> that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh. 8 The desolation of Egypt.

month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the Lord came
unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set a thy face against

Egypt :

thy rivers to stick unto thy scales;
and I will bring thee up out of the thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou g shalt not be brought together, nor gath-

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the Lord: because he hath said, m The river n is mine,
and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, n and I will make the land of Egypt o utterly waste and desolate, from p the tower of q Syene o even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No r foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries r that are desolate, and her cities among the cities r that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years:
and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 ¶ Yet q thou shalt say, The Lord God; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return unto the land of Pathros,
into the land of their s habitation;
and r they shall be there a o base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms: neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations:
for I will diminish them, that they shall have no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of s the house of Israel, which bringeth r their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them; but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came
unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar t
king of Babylon caused his army to serve u a great service against Tyrus: every head v was made bald,
and every shoulder v was peeled:
yet had he no wages, nor his army,
for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord
God; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and w take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land x
Egypt for his x labour wherew
he served against it, because y

wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

21 ¶ In that day will I cause the horn ^v of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXX.

The desolation of Egypt and her helpers.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; How ye, Wo worth the day!

3 For ^a the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great ⁱ pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and ³ Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled ^b people, and Chub, and the ³ men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold ^c Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from ⁴ the tower of Syene ^d shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries ^{that} are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities ^{that} are wasted.

8 And they shall know ^e that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and ^{when} all her helpers shall be ⁵ destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers ^f go forth from me in ships, to make the careless ^g Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God; I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand ^h of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, the terrible ⁱ of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And ^k I will make the rivers ^{dry}, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and ^l all that is therein, by the hand of ^{rangers}: I the LORD have spoken

13 Upon m his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end n that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand 7 up in their height, all that drink water: for o they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with p them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God: In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning, q I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to s mourn for him,
and all the trees of the field fainted
for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him r down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted s in the nether
parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell
with him unto them that be slain with the sword: and they that were his arm, that dwelt t under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 ¶ To whom u art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised v with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh, and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXII.

A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came
unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion o of the nations, and thou art as a 1 whale in the seas:
and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst the

4 Then e will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and f will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood g the land h wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall i put thee out, I j will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the k bright lights of heaven will I make l dark over thee, and set darkness m upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also n vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people o amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword p before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ For q thus saith the Lord God: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords r of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and s they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; t neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be u destitute of that whereof v it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know w that I am the Lord.

16 This x is the lamentation y wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her; they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the z fifteenth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it;
if he do not turn from his way, he shall die k in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 ¶ Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; I thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine m away in them,
how n should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I o have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die,
O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man,
say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness p of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he q
shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness r
in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own s righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do t that which is lawful and right;

15 If the u wicked restore the pledge, give again v that he had robbed, walk in the statutes w of life, without committing iniquity;
he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None x of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ¶ Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the LORD is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth y
from his righteousness, and com-mitteth iniquity, he shall even die
thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live
thereby.

20 Yet z ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one a after his ways.

21 ¶ And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that b one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham c was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye d possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to e be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land a most desolate, e and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains f of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 ¶ Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are taking a against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And they come g unto thee 7 as the people cometh, and a they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they a show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32 And lo, thou art unto them as a 10 very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 And when this cometh to pass, (to, it will come,) then I shall they

3 And v I will bring them out from a people, and gather them from a countries, and will bring them their own land, and feed them on the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited acres of the country.

11 Because ye have thrust with de and with shoulder, and pushed l the a diseased with your horns, l ye have scattered them abroad; 12 Therefore will I save my flock, ad they shall no more be a prey; ad I will judge between cattle ad cattle.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy o against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the LORD God; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee 1 most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had a 2 perpetual hatred, and hast 3 shed the blood of the children of Israel by the 4 force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, d as I live, saith the LORD God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir 4 most desolate, and cut off from it him f that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains g with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; <sup>6</sup> whereas the LORD was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to <sup>7</sup> consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have <sup>8</sup> boasted against me, and have multiplied <sup>n</sup> your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God; When the <sup>o</sup> whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 The resurrection of dry bones. 21
The promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the Spirit a of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley
which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley;
and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O LORD GOD, thou b knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the LORD GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath c to enter into you, and ye shall live.

6 And I will lay sinews upon you,
and will bring up flesh upon you,
and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live:
and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as he bade me:

manded: and as I prophesied there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came upon them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ¶ Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophecy k and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves.

14 And shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel m his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ¶ And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not show us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say n unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

2 The vision of Gog: 15 Gog's judgment against him.

A ND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, I will shew thee the name of the land, and the chief prince of the land, and the chief prince of the land.

3 And say unto me, Gog, the chief prince of the land, and the chief prince of the land.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy hands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds b of every a sort, and to the beasts of the field to b be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the b open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire c on Magog, and among them that dwell b carelessly in the isles: d and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name e any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ Behold, f is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God: this is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the h hand-staves and the spears, and they shall b burn g them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil h those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the h noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of h Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse i the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I k shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God: Speak l unto every feathered fowl, l and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come: gather yourselves on every side to my h sacrifice, h that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of h goats, of bullocks, all of them fattlings of h Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses e and charots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall q know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

23 ¶ And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: r because they trespassed against me, therefore hid s I my face from them, and gave them into the hand t of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Now u will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the v whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name:

26 After u that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, x when they stood safely in their land, and I was not among them afraid.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits;
and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The ^a space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit
on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side,
and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of three-score cubits, even unto the post of the ^b court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were ^c narrow ^d windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the ^e arches:
and windows were round about ^f inward: and upon each post were palm trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward ^g court, and, lo, there were little chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty ^h chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates, over against the length of the gates, was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the fore-front of the lower gate under the fore-front of the inner court ⁱ without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ^j And the gate of the outward court ^k that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side, and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the ^l arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps;
and the arches thereof were before
them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east;
and he measured from gate to gate
an hundred cubits.

24 ^m After that he brought me towards the south, and he brought me

measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 ¶ And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little chambers n thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures; and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was o fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits so broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the p north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to lay thereon the burnt-offering q and the r sin-offering and the trespass-offering.^s

40 And at the side without, was one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were 12 hooks, an hand-bread, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having a prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers v of the 13 charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: to these are the sons of Zadok x among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, four-square, and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length y of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER XII.

ward parts, chambers, and ments of the temple.

WARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the cubits broad on the one side, six cubits broad on the other, which was the breadth of the temple.

He measured the breadth of the door, five cubits; and the sides of the door, five cubits on the one side, five cubits on the other; he measured the length of the door, forty cubits, and the width of the door, twenty cubits.

Then he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the side of the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

He measured the length of the door, twenty cubits; and the width of the door, twenty cubits, before the door, and he said unto me, This is the holy place.

He measured the wall of the door, six cubits; and the side-chamber, four cubits about the house on the one side.

He measured the side-chambers, which were over another, and entered the wall, which was of the side-chambers round about they might have hold, and not hold in the wall of the house.

There was an enlarging of the house still upward; the side-chambers: for the window of the house went still round about the house: the breadth of the house increased upward, and so increased the lowest chamber to the midst.

He also the height of the house, and about: the foundation of the side-chambers were a wall of six great cubits.

The thickness of the wall, which was the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was the place of the side-chamber within.

Between the chambers, the thickness of twenty cubits, he said unto me, This is the house on every side.

He measured the doors of the side-chambers toward the place that he door toward the north, and the door toward the south: the breadth of the place that was five cubits round about the house on every side.

He measured the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long.

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court.

16 The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, were ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered.

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure.

18 And it was made with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood; and he said unto me, This is the table that is before me the LORD.

26 And p there were narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof.

THEN he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north; and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery b against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, 2 than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And from 2 under these chambers was 4 the entry on the east side, as 5 one goeth into them from the utter court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way d before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and their meat-offering, and the 4 sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister: for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring-reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring-reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall a round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The glory of the Lord returneth into the temple. 13 The measures and ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east;

2 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision that I saw when I came to the city; and the vision that I beheld; and

1 And the glory of the LORD came into the house, by the way of the side whose prospect is toward the east.

2 So the spirit took me up, and caught me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

3 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man I saw by me.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, here I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their iniquities, nor by the carcasses of their kings in their high places.

5 In their setting of their thresholds by my thresholds, and their setting by my posts, and the wall between me and them; they have defiled my holy name by their iniquities: wherefore I have condemned them in mine anger.

6 Now let them put away from their iniquities, and the carcasses of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

7 ¶ Thou son of man, show the people the use to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the altar.

8 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, show them the forms of the house, and the vision thereof, and the goings-out thereof, and the comings-in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole vision thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

9 This is the law of the house; upon the top of the mountain, the sole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

10 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The altar is a cubit and an half; the breadth is a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span; and this shall be the other place of the altar.

11 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth of a cubit; and from the lesser

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, a young bullock for a sin-offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin-offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast a salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering; they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purify the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are expired, it shall be that upon the eighth day, they shall offer a burnt-offering.

CHAPTER XLIV.

The priests reproved for polluting of the sanctuary.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary, a which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way c of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 ¶ Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, d the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, i mark well, and behold e with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well f the entering in g of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, h even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice i you of all your abominations.

7 In that ye have brought k into my sanctuary l ye strangers, l uncircumcised m in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept n the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my o charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; No stranger, uncircumcised p in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the Levites that are gone away q far from me, when Israel q went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates r of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay s the burnt offering and the sacrifice of the people, and they shall stand

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and u caused u the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

From the Creation, 3397....From the Deluge, 1741....From the foundation of Solomon's Temple, 397....From the destruction of Israel by Shalmaneser, 114....Year (ending) of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, 3.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came a Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children b of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well-favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine 1 which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; c and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion d of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God had brought Daniel

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord 1 thinking, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces? 2 were-liking than the children which are of your 3 sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to 1 Mezar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us 4 pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which had eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Mezar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and 6 Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and found none 7 like Daniel, Mishael, and Azariah.

other that can show it before the king, except g the gods, whose dwelling h is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah his companions:

18 That k they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret, that l Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision! Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, m Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom n and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times o and the seasons: he p removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he q giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding.

22 He revealeth r the deep and secret things: he knoweth s what is in the darkness, and the light t dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel

before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, ² I have found a man of the ⁹ captives of Judah that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

²⁸ The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

²⁸ But ^v there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and ¹⁰ maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

²⁹ As for thee, O king, thy thoughts ¹¹ came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and ^w he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

³⁰ But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom ^x that I have more than any living, but for ¹² their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

³¹ ¶ Thou, O king, ¹³ sawest, and beheld, a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was terrible.

³² This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his ¹⁴ thighs of brass,

³³ His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

³⁴ Thou sawest till that a stone was cut ¹⁵ without y hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

³⁵ Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the ^x chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, ^b and filled ^c the whole earth.

³⁶ ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

³⁷ Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set f over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego ; these men, O king, have 4 not regarded g thee : they serve not thy gods, nor

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury, commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it 5 true, O Sha-drach, Meshach, and Abed-nego,
do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up ?

15 Now if ye be ready that at the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, worship the image which I have made ; well : 6 but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery fur-shall deliver you out of my hands ?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful 8 to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom 9 we

king.

18 But if not, o be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar 6 full of fury, q and the form of his visage was changed against Sha-
drach, Meshach, and Abed-nego :
therefore he spake, and commanded r that they should heat the fur-

20 And he commanded the 7 most

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god except their own God.

29 Therefore 15 I make a decree,
That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing
against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be slain in their houses, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no god that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king 16 promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the province of Babylon.

3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from 4 ¶ I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told them
the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the is-terpretation thereof.

8 ¶ But at the last Daniel came in before me, (whose name is Bel-teshazzar, according to the name of the spirit of the holy gods:) and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee,
and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine
head in my bed; I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong,
and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof
to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a watcher upon an holy mountain, and down from heaven:

14 He cried aloud, and said the flew down the tree, and cut his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beast away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked s in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king spake o and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 Whilep the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken;
The kingdom is departed from
thee:

32 And q they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar:
and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me; and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him r that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting s dominion, and his kingdom is from generation l to generation:

35 And u all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added y unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works z are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride a he is able to abase.

CHAPTER V.

1 Belshazzar's impious feast. 5 A hand-writing on the wall.

BELSHAZZAR the king made a great feast a to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, whilst he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels b which his 1 father Nebuchadnezzar had 2 taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, c and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ In the same hour d came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then e the king's 3 countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the 5 joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees f smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the soothsayers, g the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king said, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with 7 scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third h ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his 8 countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astounded.

10 ¶ Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lord came into the banquet-house: as the queen spake and said, O king live for ever: let not thy thought trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of 11 holy gods; and in the days of 9 father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of 12 gods, was found in him: whom 13 king Nebuchadnezzar thy 14 father the king, I say, thy 15 father, master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers.

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, 10 interpreting of dreams and showing of hard sentences and 11 dissolving of 12 doubts, was found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: he let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, 21 thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Jude whom the king my 9 father brought out of Jewry!

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing;

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst 13 make interpretations and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let 1 thyself be to thyself, and give thy 10 wards to another; yet I will read the writing m unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high gave Nebuchadnezzar thy kingdom, and 14 majesty, and glory and honour:

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased: and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God, whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him my innocence was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces: or ever they came to the bottom of the den.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts, 2 of God's kingdom: 15 The interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven stood upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it; and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo, another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns and lo, hold, there was another horn, there were ninet

9 ¶ I beheld till the thrones were cast down, m and the Ancient n of days did sit, whose garment o was white p as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne q was like the fiery flame, and his wheels r as burning fire.

10 A fiery s stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood t before him: the judgment u was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld, even till the beast was slain, v and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of w he beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet x their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, y a z behold, one like the Son of man z came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient a of days, and they brought him near before him.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my b body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the c Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom b for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all d the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his

CHAPTER VIII.

Daniel's vision of the ram and goat.

IN the third year of the reign king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; (as came to pass, when I saw, th was at Shushan, a in the palace which is in the province of Elam) and I saw in a vision, and I was the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, saw, and, behold there stood by the river a ram, which had horns, and the two horns were b but one was higher than the c of and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing, ward, and northward, and ward; so that no beasts might before him, neither was t could deliver out of b

according to b

great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he-goat c came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and 2 touched not the ground: and the goat had 3 a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four d notable ones, towards the four winds of heaven.

9 And e out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant f land.

10 And it waxed great, even 4 to the host g of heaven; and it cast down h some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he i magnified himself even 4 to the prince of the host, and 5 by him the daily k sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And 6 an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and practised and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard one saint l speaking, and another saint said unto 7 that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression 8 of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred 9 days; then shall the sanctuary be 10 cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, m make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are 12 come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty q but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and r shall destroy the mighty and the 13 holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by 14 peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes, but he shall be broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told u true: wherefore shut s thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain : because for our sins,
and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary
that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear ; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city <sup>5</sup> which is called by thy name : for we do not <sup>6</sup> present our supplications before thee for our righteous-

19 O Lord, hear ; O Lord, forgive ;
O Lord, hearken, and do ; defer not,
for thine own sake, O my God : for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And while I was speaking,
and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God ;

21 Yea, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly, <sup>7</sup> swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to <sup>8</sup> give thee
skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the <sup>9</sup> commandment came forth, and I am come to show thee ;
for thou art <sup>10</sup> greatly beloved ;
therefore understand the matter,
and consider the vision.

25 Know therefore and under-ple of the prince that shall shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations be determined.

7 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week:
and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined, shall be poured upon the

CHAPTER X.

1 Daniel, having humbled himself, seeth a vision: 10 Being troubled with fear, he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, (whose name was called Belteshazzar;) and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long; and he understood the thing,
and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel:

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz.

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words
like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees
and upon the palms of my hands:

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel,
a man greatly beloved, understand
the words that I speak unto thee,
and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken, this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet
the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no
strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway
there remained no strength in me:
neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me.

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, My lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will show thee what is the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come (8 after certain years,) with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the 9 robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall. q

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the 10 most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither 11 his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in 12 the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face h to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and 13 upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, 14 corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for 15 his own behalf shall cause 16 the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and i not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his 17 estate 18 a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in 19 anger, nor in battle.

21 And in his 17 estate shall stand up a vde person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And k with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: l for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter 20 peaceably even upon the 21 faintest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall <sup>21</sup> forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' <sup>22</sup> hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: n for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south: but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 ¶ For the ships n of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; o he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that <sup>23</sup> maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he <sup>24</sup> corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to p try <sup>25</sup> them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed, q

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and r he shall exalt

himself, and magnify himself above

every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined s shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But <sup>26</sup> in his <sup>27</sup> estate shall he honour the God of <sup>28</sup> forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and <sup>29</sup> pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the <sup>30</sup> most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for <sup>31</sup> him.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a wind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the <sup>32</sup> glorious e land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even to Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall <sup>33</sup> stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the <sup>34</sup> glorious holy mountain; yet e he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

SAY ye unto your brethren,
1 Ammi; and to your sisters,
2 Rohamah.

3 Plead with your mother, plead:
for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms a out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I strip b her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wither-ness, c and set her like a dry land,
and slay her with thirst. d

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: e she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give f me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine
oil and my g drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will hedge g up thy way with thorns, and h make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them,
but she shall not find them: then i shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband: for then j
was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and k wine, and oil,
and multiplied her silver and gold,
l which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will m recover my wool and my flax n given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast-days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all

and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that for their manifold sins.

H EAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel;
and give ye ear, O house of the king;
for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah,

1 A reproof of manifold sin. 2 God's wrath against the people for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without;

2 And they ^a consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, ^c as an oven heated by the baker ^d ceaseth from ^e raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with ^f bottles of wine: he stretched out his hand with scorn.

6 For they have ^g made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning ^h burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: all their kings are fallen: ⁱ there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he hath mixed ^j himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, gray hairs are ^k there, and there upon him, yet he ^l knoweth it not.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as ^b rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to ^c king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place, till they ^d acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction ^e they will seek me early.

CHAPTER VI.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A complaint of their untowardness and iniquity.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and ^a he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us: in the third ^b day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then ^c shall we know, if we follow on ^d to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, ^e as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee! O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your ^f goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain ^g them by the words of my mouth: ^h and thy judgments are as the light ⁱ that goeth forth.

4 They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, neither c shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread d for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction; Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the o spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman e of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred f in the house of his God.

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, I is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give I give them? a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in m Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, n I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the ^a beloved fruit of their womb.

3 For now they shall say, We b have no king, because we feared not the LORD: what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them: and the people shall be gathered against them, when ⁷ they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon ^a her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plough, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy: break up your fallow ground: it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have ploughed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because then didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of ^a your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want <sup>m</sup> of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when <sup>there were</sup> yet
three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city,
and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water: but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I have smitten you with blast-

Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, <sup>6</sup> and have taken away your horses: and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith
the LORD.

11 I have overthrown <sup>some of you</sup>,
as God overthrew Sodom <sup>q</sup> and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand <sup>r</sup> plucked out of the burn-

me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare <sup>s</sup> to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the <sup>t</sup> wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, <sup>t</sup> that naketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.

rejecteth their hypocritical service.

7 ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord God hath sworn by himself, h saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, i Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue; for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the Lord commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plough there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment in into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock: n

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, I will raise o up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hamath unto p the river of the wilderness.

CHAPTER VII.

The judgments of grasshoppers, and of fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos, etc.

THUS hath the Lord God showed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee; a by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The Lord repented c for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

Amaziah's judgment

Lord God called to contend fire, d and it devoured the ground deep, and did eat up a part.

5 ¶ Then said I, O Lord God, ce I beseech thee; by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The Lord repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 ¶ Thus he showed me; I beheld, the Lord stood upon a plumb-line, with plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the Lord said unto Amos, what seest thou? An said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass them by any more:

9 And the high places of Israel shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, thou seest, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again more at Beth-el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 ¶ Then answered Amos, I said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a thresher of sycamore fruit.

15 And the Lord took me: I followed the flock, and the Lord said unto me, Go prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou word of the Lord: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel; drop thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and daughters shall fall by the sword.

THUS hath the Lord God showed unto me; and behold a basket of summer-fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer-fruit. Then said the Lord unto me The end a is come upon my people of Israel; b will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs c of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: d there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth e with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow f up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail.

5 Saying, When f will the g new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, g that we may h set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and i falsifying the balances; by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; j yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The Lord hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will k never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn; that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as l by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, m and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up n sackcloth upon all joints, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the o mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but p of hearing the words of the Lord:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for q thirst.

14 They that swear r by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beer-sheba liveth; t even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish; 4 He is overtaken by a tempest, etc.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto 1 Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, b that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up c before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence d of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; e and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord.

4 ¶ But the LORD 2 sent out f
 a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was 3 like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid
 and cried every man unto his god,
 and g cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him,
 and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish
 not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, h
 that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which i hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men 6 exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him,
 What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be 7 calm unto us? (for the sea 7 wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my 8 sake
 this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men 9 sowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not; for the sea wrought,
 and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let not us perish, for 10 we have done this thing foolishly.

1 Micah sheweth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry: 10 He exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to Micah a the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, I all ye people; hearken, O earth, and I all that therein is: and let the LORD GOD be witness c against you, the LORD from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For d the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as a heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man ¹¹ walking in the spirit and falseness do lie, saying, I will promise unto thee of wine and of strong drink: he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee: I will surely gather the remnant of Israel: I will put them together as the sheep of a fold, as the flock in the midst of their fold; they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and ^g the LORD on the head of them.

4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have hated themselves ill in their iniquities.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that my people err, that bite with teeth, and cry, Peace; and he putteth not into their mouths, even prepare war against him.

6 Therefore shall ye have vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine: the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be as ed, and the diviners confounded, they shall all cover their lips: for there is no answer of them.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, in judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye head of the house of Israel, that judge between the house of Israel, and between the house of Judah.

10 They build Zion as a bulwark, and Jerusalem with confidence.

11 The heads thereof judge reward, and the rulers thereof have for hire, and the prophets of divine for money: yet they lean upon the LORD, saying, Is not the LORD among us, none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zion for sake be plucked down, and Jerusalem shall become a heap, the mountain of the house shall be a plain, as the forest.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 But e they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all f people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we g will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble h her that hatheth, i and I will gather h her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted:

7 And I will make her that hatheth a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall i reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O tower m of 2 the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; n the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? i so there no king in thee: i is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring p forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there q shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now r also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look s upon Zion.

12 But they know not t the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather u them as the sheaves into the floor.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall snare a the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But b thou, Beth-lehem Ephraim, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto us, that is to be ruler c in Israel: whose goings forth have been from of old, from 1 everlasting. d

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and 2 feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God: and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

6 And they shall 4 waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod 5 in the entrances thereof: thus shall he 7 deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand: and thou shalt have no more soothsayers: 8

CHAPTER II.

The judgment upon the Chaldeans for their sins.

I WILL stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and a will watch to see what he will say ² unto me, and what I shall answer ³ when I am reprov'd.

² And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

³ For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

⁴ Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but ⁵ the just shall live by his faith.

⁶ ¶ Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, ⁷ he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and ⁸ is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

¹¹ Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

¹⁵ ¶ Wo to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

¹⁶ Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

¹⁷ For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

¹⁸ ¶ Wo to him that buildeth a town with ¹⁹ blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity!

²⁰ Behold, ²¹ is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves ²² for vanity?

²³ For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

¹¹ Howl, ye inhabitants of the land, for all the men are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled in their lees: that say in their heart, The Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah: they shall feed thereupon; in houses of Ashkelon shall they dwell in the evening: for the Lord their God shall visit them, and turn away from their captivity.

8 ¶ I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, magnified themselves against the border.

9 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of asses, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of hosts.

12 ¶ Ye Ethiopians also ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and despoil Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the pillars thereof; their voice shall be heard in the windows; desolations shall be in the thresholds: for they shall uncover the cedar-work.

15 This is the rejoicing city, that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by shall hiss, and wag his hand.

time is not come, the time LORD's house shall be built

3 Then came the word LORD by Haggai, the saying,

4 Is it time for you, dwell in your cellars, but this house is waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; I counsel you,

6 I have sown you in little; ye shall reap enough, ye shall eat, filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, (as the LORD their God had sent him,) and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai the LORD's messenger, in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God.

4 Yet now be strong, c O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech the high priest; and be strong ye people of the land, saith LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 According to the word which I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my Spirit remaineth among you; fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land

7 And I will shake all nations, the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in place will I give peace, I saith LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in second year of Darius, came word of the LORD by Haggai prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts Ask now the priests m concern the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in skirt of his garment, and with skirt do touch bread, or pottage, wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one be unclean by a dead body touch n: of these, shall it be unclean? The priests answered and said shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from fore a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD.

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of two measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-fat for draw out fifty vessels out of press, there were but twenty.

17 And ye shall be filled with blessing, I say, and with hail, in the day of your harvest; yet ye shall not be filled, saith the LORD of hosts, from this time forth.

CHAPTER I.

1 Zechariah exhorteth to repentance.
7 The vision of the horses. 12 Jerusalem is comforted, etc.

I N the eighth month, in the second e year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah b
the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been 1 sore displeased c with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them,
Thus saith the LORD of hosts;
Turn d ye unto me, saith the LORD
of hosts, and I e will turn unto you,
saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they?
and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words and my statutes,
which I commanded my servants
the prophets, did they not 2 take hold f of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought g to do unto us,
according to our ways, and according to our doings, so h hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

20 And the LORD showed me four carpenters.

CHAPTER II.

An angel sent to measure Jerusalem, and its flourishing state under God's protection foretold.

I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring-line in his hand. 2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure b Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited c as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory e in the midst of her.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair i mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my a charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts; and I will give thee a places to walk among these that stand by.

CHAPTER IV.

By the golden candlestick is foreshadowed the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation.

AND the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep.

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with 4 a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and 2 seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not a by 2 might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the head-stone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace, unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation b of this house; his hands shall also finish c it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? 4 for they shall rejoice, and shall see the 2 plumb-line in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive-branches, which 6 through the two golden pipes 7 empty 8 the golden 9 out of themselves?

1 By the flying roll, is showed the curse of thieves and of false swearers. 5 Babylon's ruin.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll a

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one 1 that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter 5 into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and 4 shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And behold, there was lifted up a 2 talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; (for they had wings like the wings of a stork;) and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

<sup>5</sup> be filled like bowls and as the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for <sup>1</sup> they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness,
and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men <sup>2</sup> cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER X.

1 God is to be sought unto, and not idols. 5 As he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

ASK ye of the LORD rain at the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make <sup>1</sup> bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the <sup>2</sup> idols have spoken vanity,
and the diviners have seen a lie,
and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: <sup>3</sup> therefore they went their way as a flock, they were <sup>4</sup> troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I <sup>4</sup> punished
the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse <sup>5</sup> in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, <sup>6</sup> out of him the nail, <sup>7</sup> out of him
the battle-bow, out of him
every oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight,
because the LORD is with them,
and <sup>8</sup> the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for <sup>9</sup> I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their GOD,
and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart
shall rejoice as through wine:
yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in
the LORD.

8 I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them:
and they shall increase as they gat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that be-

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision,
when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment
to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman: for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him,
What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded
in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my

is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off, and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold: it is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 The destruction of Jerusalem: 3
The coming of Christ, and the grace of his kingdom, etc.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as
when he fought in the day of battle.

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley:
and half of the mountain shall read ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; ² for the valley of the mountains shall reach ; Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as led from before the earthquake

the days of Uzziah, king of Ju-
; and ^c the LORD my God shall
me, and all the saints with thee.
And it shall come to pass in that
ay, that ³ the light shall not be ear, nor ^a dark:
But ⁶ it shall be one day, which hall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.
8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.
9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.
10 All the land shall be ⁵ turned as a plain, from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and ⁹ inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's wine-presses.
11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more ^d utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall ¹⁰
be safely inhabited.
12 ¶ And thus shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.
13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult ^e from

Jerusalem shall be among them;
and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.
14 And Judah also shall felt at Jerusalem: and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.
15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents,
as this plague.
16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go ^h up from Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.
17 And ^k it shall be, that whose will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts,
even upon them shall be no rain.
18 And if the family of Egypt ¹² not up, and come not, ¹³ that have no I rain; there shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep
the feast of tabernacles.
19 This shall be the ¹⁴ punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of nations that come not up to keep
the feast of tabernacles.
20 ¶ In that day shall there be on the bells of the horses, ¹⁵
NESS UNTO THE LORD:
the pots in the LORD's house
be like the bowls before the LORD.
21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness to the LORD of hosts: and every that sacrifice shall come in in that day there shall be the Canaanite ¹⁶ in the house
the LORD of hosts.

Wherein have we wearied him?
When ye say, Every one that doeth purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer e unto the LORD an offer-

4 Then shall the offering of Judah

LORD, as in the days of old, and as have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee?

In tithes l and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts,
if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and o pour you out a

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground;
neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field,
saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 ¶ Your words n have been stout against me, saith the LORD; yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his o ordinance, and that we have walked o mournfully
before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are p set up; yea, they that tempt o God are even delivered.

16 ¶ Then they that feared the LORD spake p often one to another:
and the LORD hearkened, and heard q it, and a book q of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, r saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my s jewels; r and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and t discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that ser-veth God, and him that serveth
him not.

husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth a of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, b before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded c to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, w saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is z conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name 4 JESUS: for he shall save x his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, y
saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and 5 they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted,
is, God z with us.

24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him
his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born a son:
and he called his name JESUS. b

CHAPTER II.

1 The wise men, coming to Christ, 11
worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt with Jesus and Mary.

NOW when Jesus was born 1 in Bethlehem of Judæa, in the st directed the wise men.

of Herod the king, behold,
came wise men from the east
to Jerusalem.

16 Where is he that is born a king? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

17 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

18 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

19 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

20 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

21 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

22 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

23 When they had heard the king,
they departed; and, lo, the star,
before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

24 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

25 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him:

26 And when they had opened their treasuries, they presented unto him gold, and frankincense,
and myrrour.

27 And being warned of God in a dream that he should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

28 And when the angel of the Lord appeared unto Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child
and his mother, and flee into Egypt,
and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

29 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

30 And was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt called my son.

31 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wrath, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

32 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, In Rama was there a voice heard, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

33 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child
and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead, which sought the young child's
life.

34 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

35 But when he heard that Ar-chelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding,
being warned of God in a dream,
he turned aside into the parts of Galilee.

36 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, he shall be called a Nazarene.

for it is written, He e shall give his thee up, lest at any time thou dash

7 Jesus said unto him, It is writ-

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms
of the world, and the glory of them:

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou g shalt worship the 11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels h came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now when Jesus had heard that John was i cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthali:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet,
saying,

which sat in the region and shadow
of death, light is sprung up.

17 ¶ From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren,

Simon m called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers.)

19 And he saith unto them, Fol-brother, in a ship with Zebe-dai their father, mending their nets,

and he called them.

22 And they immediately left

23 ¶ And when he was entered into Capernaum, he said unto them,

24 The Son of man is sent to redeem that which was lost.

25 ¶ And he saith unto them, The

CHAPTER VI.

1 Of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgive us
19 Our treasure. 24 Of God
mammon.

TAKE heed that ye do not a your alms before men, to be b of them: otherwise ye have no reward c of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest d thy alms, e do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the street that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They f shall not have their reward.

3 But when thou doest g thy alms, h do not let thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, himself shall reward i thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, j thou shalt not be as the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corner of the streets, that they may be k of men. Verily I say unto l them, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward m thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not repetitions, n as the heathen, for they think that they shall be heard for o their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like p them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore q shall ye say: Our Father r which art in heaven, hallowed be s thy name.

10 Thy kingdom t come. Thy will be done in earth, u as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our v daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, w as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into x temptation, but deliver us y from evil: for thou art the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for z ever. Amen.

14 ¶ For if ye forgive men a their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men b their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover when ye fast, c be as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to fast. Verily I say unto thee, but unto thy reward, at thou, when thou fastest, at thine head, and wash thy

That thou appear not unto men, but unto thy Father which is secret; and thy Father which is in secret shall reward thee

5 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon u earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

6 But lay up for yourselves treasures in u heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

7 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

8 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

9 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

10 ¶ No man can serve two masters: x for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot y serve God and mammon.

11 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought z for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

12 Do not the fowls of the air: for they see not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father a feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

13 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

14 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

15 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

16 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow shall be cast into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

17 Therefore take no thought, t saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

18 For after all these things do the Gentiles seek: for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ, ending his sermon on t mount, reproveth rash judgment: forbiddeth to cast holy things down, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 enter in at the strait gate, &c.

JUDGE a not, that ye be r judged.

2 For with what judgment judge, ye shall be judged: a with what measure ye mete, b shall be measured to you again.

3 And why beholdest thou t mote that is in thy brother's e eye, but considerest not thy beam h which is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote c of thine eye; and, behold, a beam e is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast a the beam c out of thine own e eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶ Give not that which is b holy unto the dogs, neither d cast your pearls before swine, lest f they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 ¶ Ask, and it shall be g you: seek, and ye shall find: and it shall be opened unto e you.

8 For every one that assevereth: and he that so findeth: and to him that g it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, k know to give good gifts unto v your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven l give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to others: for as ye have done, so shall ye be done.

13 ¶ Enter ye in at the m strait gate: for wide is the n road that leadeth to destruction, and many o go in thereat.

14 ¶ Behold, I have p set before you the q narrow gate, which leadeth unto r life, and the wide gate, which leadeth unto s destruction.

15 ¶ For the gate is t strait, and the way is u narrow, which leadeth unto v life, and the way is w broad, which leadeth unto x destruction.

16 ¶ For the gate is y strait, and the way is z narrow, which leadeth unto a life, and the way is b broad, which leadeth unto c destruction.

and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell to no man; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, c for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, d beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy e that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, f and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, g no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That h many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the children of the kingdom i shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping k and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

14 ¶ And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, l and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When the even was come, they brought unto him many m that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our iniquities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

things unto them, behold, I send you out, and worshipping, My daughter is live, and followed

him his disciples.
And behold, a woman,
tormented with an issue of blood years, came behind and touched the hem of his garment.

And said within herself, If I only touch his garment, I

And he turned him about,

And he touched his eyes,

35 And Jesus went about all the

every sickness and every disease
among the people.

36 ¶ But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with com-

fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepforth labourers into his harvest.

CHAPTER X.

The apostles are sent to do miracles,
and to preach.

AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and heal
all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother:

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican;
James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus;

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas
Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go
not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans:
enter ye not:

6 But go rather to the lost sheep
of the house of Israel.

7 And, as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils:
freely ye have received, freely
give.

9 ¶ Provide ye neither gold, nor silver, nor furs, nor your purses.

10 For ye shall go for your journey, according to your word, according to the word of the Lord, for the kingdom of heaven is near.

11 ¶ And whosoever will, let him
take his staff, his bag, and his
shoes, but let him not have two
shirts, for he that hath a shirt, let
him sell it, and buy a pair of shoes.

12 ¶ And whosoever will, let him
take his staff, his bag, and his
shoes, but let him not have two
shirts, for he that hath a shirt, let
him sell it, and buy a pair of shoes.

13 ¶ And whosoever will, let him
take his staff, his bag, and his
shoes, but let him not have two
shirts, for he that hath a shirt, let
him sell it, and buy a pair of shoes.

14 ¶ And whosoever will, let him
take his staff, his bag, and his
shoes, but let him not have two
shirts, for he that hath a shirt, let
him sell it, and buy a pair of shoes.

15 ¶ And whosoever will, let him
take his staff, his bag, and his
shoes, but let him not have two
shirts, for he that hath a shirt, let
him sell it, and buy a pair of shoes.

16 ¶ And whosoever will, let him
take his staff, his bag, and his
shoes, but let him not have two
shirts, for he that hath a shirt, let
him sell it, and buy a pair of shoes.

17 ¶ And whosoever will, let him
take his staff, his bag, and his
shoes, but let him not have two
shirts, for he that hath a shirt, let
him sell it, and buy a pair of shoes.

18 ¶ And whosoever will, let him
take his staff, his bag, and his
shoes, but let him not have two
shirts, for he that hath a shirt, let
him sell it, and buy a pair of shoes.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return k to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake l off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, it m shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise n as serpents, and o harmless as doves.

17 But beware p of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge r you in their synagogues;

18 And ye s shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 But t when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak; for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee v ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not o have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple w is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they x have called the master of the house o Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household!

26 Fear them not therefore: for y there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

28 And fear z not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But a the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him b will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever c shall deny me before men, him I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I d came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man e against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

36 And f a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He g that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He h that findeth his life, shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 ¶ He i that receiveth you, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

41 He k that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAPTER XI.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 The testimony of Christ concerning John. 20 Christ upbraids the unthankfulness and ingratitude of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum, etc.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence, to teach, and to preach in their cities.

2 Now a when John had heard of the things that Jesus had done,

22 But I say unto you, It's shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shall be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That n it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ At v that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 All things x are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth y any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees' blindness concerning the breach of the sabbath: 9 he healeth the withered hand, &c.

A T that time a Jesus went on the sabbath-day through the corn; and his disciples were un-hungered, and began to pluck b the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do c upon the sabbath-day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did d when he was an hungred, and they that were with him?

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the show-bread, e which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only f for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, g how that on the sabbath-days the priests in the temple h profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 I say unto you, That in this case is greater than the law?

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath-day.

9 And when he was departed thence he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath-days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth: and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry: neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation: and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan, cast out Satan, he is divided against himself: how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, he shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for by the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account of thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign of thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The

22 He also that received seed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, r choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it: which also beareth fruit, s and bringeth forth, some an hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another t parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good u seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest v I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to w burn them: but gather the wheat x into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a y grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, z so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three a measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; a and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, b saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept c secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house; and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The field is the world; a the good seed are the children of the kingdom; b but the tares are the children of the wicked c one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; d and the reapers are the angels. e

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; f so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom g all things that offend, and h them which do iniquity;

42 And i shall cast them into a furnace of fire; there j shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then shall the righteous shine k forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure l hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth m all that he hath, and buyeth n that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchantman, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought o it.

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered p of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come q and, r sever the wicked from among the just.

50 And s shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore, every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure t new and old.

53 ¶ And

John Baptist beheaded.

MATTHEW, XIV.

Christ walketh on the sea

when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And as when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, inasmuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

1 Herod's opinion of Christ. 3 John Baptist beheaded. 15 Five thousand fed.

At that time a Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus.

2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works I do show forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came and took and buried it.

desert place apart: and when people had heard thereof, they loved him on foot out of the city. 14 And Jesus went forth, and in a great multitude, and was mo with compassion to toward them and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was even his disciples came to him, say This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

18 He said, Bring them hither unto me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass: and took the five loaves and the four fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained two baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves, for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And as when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit, and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him, saying, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the waves boisterous, he was afraid, and began to sink: and cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately s Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore doubtst thou? t

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. u

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. v

34 ¶ And w when they were gone over, they came into the land of Genesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and many y as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER XV.

2 God's commandments, and man's traditions. 10 What defileth a man.

THEN a came to Jesus scribes, and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? b

For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother. And he that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, c It is a gift, by what means thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, d ye shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites! well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that

8 Which when Jesus perceived,
he said unto them, e O ye of little selves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet understand, nei-

11 How is it that ye do not understand, that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine h of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom i do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, k Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some, Elias; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, l Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said
unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh m and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but
n my father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter; o and p upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates q of hell shall not prevail
r against it.

19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven:
and whatsoever thou s shalt bind
on earth, shall be bound in heaven:
and whatsoever thou shalt loose
on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.
20 Then t charged he his disciples, that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ From u that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, v Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be done unto

thee.

23 And he said unto him, Satan, w

get thee behind me,
thou art an offence
unto me: for thou saithest not the things which the Lord saith,
but the things of men.

24 From that time forth
Jesus began to shew unto his disciples, that he must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

25 Then Peter took him,
and began to rebuke
him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be done
unto thee.

26 And he said unto him, Satan, get thee
behind me, thou art
an offence unto me:
for thou saithest not
the things which the Lord saith, but the things of men.

thou art an offence unto me : w for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any x man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For y whosoever will save his life shall lose it : and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul ? or z what shall a man give in exchange for his soul ?

27 For a the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels, and b then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, There c be some standing here, which shall not taste d of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ. 14 He healeth the lunatic.

AN after a six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them : and his face did shine as the sun, b and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And b he hold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias, talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here : if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles ; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them : and c behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom d I am well pleased : hear e ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard f it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched g them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why h then say the scribes that Elias must first come ?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one q of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover if thy r brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he s shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee,
then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses t every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church,
let him u be unto thee as an hea-
then man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever v ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it w shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together x in my name,
there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive y him?
till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but,
Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account z of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand 1 talents:

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, a and his wife, and children,
and all that he had, and payment
to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and 2 worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me,
and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, b and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out,
and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him c an hun-

drod 3 pence : and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have c patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not : but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, d I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me :

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee ?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So e likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER XIX.

2 Christ healeth the sick. 3 Answereth the Pharisees touching divorce-ment. 16 How to attain everlasting life.

AND it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed a from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan :

2 And great multitudes followed him : and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause ?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he b which made them at the beginning, made them male and female,

5 And said, For c this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife : and they twain shall be one flesh ?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What d therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why e did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away ?

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives : but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever f shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery : and whose marieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All we cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb : and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men : and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. A He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray : and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer i little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me : for of such k is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ And behold, one came, and said unto him, Good Master, what good l thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life ?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good l there is none good but one, that is God : but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which Jesus said, Thou shalt not do : murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not covet, Thou shalt not bear false witness.

19 Honour thy father and thy mother : and, Thou n shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up : what lack I yet ?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go o and sell thy house, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come and follow p me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful : for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall q hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven.

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with r God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then answered s Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, t and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye w also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And v every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundred-fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 But w many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAPTER XX.

Of the labourers in the vineyard, etc.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, a which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny b a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place,

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, d Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and e give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received,

17 ¶ And o Jesus going up Jerusalem, took the twelve p disciples apart in the way, and said t to them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests & unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And p shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge and to crucify him; and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ Then r came to him the mother of Zebedee's children, with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the s baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, Yea, we are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them u him, and said, Ye v know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but w whosoever will be called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

3 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

4 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER XXI.

Christ rideth into Jerusalem on an ass, &c.

AND as when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose
them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them: and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, b saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Zion, c Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass,
and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them.

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes,
and they set thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way:
others cut down branches of olive trees, and of hyssop, and made them as beds in the way.

9 And the multitude that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed art thou that comest in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest!

miserably destroye those wicked

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The v
stone which the builders rejected,
the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes!

43 Therefore say I unto you, The

from you, and given to a nation i bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall k on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it I will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and they perceived that he spake of

them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they m took him

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The marriage of the king's son. 9
The calling of the Gentiles. 11
The wedding garment. 21 Tribute ought to be paid to Cesar. 23
Christ silenceth the Sadducees.

AND Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables,
and said,

2 The a kingdom of heaven w
like unto a certain king, which made a b marriage for his son,

3 And c sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are hidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light d of it, and went their ways, one to his farm,
another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated e them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof,
he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed f those murderers, and burned up their
city.

8 Then saith he to his servants,
The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy;

g he h therefore into the highway, and whosoever he shall find,

both bad and good : and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment :

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment ? And he was l speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him m away, and cast him into outer darkness : n there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For o many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ Then p went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man : for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou ? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not ?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites !

19 Show me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a l penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and 2 superscription ?

21 They say unto him, Cesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render q therefore unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's ; and unto God r the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The saine day came to him the Sadducees, which t say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If u a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren : and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother :

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the 3 seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven ? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not e knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

35 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels w of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I x am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob ? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished y at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then z one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law.

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, b Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments c hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

42 Saying, What d think ye of Christ ? whose son is he ? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him e Lord, saying,

44 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son ?

46 And f no man was able to answer him a word ; neither g durst any man, (from that day forth,) ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Of the scribes and Pharisees' good doctrine, but evil examples of h.
31 The destruction of Jerusalem foretold.

WHEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The a scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat :

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do ; but do not ye after their works : for b they say, and do not.

4 For they bind heavy burdens, c and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders ; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But d all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments.

6 And f love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues.

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But g be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But h he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And i whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ But j unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Wo unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind! for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift, that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools, and blind! for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tith of mint and anise and cummin and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides! which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee! cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whitened sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous.

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophet.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 ¶ Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 That c upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.^a

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 The destruction of the temple foretold. 29 Of Christ's coming to judgment.

AND a Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There b shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? c

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For g nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then h shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill i you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be k offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And l many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive m many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax n cold.

13 But o he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be p preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye, therefore, shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And r wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath-day:

21 For s then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but t for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then u if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For v there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and w shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, (if x it were possible,) they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For whosoever z the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall a the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens b shall be shaken.

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man c in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they d shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

31 And he shall send his angels e with a great sound of a trumpet; and they shall gather together his elect f from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn g a parable of the fig tree: When his branch is h tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near.

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that i is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

39 And knew not, until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ Watch ye therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of;

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered, and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch ye therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time, the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.^k

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 The destruction of the temple foretold. 29 Of Christ's coming to judgment.

AND as Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There b shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things b? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?^c

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my e name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And when ye shall hear of wars^f and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For g nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then h shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill i you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be k offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive m many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax n cold.

13 But o he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be p preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye, therefore, shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken q of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee: into the mountains:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And r wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath-day:

21 For s then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but t for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then u if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For v there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and w shall show great signs and wonders: insomuch that, (if x it were possible), they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shmeth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever z the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall a the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens b shall be shaken.

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man c in heaven: at d then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they d shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great e glory.

31 And he shall send his angels f with a great sound of a trumpet; and they shall gather together his elect f from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn g a parable of the fig tree: When his branch is g tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

trimmed their lamps.

Not so; lest there be not enough
for us and you: but go ye rather l

10 And while m they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they
that were ready went in with him

30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them,
All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, o I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, p I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then q cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My r soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther,
and fell on his face, and s prayed,
saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup t pass from me:
nevertheless u not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch, v and pray, that ye w enter not into temptation; s the spirit y indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O
my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, a Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, b saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed c him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, d Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for e all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that g thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out, as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures h of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death:

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, ut found they none. At the k last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This j fellow said / I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou no-

73 And after a while came w him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged o Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him
the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted
a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee
before him, and mocked p him, saying, Hail, king of the Jews!

30 And they spit q upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on
the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led r him away to crucify
him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,

34 ¶ They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled s with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots:
that it might be fulfilled which was spoken u by the prophet, They parted my garments among them,
and upon my vesture did they cast
lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head, his accusation written, THIS IS JE-SUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves v crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they that passed by reviled him, wagging w their heads.

est the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking x him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God: let y him deliver him now, if he will have him; for he said, z I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness a over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, b my God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with c vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, the veil d of the temple was rent e in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And f the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which g slept, arose,

53 And came out of the graves h after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now i when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there, (beholding afar off,) which k followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 When l the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth.

60 And m laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate.

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver n said, while he was yet alive, After o three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and p steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing q the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Christ's resurrection declared: 9 he appeareth to the women, and to his disciples.

IN a the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene b and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there c was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His c countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for fear of him the women did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered d and said unto the women, Fear not: for e I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. f Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell g his disciples that he is risen, as he said.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail: And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and showed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers,

13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a about his loins; and he did eat and wild honey;

water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

9 And it came to pass in the days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit, like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 Now as he walked by the sea, he saw Simon and his brother casting a net into the sea: (for they were

Jesus said unto

Com and I will make you
of men.

18 they forsook
their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he was gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship
mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And they went into Capernaum;
and straightway on the sabbath-day
he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean
spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of
him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried, with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, what thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue,
they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came, and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a

35 And Simon and they that were

37 And when they had found him,
they said unto him, All men seek for
thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore I came forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him,
If thou wilt, thou canst make me
clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed
from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him,
and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded,
for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

lawful to do good on the sabbath-days, or to do evil? to save life, c or to kill? But they held their pence.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the 2 hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the d Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself

some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And k when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto l you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, m all these things are done in parables:

12 That n seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The sower o soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the wayside, where the word is sown: but when they have heard, Satan cometh p immediately, and taketh away q the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root: r in themselves, and so endure but s for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately t they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the u cares of this world, and the deceitfulness v of riches, and the w lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. x

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive y it, and bring forth fruit, y some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For s there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 ¶ And he said unto them, Take heed how ye hear: for whosoever

26 ¶ And he said, So d is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; e first f the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is g brought forth, immediately he g putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It h is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater i than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as k they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And l there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, m carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And n the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? o how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared p exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the air and the sea q obey him?

CHAPTER V.

Christ delivereth the possessed of the legion of devils: 13 they enter into the swine.

AND a they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee, by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea; they were about two thousand; and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it, told him how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, a behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet.

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered; but rather grew worse.

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment:

28 For she said, If I may touch his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus immediately knowing in himself that virtue was gone out of him, turned himself in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman feared, trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue a house certain which said, My daughter is dead: so why troublest thou the Master, saying this?

36 As soon as he heard this, he word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save a Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged b them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ is contemned of his countrymen. 27 John Baptist beheaded.

AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country, and his disciples follow him.

2 And a when the sabbath-day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From b whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, c and Joseph, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, e A prophet is not without honour, but a his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And f he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled g because of their unbelief. And h he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ And i he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two, and gave them power over unclean spirits.

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no l money in their purse:

9 But he shod k with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, in what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake m off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom<sup>2</sup> and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many a devils, and anointed with oil p many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And q king Herod heard of him, (for his name was spread abroad) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

15 Others r said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead:

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife, for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful s for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod feared t John, knowing that he was a just man and a holy, and u observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his v birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, w and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give z thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give z thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask?

Five thousand fed.

And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And z the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest awhile: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because a they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And b when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, this is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he c commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any ^a man have ears to hear,
let him hear.

17 And when ^l he was entered into the house from the people,
his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also?
Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth
into the man, it cannot defile him:

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but ^m into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats!

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth
the man.

21 For from ⁿ within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts,
adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, ^o covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ And from ^o thence he arose,
and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he ^p could not be hid.

25 For a ^q certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a ^r Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for ^q it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered, and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the ^r dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For ^s this saying go thy way: the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone ^t out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And again, ^u departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech: and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he ^v spit, and touched his tongue;

The people miraculously fed.

34 And looking u up to heaven, he x sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway y his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it.

37 And were beyond measure astonished, x saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh a both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously: 23 he giveth a blind man his sight, etc.

IN those a days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion b on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence c can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, d and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were e filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway g he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees h came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not ye? neither understand I have ye your heart ye hardened?

18 Having eyes, n see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember so?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him, if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am? 28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

MARK, X.

The Pharisees question him.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up: and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee: and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him: and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and said unto them, If any man desire to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receive me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbid him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly steech evil of me.

know not what ye ask:
drink of the cup that I and be baptized with that I am baptized with.

39 And Jesus said

Bartimeus restored to sight.

Ye y shall indeed drink of the cup s; that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized :

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.^a

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye o know that they which i are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but c whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but d to minister, and to e give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And f they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more y a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy h on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he i calleth thee.

50 And he, casting k away his garment, rose and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy l faith hath 2 made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need b of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let him go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and c he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed d is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed e be the kingdom e of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest f.

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the evening was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 ¶ And h on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing i but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And k they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrow the tables of the money-changers, l and the seats of them that sold doves:

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance, saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus, answering, saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, what g things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, r if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But s if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem: and t as he was walking in the temple, there came to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By u what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one q question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? Answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for v all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We w cannot tell. And Jesus answering, saith unto them, Neither do I x tell you by what authority I do these things.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A a certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the b fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, c and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and d many others; beating some, and killing e some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he f sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and h destroy the husbandmen, and will i give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture? The k stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And l they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And m they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in n his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a p penny; that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesar's.

them. Render to Cesar a the things that are Cesar's, and to God o the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then p come unto him the Sadducees, which say q there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote r unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother s should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying, left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus, answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage; but t are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, u I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye v therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ And w one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments x, x Hear, O Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: This y is the first commandment.

31 And the second z is like, z namely this, Thou y shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and z there is none other but he:

36 For David himself said by d the Holy Ghost, The e LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

43 And he called l unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That l this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

tone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 But take heed to yourselves: or they shall deliver you up to council; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, he shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the domination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let him that be in Judea flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house.

child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, Lo, he is there: believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But ye take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light.

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 A conspiracy against Christ: 3 a woman poureth ointment on his head: 10 Judas selleth, 43 and betrayeth him: 56 Peter thrice denieth him.

AFTER two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And a being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of 1 spikenard, very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For b ye have the poor with you always, and whosoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And c Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray d him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him e money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of f unleavened bread, when they 3 killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, *G*o ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

house, The Master h saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat i the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found k as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth l with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippest with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but we to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good m were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And n as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, o eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And when they had sung an 4 hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, r I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But s after that I am risen, I will go before you unto Galilee.

29 But t Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That u day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 And v they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here while I shall pray.

Jesus is betrayed.

MARK, XIV.

Peter denieth him

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed so that if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, x Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee: take away this cup from me: nevertheless y not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation: The z spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the a hour is come: behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And b immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude c with swords and staves, from the chief priests d and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying Whomever I shall kiss, e that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, f master: and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures g must be fulfilled.

50 ¶ Then all deride him, and deride him, and say, h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z aa ab ac ad ae af ag ah ai aj ak al am an Jesus brought before Pilate.

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one n.
70 And he n in. And a little after, n and by said again to Pilate, n you art one of them: n Galilean, n and thy speech n shal thereto.
71 But he n o curse and to swear, saying, n v not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And n when he thought thereon, he wept.
CHAPTER XV.

1 Jesus brought bound and accused before Pilate, 15 is delivered to be crucified: 17 he is crowned with thorns, 27 hanged between two thieves, and is honourably buried.

AND straightway in the n the chief priests held a n tation n with the elders and the whole council, and Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he, answering, said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? Behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus n yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now n at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done?

He is insulted and crucified.

And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head;

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and, bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour; and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buiddest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests, mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see, and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land unto the ninth hour.

The centurion's confession.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave it him to drink, saying, Let alone: let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off; among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joseph, and Salome;

41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 ¶ And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead; and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James beheld where he was laid.

Christ riseth from the dead.

Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away, for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue; neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing

6 And they were both righteous h before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances i of the Lord, blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was k to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without, l at the time of incense.

The prophecy of

LUKE, I.

Elisabeth, and of Mary.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days, his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto the city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

27 To a virgin b espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, c the Lord d is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou e shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth son, and shalt call his name ESUS.

32 He shall be great, f and shall e called the Son g of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne h of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, how shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called k the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.

37 For l with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid m of the Lord; be it unto me as thou hast said.

Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed p art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord q should come to me?

44 For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she r that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, My r soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced s in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low t estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me u blessed.

49 For he that is mighty v hath done to me great things; w and holy x is his name.

50 And y his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 He z hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the a proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He b hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He c hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, in d remembrance of his mercy;

55 As he spake e to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came, that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had showed great mercy upon her; and they f rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John.

And they said unto her, There of thy kindred that is called name.

The prophecy of Zacharias.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and increased in God.

65 And fear came on all that heard, and they said, What shall this be? For all these sayings were heard abroad throughout all the land of Judaea.

66 And all they that heard them, and them upon their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation in for us, in the house of his servant David;

70 And as he spake n by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved o from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to p remember his holy covenant;

73 The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear,

75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all t the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go n before the face of the Lord, to prepare his way;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, b by the remission e of their sins.

78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the day spring from on high hath visited us,

79 To give light to them that sit in darkness, and a in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel.

free from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Beth'lehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David.)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she a brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling-clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping 2 watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you b is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling-clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel c a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, as on earth peace, d good will towards men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, 3 the shepherds came one to another, Let us now go and see this thing, which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen 4, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And 5 as they departed

Christ is circumcised.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called ESUS, which was so named of the angel, before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should see the Christ before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that thou mayest know that many hearts may be divided.

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phineas, of the tribe of Aser; she was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years after her widowhood.

37 And she was in the temple every day, and did testify of the child.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

The preaching of John.

tion Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas a and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And b he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance c for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, d saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And e all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come!

8 Bring forth, therefore, fruits f worthy of repentance; and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every g tree, therefore, which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He h that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also publicans i to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact k no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, l Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content m with your n wages.

15 And as the people were o in expectation, and all men p mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ or not;

28 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And  $\alpha$  many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

29 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the  $\beta$  brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down  $\gamma$  headlong.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with  $\alpha$  power.

33 ¶ And  $\beta$  in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying,  $\gamma$  Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth! art thou come to destroy us? I  $\delta$  know thee who thou art: the  $\epsilon$  Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and  $\zeta$  they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And  $\eta$  Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And

AND  $\alpha$  it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch  $\beta$  out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon, answering, said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing:  $\gamma$  nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And  $\delta$  when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help  $\epsilon$  them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw  $\zeta$  it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

26 And they were all amazed ; and s they glorified God, and t were fill-strange things to-day.

27 ¶ And s after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom : and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house : and v
there was a great company of publi-cans and of others that sat down
with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink
with publicans and sinners ?

31 And Jesus, answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician ; w but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners x to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him,
Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees ;
but y thine eat and drink ?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them ?

35 But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast z in those days.

36 ¶ And a he spake also a para-piece of a new garment upon an old : if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not b with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles : else the new wine will burst the bottles and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles, and both are pre-

CHAPTER VI.

1 Touching the ears of corn that were plucked by the disciples on the sabbath. 13 Christ chooseth
the twelve, 17 healeth, 20 and preacheth.

AND a it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first,
that he went through the cornfields ; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees

said unto them, Why do ye that which b is not lawful to do on the sabbath-days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what c David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the show-bread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful d to eat, but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 And e it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue, and taught; and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath-day, f that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, g and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath-days h to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking i round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed k one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And l it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain m to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called n unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, n whom also he named apostles;

14 Simon, (whom o he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes,

16 And Judas p the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and q a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell: h and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The centurion's faith; 10 Christ raiseth the widow's son. 24 Christ's testimony of John. 36 Mary Magdene anointeth Christ's feet.

NOW a when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear b unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth c our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble d not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say e in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers: and I say unto f one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bore him

The widow's son raised.

stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, r Arise.

15 And he that was dead q sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet h is risen up among us; and, That h God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 And the disciples of John showed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And k John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? i or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? i or look we for another?

21 And in the same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus, answering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell m John what things ye have seen and heard: how a that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor o the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended p in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? r Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, s Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified h God, being baptized u with the baptism of John.

Mary anoints Christ's feet.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers h rejected the counsel o of God i against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Wherunto o then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came, neither eating bread nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The g Son of man is come eating and drinking: and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But z wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And a one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, b when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if c he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus, answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred o pence, and the other fifty:

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me, therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly f judged.

44 And he turned to the woman and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My g head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven: for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who h is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, i Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Women minister unto Christ. 4 The parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle. 25 The legion of devils cast out.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and showing the good tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him;

2 And a certain woman, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils.

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A d sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way-side; and it was trodden e down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; f and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; g and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprung up, and bare fruit an hundred-fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What ought this parable to be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables: that seeing h they might not see, and hearing i they might not understand.

11 Now (the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.)

12 Those by the way-side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with g cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit r to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which, in an honest and good heart, s having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with t patience.

16 ¶ Now man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For v nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take ye heed therefore how ye hear: for x whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he h seemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then y came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come to him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certains, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now z it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish! Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they, being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And b they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high! I beseech thee, torment c me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them: and he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, e and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him g to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be with h him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, i and show how great things k God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And, behold, there l came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went, the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent m all her living upon physicians, n neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and o immediately her issue of blood stanch'd.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue p is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, q she came trembling, r and falling down before him, she declared unto him, before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole: go in peace.

49 ¶ While s he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler t of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: u believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him v scornfully, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished; but he charged y them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Christ sendeth out his apostles: 7 Herod is desirous to see him. 12 Christ feedeth five thousand: 23 his transfiguration, &c.

THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take b nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake c off the very dust from your feet, for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now Herod d the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he e desired to see him.

10 ¶ And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place, belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew f it, followed him: and he received g them, and spake unto them of the kingdom h of God, and healed them that had need i of healing.

12 ¶ And k when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert l place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should and buy meat for all this people

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make m them sit down fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes; and looking to heaven, he blessed them; and brake, and gave to the disciples set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up fragments that remained to the twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it o came to pass, as was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked the saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But why say ye that I am? Peter, q answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them and commanded r them to tell no man that thing.

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And he said to s them all, any man will come after me, him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, I will save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For whosoever t shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this present generation, what shall he be ashamed of when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I u tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And v it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the face of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Elias and Moses.

Christ healeth the lunatic.

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy a with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, y and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is z good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing a what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This b is my beloved Son: hear c him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept d close, and told no man in those days d any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And it e came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine f only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again: and, bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out: and they could not.

41 And Jesus, answering, said, O faithless h and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare *h*m. And Jesus rebuked h the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed i at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,

44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for m the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But o they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ Then p there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him.

48 And said unto them, Whosoever g shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for h he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And John answered and said, Master, we i saw one casting out devils in thy name: and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for t he that is not against us, is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received u up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, v to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was w as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw *th*is, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command x him to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

55 But he turned and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For x the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And y it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer z me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee: but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER X.

1 The seventy disciples appointed to be humble. 31 Martha reprehended Mary for these things the Lord reprehended about seventy also.

The seventy sent forth

his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, b The harvest truly is great, but the c labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry d neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and e salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace f be to this house.

6 And if the son g of peace be there, your peace shall rest g upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for h the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house i to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat k such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are there-in, and say unto them, The l kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 m Even m the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for o if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which p art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust q down to hell.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me; and he that despiseth you, despiseth me; and r he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld s sauciness as lightning fall from heaven.

19 t And I give unto you power

21 ¶ In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth; that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 ¶ All things x are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that z many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what a shall I do to inherit b eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he, answering, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy d neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and e thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to justify f himself, said unto Jesus, g And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus, answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, he passed by h on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked i on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, k as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had com-

akest thou, was neighbour unto

And he said, He that showed to him, Go, and do thou likewise.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they ent, that he entered into a cerain village: and a certain woman, amed Martha, p received him into er house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat a at Jesus'
feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? I bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part,
which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ teacheth to pray, and that instantly: 14 he casteth out a dumb devil: 29 he reproveth the Pharisees scribes, and lawyers.

AND it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place,
when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in
earth.

3 Give us this day our daily
bread:

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea, rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed, therefore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee brought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down

38 And when the Pharisee it, he marvelled that he had first washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the plate; but your inward part is of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, things are clean unto you.

42 But wo be unto you, Pharisees, for ye tithe mint and rue and manner of herbs, and pass of judgment and the love of God these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Wo unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Wo unto you also ye lawyers, for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Wo unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow of the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute.

50 That the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation:

51 From the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: Verily I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 Wo unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: in ye enter not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to seek to kill him: but he

CHAPTER XII.

1 To avoid hypocrisy. 13 To beware of covetousness. 42 The faithful and wise steward.

In a the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For b there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you my c friends, d Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do:

5 But I will forwarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, e Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess f before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth g me before men shall be denied before the angels h of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not i be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take k ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach l you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me. m

14 And he said unto him, Man, n who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: o for a man's life p consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will q I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, and drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool: this night r thy t soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided t u?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, v and is not rich u toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take x no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: y for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have store-house nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies, how they grow; they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and tomorrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, z neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father hath these things ready to give unto you.

31 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Christ preacheth repentance. 6
The fruitless fig tree. 21 The strow gate.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the a Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled b with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answered, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay; but except ye repent, c ye shall all likewise
perish.

4 Of those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and ab-sank ye that they were?

Christ preacheth repentance.

nens above all men that dwell in Jerusalem?

6 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; A d certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruits thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; f why cambereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone g this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou h shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity: eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed m on the sabbath-day, and said unto the people, There n are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath-day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite! o doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose p his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter q of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: r and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, Unto t what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

Da. 3. 21. Mt. 3. 12.

30 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

24 ¶ Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, v I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once w the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, y Lord, open unto us: and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence you are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he z shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence you are; depart from me, all ye workers a of iniquity.

28 There b shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 And they c shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And, behold, there d are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, e Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless, I must walk to-day, and to-morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 O Jerusalem, g Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth her chickens, and thou wouldest not.

35 And now, will I gather thee together, and will build thy ruins, and will lay thy foundations.

36 And when I shall build thee, thou shalt say, Blessed be he that buildeth the ruins of Jerusalem: for he shall not lay a stone upon a stone, nor shall he build upon a wall.

37 For thou hast said, Blessed be he that shall eat the bread of the daughter of Jerusalem, and shall drink of the cup of the daughter of Jerusalem, and shall say, Blessed be he that drinketh of the waters of the well of the daughter of Jerusalem.

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassador, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 ¶ Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill: but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The parable of the lost sheep: 8 of the piece of silver: 11 of the prodigal son.

THE Pharisees drew a near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need not repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

11 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land: and he began to be in want.

12 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

13 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

14 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

15 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee.

16 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

17 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

18 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

19 But the father said to his servants, Bring a forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

20 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat and be merry:

21 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

22 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came nigh to the house, he heard mirth and dancing.

23 And he called one of his servants, and asked what meant.

24 And he said unto brother is come: and hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him sound.

25 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came he out, and intended to destroy the house.

26 And he answered, saying to his father, Lo, these many years I have served thee, whether thou gavest me at any time thy portion, and yet thou hast not given me one thing: and yet thou wast wont to call me thy son, and yet thou hast not given me one thing.

CHAPTER XVI.

Of the unjust steward. 14 The hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees re-proved, &c.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take by bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of his world are in their generation wiser than the b children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the unrighteousness; that, when ye all, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ Noe servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The k law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever m putteth away his wife and marryeth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marryeth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And p in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house

The power of faith.

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him. They have Moses and the prophets: let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, Ife they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 To avoid occasions of offence, 3 to forgive one another. 5 The power of faith, etc.

THEN said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come; but wo unto him through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, Ife ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant ploughing, or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go, and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus, answering, said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not a found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here, or, Lo there! for, behold thy kingdom of God is within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when it shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, See there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven, so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But a first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the house-top, and his son in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that

16 But Jesus called them to him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall receive one of these little children in my name, he shall receive me. And I tell you, whosoever shall receive one of these little children, he shall receive me.

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments. Do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Lackest thou one thing? that thou hast, and distributest to the poor, and thou shalt have life: and thou shalt be perfect.

23 And when he heard these things, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, Hardly shall he enter into the kingdom of God.

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard these things, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, who shall not receive more in this present time, and in the world to come, life everlasting.

fortunate widow. 9 The Pharisee and publican. 15 Children brought to Christ. 28 All to be left for the gospel's sake.

he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men should always be praying, and not to faint.

saying, there was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine Adversary.

And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man:

Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

And the Lord said, Hear what he unjust judge saith.

And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves, that they were righteous, and despised others:

Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

And he said, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered t unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully intreated, and spit on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And n they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the wayside, begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him.

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying a God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

AND Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus, who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore-tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zaccheus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste down, and received him

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That d he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore g him four-fold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But n his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful, o in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

22 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

23 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

24 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

25 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

26 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

27 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

28 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

29 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: I have laid up thy pound, lest thou comest and take it from me:

thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That e unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which, at your entering, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen.

38 Saying, Blessed x be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: y peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he said unto them, Beware of the 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side.

44 And d shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee: and they e shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because f thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 And g he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought:

46 Saying unto them, It is h written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught k daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him.

48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people l were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Christ silenceth those who questioned his authority. 9 The parable of the vineyard. 27 The Sadducees confuted, etc.

AND a it came to pass, that on b one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him, with the elders.

2 And spoke unto him, saying, Tell us b what authority thou doest these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for c they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable. A certain man planted a vineyard, and d forth to husbandmen, and went to a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season, he sent his servants to the husbandmen

Of giving tribute to Cesar.

they should give him of the fruit f of the vineyard; but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and intreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: g come, let's us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. i And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken: but l on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that m they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God n truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Show me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held o their peace.

27 ¶ Then p came to him certain of the Sadducees, q which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote r unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the women died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy s to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither t can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; u and are the v children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed w at the bush, when he callest the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living; for x all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And y he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith z in the book of Psalms, the LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand.

43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of a all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings c in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at home;

and devour widows' houses, a show e make long pray- same shall receive great-

are in the countries enter therein.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all t things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But wo unto them u that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days ! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations : and Jeru-

the Gentiles be fulfilled.

the sea and the waves roaring ;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth : for the y powers of heaven
shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming z in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift

29 And b he spake to them a par-

30 When they now shoot forth, ye

31 So likewise ye, when ye see

32 Verily I say unto you, This all be fulfilled.

36 Watch g ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted h worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before i the Son of man.

37 And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount l that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ : Satan persuades Judas to betray him.

NOW a the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the passover.

2 And b the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then c entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad and covenanted d to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them e in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then came the day e of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare f it?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good-man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until g it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide h it among yourselves:

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And h he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake i it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me: as the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: k but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And l there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But m ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? but n I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you o a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me:

30 That p ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging q the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired: r to have you, that he may sift s you as wheat:

before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me. And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, Behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed.

42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And he being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus, to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves!

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crew, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he saw unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his mouth.

CHAPTER XXIII.

A. D. 33.

2 Jesus is accused before Pilate, 7 and sent to Herod: 11 he is mocked and sent back to Pilate: 25 he is delivered to be crucified, etc.

AND a the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse b him, saying, We found this fellow c perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying that hee himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no g fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, h saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belounged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for k he was desirous to see him of a long season, because l he had heard many things of him; and m he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but n he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, o and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous p robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day Pilate and q Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people; and, behold, I, r having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man, touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the year.)

18 And they cried out all of them saying, Away with this man, release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for whom was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil have I done? I have found no capital death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant, loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the will of them and of the chief prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your selves and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; to the hills, Cover us.

31 For a if they do these things in the dry, what shall they do in the wrath?

32 And there were also with him malefactors, led with him to death.

33 And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jesus to himself, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.

55 And the women s also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and t prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath-day, according u to the commandment.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Christ's resurrection declared to the women. 13 He appeareth, 51
and ascendeth.

NOW a upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with
them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, b two men stood by them
in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye t the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake c unto you
when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words.

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and d Joanna, and Mary, the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales e and they believed them not.

12 Then f arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 And, behold, two g of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about three-score furlongs:

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed h together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near,
and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden,
that they should not know him.

name was said unto him, Art thou stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all
the people:

20 And now the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this,
to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished,
which were early at the sepulchre;
23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw
not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe
all that the prophets have spoken!
26 Ought not Christ to have suffered those things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and time ; the z only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this a is the record of John. when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou ?

20 And he confessed, and denied not ; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then ? Art thou Elias ? And he saith, I am not. Art thou 2 that prophet ? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou ? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself ?

23 He b said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet c Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then,
if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias,
neither that prophet ?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water ; but there standeth one d among you, whom ye know not :

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's
latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Be-thabara e beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb f of God, which taketh g away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me : for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not : but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode
upon him.

33 And I knew him not : but that sent me to baptize with wa-

the same said unto me. Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth i with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples:

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the 5 tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona; thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses i in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold a new Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

CHAPTER II.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, he departeth into Capernaum.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. And both Jesus was called his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when the wine wanted, the mother of Jesus saith unto them, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, What have I to do with thee, hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of them, containing two or three apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Water-pots with water. A filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast.

9 And they tasted the water that was wine, and knew not whence (but the servants which were there knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom.

10 And saith unto him, Why at the beginning dost thou set me wine; and when men have drunk, then that which is better thou hast kept the good until now.

11 This beginning of miracle Jesus in Cana of Galilee, manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and they continued there a few days.

13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 And found there in the temple that sold oxen and sheep, and the changers of money.

Necessity of regeneration.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee,
Ye must be born i again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth:
so k is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee,
We i speak that we do know and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly
things?

13 And k no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as l Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever m believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 ¶ For God n so loved the world,
that he gave his only begotten Son,
that whosoever believeth in him
should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God o sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world;
but that the world through him
might be saved.

18 ¶ He p that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already,
because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son
of God.

19 And this is the condemnation,
that light q is come into the world,
and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil
hateth the light, neither r cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be z reproved.

21 But he that doeth s truth
cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought t in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried
them.

John's witness of Christ.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest y witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men z come to him.

27 John answered and said, A man a can b receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, b I am not the Christ, but that I c am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride d is the bridegroom: but the friend e of the bridegroom which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: f this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above f is above all: he g that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man h receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony hath set i to his seal that God is true.

34 For he k whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure l unto him.

35 The Father loveth the Son, m and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He n that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath o of God abideth on him.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and revealeth himself unto her: 27 his disciples marvel. 31 Christ's zeal for God's glory.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized a more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs b go thrigh Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave c to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

Christ reveals

7 There cometh a woman to draw water: unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples away unto the city to buy bread.)

9 Then saith the woman unto him, How thou, being a Jew, askest me, which am a woman, for the Jews have iniquities d with the Samaritans? 10 Jesus answered her, If thou knewest

God, and who it is that thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldest have asked of him: would have given thee water.

11 The woman saith, Sir, thou hast nothing to and the well is deep: for then hast thou that livest? 12 Art thou greater than Jacob, which gave and drank thereof his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered her, Whosoever drinketh water shall thirst again.

14 But whosoever g drinketh the water that I shall shall never thirst; but that I shall give him, him i a well of water j into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith, Sir, give me this water, that I not, neither come hither.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Thy husband, and come.

17 The woman answers, I have no husband.

18 For thou hast husbands: and he whom thou hast is not thy husband.

19 The woman saith, Sir, I perceive k that I prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain: l and ye say, Jerusalem m is the place of worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Believe me, the hour cometh n when ye shall neither in this nor yet at Jerusalem, worship.

22 Ye worship ye what: we know what we worship: o for salvation p is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh q when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 But the hour cometh when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

25 But the hour cometh when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

26 But the hour cometh when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

27 But the hour cometh when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

28 But the hour cometh when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

Christ's disciples marvel.

worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, Is that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman; yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard and know that this Christ, the Saviour

He departeth to Galilee

45 Then when he was come in Galilee, the Galileans receive him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into the Galilee, where he made of water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, I except ye see signs and wonders ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went in his way.

51 And as he was now going down his servants met him, and told him saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to come. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Jesus on the sabbath-day cured him that was diseased eight and thirty years: 10 the Jews persecuted him for it.

AFTER this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus was up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem the sheep market, a pool, which called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, of withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, troubled the water: whose name then first after the troubling the water stepped in, was whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man, which had an infirmity eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and e knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Will thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, g take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on h the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day: i it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist k not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed l himself away. 2a a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin n no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My n Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill a him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making n himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, q The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed l all judgment unto the Son,

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He n that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation: but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now n is: when the dead w shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life x in himself;

27 And hath given him authority, to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice.

29 And shall come forth, they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just: because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness d of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is another e that beareth witness of me: and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, and f he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive no testimony from man: but g these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the work which the Father hath given me to finish, k the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father l himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye m have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his words abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, n him ye o do not.

He walketh on the sea.

12 When they were filled, c he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing d be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 And f when even was nunc come, his disciples went down unto the sea.

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose g by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs,
they see Jesus walking on the sea,
and drawing nigh unto the ship:
and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is
I, h be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat,
but that his disciples were gone
away alone:

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him
on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said,

27 I Labour

which perisheth, but for that k meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him l hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This m is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What sign n showest thou then, that we may see and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, p He gave them bread from Heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my q father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God r is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he s that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he t that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, that ye u also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All v that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him w that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but x the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will y which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that z every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will a raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is b not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent c draw e him: and I will raise u him up at the last day.

50 This l is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and l not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I m give is my flesh, m which I will give for the life n of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How o can this man give us his flesh to eat?

He teacheth in the temple.

12 And f there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him, for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And g the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man <sup>1</sup> letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not h mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He k that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that l seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not Moses m give you the law, and yet none n of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill o me?

20 The people answered and said, p Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses q therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but r of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath-day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath-day receive circumcision, <sup>2</sup> that the law of Moses should not be broken: are ye angry at me, because s I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath-day?

24 Judge t not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do u the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit v we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and so I am not come of myself, but he that sent me, whom him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many b of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet c a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye d shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed e among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last f day, that great day, of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If g any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet h.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall i Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ n cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, o where David p was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never q man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers r or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people, who knoweth s not the law, are cursed.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ delivereth a woman taken in adultery: 21 he prorrogeth his home: the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him: and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now a Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 Thus they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath a man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I e am the light of the world: he that f followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 ¶ Then said the Pharisees and the Jews unto him, Thou sayest this, because thou art a Jew, and hast the light of life.

33 ¶ They answered him, We be

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever c

35 And the servant f abideth not in the house for ever : but the Son abideth ever.

JOHN, IX.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet ye have not known him: but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER IX.

1 A man that was born blind is restored to sight: 13 he is brought to the Pharisees: 31 they excommunicate him: 36 Christ receives him, etc.

As Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that a the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he cast on the ground, and made clay of the spittle; and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.

7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, d (which is by interpretation, Sent) He went

31 Now we know that God t heareth not sinners: but if u any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou v wast altogether born in sin, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe x on the Son of God?

and the good Shepherd

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him c the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice: d he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. f

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I h am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before are thieves and robbers: but sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me if i man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: j the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and is not the shepherd, whose own sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth the sheep, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And p other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and q there shall be one flock, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because r I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself: I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. My commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a division fore among the Jews, saying,

hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not; the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father, which gave d them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work, we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because g that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken:

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, in blasphemy; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe ye not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, I show the works; that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him; but he escaped out of their hand.

40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized, and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but

CHAPTER XI.

Christ raiseth Lazarus. 47 Te priests and Pharisees conspire against him.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of a Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Mary which b anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death; but d for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he; and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; 1 but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest or sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, 1 may this be?

17 And he said unto them,
Let us go.

Christ rideth into Jerusalem.

55 ¶ And q the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then r sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple. What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should show it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jesus exaueth Mary anointing his feet: 12 He rideth into Jerusalem.

WHEN Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where a Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper; and Martha b served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then c took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 Thus he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, d and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but a me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death:

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm-tree, and went forth to meet him, a crying, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

He foretelleth his death.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things a understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, b then remembered p they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For q this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore and among themselves, Persever ye how ye prevail nothing! behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is c come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, e Except a corn of wheat fall on the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He x that loveth his life s, shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If y any man serve me, let him follow me; and where z I am, there shall also my servant be: if a any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now b is my soul troubled: and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but c for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice d from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but e for your sakes.

me, he gave me a commandment,
what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment z is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Jesus washeth his disciples' feet, 14
and exhorteth them to humility and charity.

NOW a before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour d was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having c loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, the d devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing e that the Father had given all things into his hands,
and that he f was come from God,
and went to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was gird-
ed.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter.
Peter and 1 Peter said unto him,
Lord, dost g thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If h I wash thee not,
thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash
his feet, but is clean every whit:
and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For i he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye k call me Master and Lord:
and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If l then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

For l I have given you an example, that ye should do as l have done to you.

know whom I have said
that the scripture may be fulfilled,
He that eateth bread with me
hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 <sup>2</sup> Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass,
ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>p</sup>
He that receiveth whosoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When <sup>q</sup> Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified,
and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray
me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spoke.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who
it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast
saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a <sup>s</sup> sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Ischariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop Satan <sup>s</sup> entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto
him.

29 For some of <sup>t</sup> them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy those

CHAPTER XV.

The union between Christ and his church, under the parable of a vine,
etc.

I AM the true vine, e and my Father is the husbandman. b

2 Every branch c in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away : and every branch that beareth d fruit,
he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye e are clean through the world which I have spoken unto
you.

4 Abide f in me, and I in you. As g
the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine ; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches :
he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit : for i without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a h man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered ; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye i shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit ; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you : continue ye in my love.

10 If ye k keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love ;
even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your l joy might be full.

12 This m is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love n hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye o are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants ; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth : but I have called you friends ; p for all that that I have heard of my Father have made known unto you.

world would love his own : but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore v the world hateth you.

20 Remember w the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you ; if they x have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

21 But all y these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I z had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin : but a now they have no cloak for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works b which none other man did, they had not had sin : but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated c me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter d is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he e shall testify of me:

27 And ye f also shall bear witness, because ye g have been with me from the beginning.

true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou f hast sent.

4 q I have glorified thee on the earth: I k have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me, with thine own self with the glory which I h had with thee before the world was.

6 I k have manifested thy name unto the men which thou i gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me;
and they have kept thy m word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words n which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, o but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine p are thine, and thine are mine; and I q am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep r through thine own names
those whom thou hast given me,
that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name:
those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture t might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word,
and the world u hath hated them,
because they are not of the world,
even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldst
take them out of the world, but v that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even
as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify w them through thy truth: thy word x is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And y for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone
but for them also which shall believe on me through their word:

21 That they all may be one: z
thou, Father, art in me, and thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory a which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be b with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus; 6 the band and officers at Christ's word fall to the ground, etc.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, a where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas b then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing c all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they e went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you, that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 I had the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, g Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then h Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his 11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup i which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to Anna j first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel k to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ And m Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I never taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and o in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck p Jesus q with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but q if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now r Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood at, warmed himself. They said the fore unto him, Art not thou one of his disciples? He denied and said, I am not.

He is crowned with thorns.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Jesus is scourged and crowned with thorns: 13 Pilate delivereth him to be crucified, &c.

THEN a Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged b him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head,
and they put on him a purple
robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that c I find no fault
in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We d have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because e he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid:

9 And went again into the judgment-hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But f Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? know-est g thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou h could-est have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: i therefore he k that delivered me unto thee hath the greater l sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever m maketh himself a king, speaketh against Caesar.

13 ¶ When n Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew Gabbatha.

14 And o it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him Pilate saith unto them, Shall i crucify your King? The chief pri-

Christ crucified.

answered, We p have no king but Caesar.

16 Then q delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha :

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And s Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews : for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city : and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews ; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part ; and also his coat : now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be : that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, u They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of <sup>2</sup> Cleophas, r and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, v whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, x behold thy son !

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother ! y And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own z home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar : and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished : and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he showed unto them his hands and his side. Then v were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again,
Peace be unto you: as my Father
hath sent me, even so x send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 Whose soever z sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas, a one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he b said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days, again
his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace c be unto
you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands: d and reach hither thy hand, d and thrust it into my side: and be e not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas aswered and said unto him, My f Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed g are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And h many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.

31 But i these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and h that, believing ye might have life
through his name.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore:
but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then d Jesus saith unto them,
Children, have ye any meat?

They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, Cast e
the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt
his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals
there, and fish laid thereon, and
bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew
the net to land full of great fishes,
an hundred and fifty and three:
and for all there were so many, yet
was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou?
knowing that it was the Lord.

13 And he took of the bread, and taketh

12 Then q returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-day's journey.

13 And when they were come in,
they went up into an upper room,
where abode both Peter, r and James, and John, and Andrew,
Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the s women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of the names together were about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which t the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide u
to them that took Jesus.

17 For he v was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 Now w this man purchased a field with the reward x of iniquity;
and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; inasmuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let y his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and, z His aa bishopric let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men a which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one of us be ordained to be a witness of his resurrection.

The Apostles filled

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, b who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, 'Thou, Lord, which c knowest the hearts of all men, show whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots: and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER II.

The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, speak divers languages.

AND when the day of Pentecost a was fully come, they b were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled c all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled d with the Holy Ghost, and began e to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now f when this was noised abroad the multitude came together, and were g confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What h meaneth this?

13 Others, mocking, said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all i ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken j to my words:

16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance q ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, r which God before had showed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent s ye therefore, and be converted, t that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing v shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And now shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times x of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken y by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet z shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things, whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are a the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in b thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many b of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas c the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have r ye done this?

8 Then Peter, e filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

13 ¶ Now when they saw b his boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against r

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What m shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they n speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

CHAPTER V

1 Ananias and Sapphira fall down dead. 19 The apostles delivered by an angel.

BUT a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife,
sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price,
his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart? to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold,
was it not in thine own power?
Why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him
out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife,
not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her,
Tell me: whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord?
behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in,
and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon the church, and upon
all that heard these things.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick q folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they r were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up,
and all they that were with him,
which is the sect of the Saddu-

18 And laid their hands on the 19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all u the words v of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came,
and found them not in the prison,
they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the x captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto
this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they y feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

7 And when they had brought em, they set them before the uncil: and the high priest asked

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God, rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged
c on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted d with his right hand to be a Prince and to Israel, and forgiveness of 32 And we are his witnesses g of these things: and so is also the Ghost, h whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 When they heard that, they
i went to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, commanded to put the apostles
forth a little space:

And said unto them, Ye men
of Israel, take heed to yourselves, that ye intend to do as touching
these men.

For before these days j rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be a prophet; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as k obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing,
and drew away much people after him: he l also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: m for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it: lest haply ye be found even to fight n against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten p them, they commanded q that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed
from the presence of the council, r

CHAPTER VII.

1 Stephen answereth to his accusation: 54 They stone him to death.

T HEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, a brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotania, before he dwelt in Charran.

3 And said b unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee.

4 Then c came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promisedd that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him,
when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise,
That e his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and in-treat them evil f four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve g me in this place.

8 And h he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so i Abraham
begat Isaac, and circumcised him
the eighth day; and Isaac k begat Jacob; and Jacob l begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, moved with
m envy, sold Joseph into Egypt:
but n God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh
king of Egypt; and he o made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now p there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But q when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph r was made known to his brethren, and Joseph's kindred was m dealt subtly with our kindred, and evil-intreared our fathers, so ¹ that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

 20 In which time Moses ² was born, and was ³ exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house
 three months:
 21 And when he was cast out,
 Pharaoh's daughter took him up,
 and ⁴ nourished him for her own son.
 22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and ⁵ was mighty in words and in deeds.
 23 And ⁶ when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.
 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed,
 and smote the Egyptian:
 25 ⁷ For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.
 26 And the next day he showed himself unto them as they strove,
 and would have set them at one
 again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren;
 why do ye wrong one to another?
 27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying,
 Who made thee a ruler and a judge
 over us?
 28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou
 diddest the Egyptian yesterday?
 29 Then fled Moses at this saying,
 and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.
 30 And ⁸ when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an angel of the Lord, in a flame of fire
 in a bush.
 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him,

 fathers, the God of Abraham, and 33 Then said the Lord to him Put c off thy shoes from thy feet for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses, whom they refused saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had showed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Moses, who said g unto the children of Israel A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren ¹ like unto me; him h shall ye hear.

38 This i is he, that was in the church in the wilderness, with the angel k which spake to him l in the mount Sina, and with our fathers who m received n the lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt.

40 Saying o unto Aaron, Make gods to go before us: for as for Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what become of him.

41 And they made a calf p in five days, and offered sacrifice unto idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned and saw them up to worship the r in heaven; as it is written s in the book of the prophets, O ye of Israel, have ye offered slain beasts, and sacrifices, ² space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star Remphan, figures which ye used to worship them: and ye are gone away beyond B.

44 Our fathers had of witness in the wilderness, who had appointed, t the Lord to be their God.

45 ¶ Moses said unto the Lord, I beseech thee, send me by the hand of thy servant.

46 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, I will send thee by the hand of Aaron.

47 ¶ And Moses said unto the Lord, Let me, I pray thee, send thee by the hand of thy servant.

48 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, I will send thee by the hand of Aaron.

49 ¶ And Moses said unto the Lord, Let me, I pray thee, send thee by the hand of thy servant.

regions of Judea and Samaria, ex-

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and hailing men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For g unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them : and many taken with palsies, h and that were lame i were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, k and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out l that himself was some great one :

10 To whom m they all gave heed,
from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power
of God.

11 And to him they had regard,
because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed o Philip preaching the things p concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized,
both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also : and when he was baptized,
he continued with Philip, and wondered, believing the miracles
and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles heard that Simon had received the same gift which they had received by the Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Simon desired to buy of them
the power of giving the Holy Spirit :

16 And Simon said, Give me this power, that I may give to others
the Holy Spirit, as soon as I have received the money.

24 Then answered Simon, and said: Pray b ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, c which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, d an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come f to Jerusalem for to worship,

28 Was returning, and, sitting in his chariot, read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then g the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

27 But Barnabas b took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly c at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but d they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then e had the churches rest f throughout all Judea, and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified: g and walking h in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort i of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, Jesus Christ maketh l thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt in Lydda and m Saron saw him, and turned n to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called o Dorcas: this woman was full p of good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not q delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while p she was with them.

THERE was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band.

2 A devout a man, and one that feared b God with all c his house, which gave much alms to d the people, and prayed e to God alway.

3 He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day an angel f of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial g before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one Simon h a tanner, whose house is by the sea side; he shall tell thee i what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

for the work ^b whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Se-leucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus;

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation,) withstood ^c them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtlety and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert
the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 ¶ Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing ^d from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue ^e
on the sabbath-day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading ^f of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word ^g of exhortation for the people say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and backoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this pe-chose ^h our fathers, and 19 And when he had de-seven nations in the land of Chanaan,

he n divided their land to them
by lot.

20 And after that, he gave unto them judges, o about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they p desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul q the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And when he r had removed him, he raised up unto them David s to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse,
a man t after mine own heart,
which shall fulfill all my will.

23 Of this man's seed hath God,
according to his promise raised u unto Israel v a Saviour, Jesus:

24 When John w had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course,
he said, Whom think ye that I am f
I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes
of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you x is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they cause he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter,
which was before their city,
brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would h have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they i rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We k also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities l unto m
the living God, which made heaven, n and earth, and the sea,
and all things that are therein :

16 Who o in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless, p he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain q from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto
them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned r Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city : and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and i had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium and Antioch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continues in the faith, and that we t must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached
the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia :

26 And thence sailed to Antioch,
from s whence they had been re-

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that d Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders, about this question.

3 And being e brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion f of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy g unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they h declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there i arose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, j That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together, k for to consider of this matter.

7 After they were come to Mysia,
they assayed to go into Bythynia:

8 And they passing by Mysia

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man n of and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go o into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto
them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas,
we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and thio next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to Philippi, p
which is l the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony:
and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the 2 sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer q was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart r the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized,
and her household, she besought s
us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed t with a spirit of 2 divination met us, which brought her masters much gain u by sooth-
saying:

17 The same followed Paul v and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the w God, which show unto x
of y salvation.

32 And when he had said these words, he came out of her. And ye came at the same hour.

19 ¶ And when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market-place, unto a the rulers.

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But he Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas.

30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what I must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he, and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica and at Berea: 34 many are converted.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Thessalonica, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and the bath-days reasoned with them of the scriptures.

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have died, and risen again from the dead: that this Jesus whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them, and some of the devout women, and of the great multitude, and of the women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which were not, moved with envy, they took certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city in a roar, and assaulted the Jews, and sought to slay them.

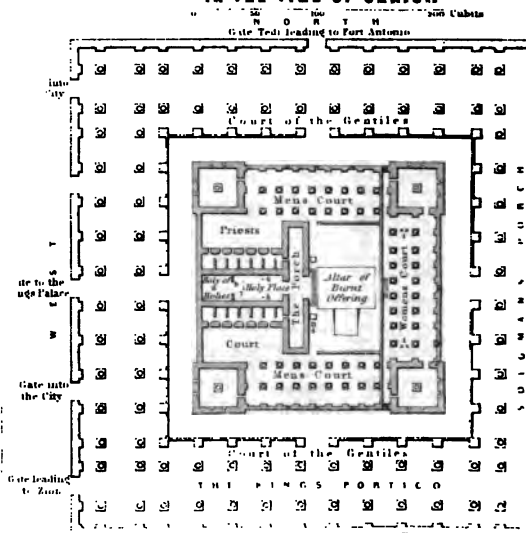

6 And when they fought, they drew Jason and the others, and threatened the rulers of the city, saying, These fellows make the world upside down.

7 ¶ And when they were gathered together, they sought for Paul and Silas, and found them.

your & devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UN-KNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare
I unto you.

24 God is that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made
with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things:

26 And hath made of one blood
all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their
habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move,
and have our being; as a certain
also of your own poets have said,
For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance
God winked at; but now he com-mandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day,
in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained;
whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again o of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among
them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Da-maris, and others with them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

3 Paul, labouring with his hands, and preaching of Corinth, 9 is encouraged in a vision, etc.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth:

2 And found a certain man, named Aquila, born in Italy, with Crispus, a chief of the synagogue (because that he had mandated all the Jews to Rome:) and ce-

because he was of the same he abode with them, and brought light: for by their occupation were tent-makers.

And he reasoned in the c synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

And when Silas d and Timotheus came from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus e was Christ.

And when they opposed e themselves, and blasphemed, he shook f
his raiment, and said unto them,
Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

¶ And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized.

¶ Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid,
but speak, and hold not thy peace:

For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

¶ And he 2 continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat.

¶ Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

¶ And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, I reason would that I should hear with you:

¶ But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, me judge ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

¶ And he drave them from the judgment-seat.

¶ Then all the Greeks took a Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

¶ And Paul after his tarried
there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having 21 ¶ After a these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit,

when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After i have been there, I must also see Rome. b

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; c but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose
no small stir d about that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called f together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that g they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought;
but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, h and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world i worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, k
and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius l and Aristarchus, m men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring n him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some o therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the most part knew not wherefore
they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander p beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto
the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours, cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk interposed the people, he said,

city of the Ephesians is in from Jupiter?

Seeing then that these things must be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing bold.

7 For ye have brought hither
lest men, which are neither ro-lers of churches, nor yet blas-phemes of your goddess.

28 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, let the law be open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this course.

41. And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece, and abode three months.

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews had waited for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara :

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered
Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre : for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried
there seven days : who said a to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished
those days, we departed and went our way : and they all brought us
on our way : with wives and children, till we were out of the city :
and we kneeled b down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship ;
and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cesarea : and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, d (which was one of the seven ; ) e and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which f did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea
a certain prophet, named Agabus. g

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall h the Jews at Jerusalem bind
the man that owneth this girdle,
and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought i him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart ? for I am ready k not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, Thus will j of the Lord be done.

15 And after these days, we took up our journey, and came to Jerusalem :

16 And

the disciples of Cesarea, and t with them one Mnason of s, an old disciple, m with we should lodge.

And when we were come to salem, the brethren received gladly.

And the day following Paul t in with us unto James; o and the elders were present.

And when he had saluted us; he declared particularly what nnes p God had wrought among e Gentiles by his q ministry.

And when they heard it, they lorified the Lord; and said unto im, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous r of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee,
that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise s their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore! the multitude must needs come together: t
for they will hear that thou art
come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave n their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, so and the next day purifying himself with them entered x into the temple, to signify the accomplishment y of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews z which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people and laid hands o on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help:
this is the man, that teacheth b all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place:
and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted
this holy place.

out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning
me.
19 And I said, Lord, they s know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on
thee:
20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I y also was standing by, and consenting s unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.
21 And he said unto me, Depart:
for a I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.
22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for b it is not fit that he should live.
23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust
into the air,
24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.
25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, c and uncondemned?
26 When the centurion heard that,
he went and told the chief captain,
saying, Take heed what thou
doest: for this man is a Roman.
27 Then the chief captain came,
and said unto him, Tell me, art
thou a Roman? He said, Yea.
28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom, And Paul said, But I was free born.
29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have d examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he ind bound him.
30 On the morrow, because d he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.
CHAPTER XXIII.
1 Paul pleadeth his cause: 7 dissension among his accusers: 27 he is sent to Celsa.
AND Paul, earnestly beholding
the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in good conscience before God, until this day.
2 And whatsoever

manded them that stood by him to smite him b on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten c contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, d Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I e am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of f the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees g say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find h no evil in this man: but if a spirit i or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not k fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood l by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain n of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves o under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink p till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief p priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council, signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he r went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then s Paul called one of the centurions unto him and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought Ann to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner t called me into him, and prayed me to bring the young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have u agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But v do not thou yield unto them: for there he is wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain w let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast showed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesars, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen, two hundred, at the third hour of the night:

years, a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer i
for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to k
Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither l found me in the temple disputing with any man,
neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove m the things whereof they now accuse
me.

14 But this I confess unto thee,
that after the way which they call heresy, so n worship I the God of o
my fathers, believing all things which are p written in the law
and q in the prophets:

15 And have hope r toward God,
which they themselves also allow,
that there shall be a resurrection s
of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do t exercise myself, to have l always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years, u came u
to bring aims to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor
with tumult:

19 Who ought to have been here v
before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say,
if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice,
that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them,
and said, When Lysias w the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, x and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of y righteousness, temperance, z and judi-ment a to come, Felix trembled b and answered, Goodly way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money d should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the officer, and commanded with him.

27 But after two years, Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to show e the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER XXV.

2 Paul is accused before Festus: 8 he answereth for himself, etc.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying a wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them f more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment-seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which h they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal c unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered,

Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days, King Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea, to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when d I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when e they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But f had certain questions against him of their own suspicion, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because g I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice with great h pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul i was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa and all men which are now present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, that k he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I for certain saw that he was a Roman, and that sealed m to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

Of whom I have no certain to write unto my Lord. herefore I have brought him th before you, and specially be- e thee, O king Agrippa, that, af- examination had, I might have newtail to write.

For n it seemeth to me unrea- sonable to send a prisoner, and without to signify the crimes laid *in*st him.

CHAPTER XXVI.

Paul, before Agrippa, declareth his life, 12 and his wonderful conver- sion, etc.

WHEN Agrippa said to Paul, Thou art permitted to speak thyself. Then Paul stretched th the hand, and answered for *o*self:

I think myself happy, king rippa, because I shall answer myself this day before thee, iching all the things whereof I accused of the Jews:

Especially, because I know thee be expert a in all customs and ations which are among the *ar*s: wherefore I beseech thee to *ar*b me patiently.

My manner c of life from my th, which was at the first long mine own nation at Jerusa- n, know all the Jews;

Which knew me from the be- ning, if they would testify, that er the most straitest sect of our igion, I lived a Pharisee. d

And now e I stand and am ged for the hope of the pro- of made of God unto our fa- rs:

Unto which promise our twelve es, instantly serving g God 1 day 1 night, hope to come. For ich hope's sake, king Agrippa, I accused of the Jews.

Why h should it be thought a ig incredible with you, that God ould raise the dead?

I vorily thought with myself, t I ought to do many things trary to the name of Jesus of zareth.

Which thing I also did in Je- alem: and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having re- ved authority from the chief ests; and when they were put death, I gave my voice against em.

And I punished them oft in is nd

12 Whereupon as I went n to Da- *n*ascus, with authority and com- mission from the chief priests,

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speak- ing unto me, and saying in the He- brew tongue, Saul, Saul, why per- secutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister o and a witness p both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the peo- ple, and from the Gentiles, unto q whom now I send thee,

18 To open r their eyes, and to turn s them from darkness to light, and from the power t of Satan un- to God, that they may receive for- givencess u of sins, and inheritance v among them which are w sancti- fied by faith z that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the hea- venly vision:

20 But showed y first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works z meet for re- pentance.

21 For these causes the Jews a caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which b the prophets and Moses did *s*ay should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first c that should rise from the dead, and should show light unto the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for him- self, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. d

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom, as I speak freely: for I know that

f these things are hidden in : for this thing was not in a corner.

ing Agrippa, believest thou opphels? I know that thou test.

hen Agrippa said unto Paul,
at thou e persuadest me to be ristian.

And Paul said, I would f to that not only thou, but also hat hear me this day, were both lost, and altogether such as I except these bonds.

And when he had thus spoken,
e king rose up, and the governor,
d Bernice, and they that sat
all them:

And when they were gone
side, they talked between themelves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus,
This man might have been set at liberty if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Paul, shipping towards Rome, 10
foretelleth the danger of the voyage, but is not believed, etc.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy,
they delivered Paul a and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus'
band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ad-runyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, b a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon: And Julius courteously in-treated c Paul, and gave hon liberty to go unto his friends to refresh
himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy: and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly
many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under 1 Crete,
over against Salmone;

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent,
and when sailing was now dangerous, because the 2 fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards,
and some on broken pieces of

they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Paul and company entertained by the barbarians: 8 he healeth many in the island, etc.

AND when they were escaped,
e then they knew that the island a was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous b people showed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us c every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves,
No doubt d this man is a murderer,
whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt e no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said f that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius;
who received us, and lodged us
three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody flux: to whom g Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid h
his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured i us with many honours; and when we departed, they lauded us with such things k as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria,
which had wintered in the isle,
whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched
a compass, and came to Rhegium

ROMANS, III. A. D. 60.

it go unpunished

seest thou the riches b of as and forbearance c and ring; d not knowing that ess of God leadeth thee
ance?

after thy hardness and im-heart treasurest / up unto wrath against the day of and revelation e of the right-gment of God;

a h will render to every man
ing to his deeds:

Them who by patient con-ance in well doing seek for and honour and immortality,
my life:

unto them that are conten-
tful, i and do h not obey the truth,
obey unrighteousness, indig-
t and wrath,

Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil,
the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

But glory, / honour, and peace,
to every man that worketh good,
to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For m there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law; and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law;

13 (For n before God, but the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.)

14 For when the Gentiles which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these,
having not the law, are a law o

unto themselves:

15 Which show the work of the law written in their hearts, 2 their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts 3 the mean while accusing, or else excusing, one another;

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets p of men, by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou r art called a Jew,
and reatest in the law, and makest
thy boast of God,

18 And knowest s his will, and approvest t the things that are more excellent, being instructed
of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light to them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form u of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou v therefore which teach-est another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

before <sup>1</sup> proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, <sup>f</sup> There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 Their throat <sup>g</sup> is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison <sup>h</sup> of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth <sup>i</sup> is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their feet <sup>k</sup> are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known;

18 There <sup>l</sup> is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth <sup>m</sup> may be stopped, and all the world may become <sup>n</sup> guilty before God.

20 Therefore <sup>n</sup> by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law <sup>o</sup> and <sup>p</sup> prophets:

Even the righteousness of God <sup>q</sup> is by faith <sup>r</sup> of Jesus Christ <sup>s</sup> to all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all <sup>t</sup> have sinned, and come short of the glory of God:

Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that Christ Jesus:

of God. <sup>w</sup> I say, at this time our righteousness: that he <sup>x</sup> might be the justifier of him who believeth in Jesus.

Is he boasting then? It is not. By what law? of works? No, but by the law of faith.

Therefore we conclude that <sup>y</sup> he is justified by faith without the law.

Is he God of the Jews only? No, but of the Gentiles too. Yes, as also.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Abraham's faith was imputed him for righteousness: 24 <sup>a</sup> as shall ours.

WHAT shall we say then? Abraham, our father <sup>a</sup> pertaining to the flesh, hath found

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath <sup>b</sup> whereof to glory but not <sup>c</sup> before God.

3 For what saith the scripture Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness

4 Now to him that worketh <sup>d</sup> the reward not reckoned of grace but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith <sup>e</sup> is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, <sup>f</sup> blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision <sup>only</sup>, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And <sup>g</sup> he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had, yet being uncircumcised; that he might be the father <sup>h</sup> of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised: that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had, being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that <sup>i</sup> he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if <sup>j</sup> they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law works wrath: for where <sup>k</sup> no law is, there is no transgression.

undred years old, neither yet the endness r of Sarah's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that,
what he had promised, he was able s also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed
to him for righteousness.

23 Now t it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed
to him:

24 But for us u also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe v on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead:

25 Who was delivered w for our offences, and was raised x again for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God. 12 Sin and death came by Adam. 17 righteousness and life by Jesus Christ.

THEREFORE a being justified
by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:
2 By whom b also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice c in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory d
in tribulations also; knowing that in tribulation worketh patience;
4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And hope e maketh not ashamed,
because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost f which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, g in due g time Christ died for the ungodly—
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, i we shall be saved from k wrath through
him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much l more, being reconciled, we shall be saved
by m his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy n in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the o atonement.

12 Wherefore, as o by one man's entered into the world, and death
by sin; and so death passed upon
all men, p for that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not q imputed
when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even on them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression,
who is the r figure of him that v
to come.

15 But not as the offence, s so is the free gift. For if through offence of one Man many be dead, t
more the grace s of God, and gift by grace, u which is by one Jesus Christ, hath abounded
many x.

16 And not as y was by one sinned, so is the gift: for the ment was by one to condemn but the free gift is of man-fences unto justification.

17 For if z by one man's death reigned by one; much they which receive abundantly of grace, and of the gift of conscience, shall reign in life
Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore, as z by the
of one judgment came upon to condemnation; even z
righteousness of one z
came upon all z men unto life.

19 For as by one man

ous.

20 Moreover, z the z

CHAPTER VI.

We must not live in sin, 12 nor let it reign in us. 23 Death is the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? shall a we continue in sin, a grace may abound?

God forbid. How shall we, that are dead b to sin, live any longer therein?

Know ye not, that so many of us <sup>1</sup> were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into c his death?

Therefore we are buried d with him by baptism into death: that as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness e of life.

For if f we have been planted either in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

Knowing this, that our old man crucified with him, that the g prince of sin might be destroyed, h & henceforth we should not live in sin.

For i he that is dead is <sup>2</sup> freed from sin.

Now if we be dead with Christ, believe that we shall also live j in him:

Knowing that Christ, k being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

For in that he died, he died l once: but in that he liveth, liveth unto God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead m indeed unto sin, but alive n unto God through our Lord Jesus Christ our Lord.

Let o not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should p yield it in the lusts thereof.

Neither yield ye your members q as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members r as instruments of righteousness unto God.

For sin shall not have s dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace.

What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness unto life? t But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed the doctrine <sup>4</sup> which was delivered unto you.

CHAPTER VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 7 The law is not sin, 12 but holy, just, and good.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For a the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband, so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if, while b her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law: so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law c by the body of Christ: that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit d unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the <sup>3</sup> motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members, to bring forth fruit e unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, <sup>2</sup> that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? f

CHAPTER VIII.

law sin? God forbid? Nay, I had not g known sin, but by the law: for I had not known <sup>2</sup> lust, except the law had said, h Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, <sup>1</sup> I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold l under sin.

15 For that which I do, I <sup>1</sup> allow not: for what I would, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me, (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For n the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present o with me.

22 For I delight p in the law of God after the inward q man:

23 But I see another law in r my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity s to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from <sup>2</sup> the body of this death? u

25 I v thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of

1 Who are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of being God's children.

THERE is, therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk h not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made us freed from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and <sup>1</sup> for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk g not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh h do mind the things of the flesh, but they that are after the Spirit, the things i of the Spirit.

6 For <sup>2</sup> to be carnally minded is death; k but <sup>3</sup> to be spiritually minded is life and peace:

7 Because <sup>4</sup> the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither can it be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell l in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he m that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies <sup>5</sup> by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not n to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify o the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Paul's sorrow for the Jews 7 All Abraham's seed were not the chil- dren of the promise. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejection of the Jews foretold.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I a could wish that myself were 1 accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, b and the glory, c and the 2 covenants, d and the giving of the law, e and the f service of God, and the promises; g

5 Whose are the fathers, h and of whom i as concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is k over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken 1 none effect. For m they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all chil- dren: but, in n Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the chil- dren o of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At p this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only that; but when Rebecca q also had conceived by one, even by our Father Isaac;

11 For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;

12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction?

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he hath afore prepared unto glory.

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness:

because of a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodom, and been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness, which is of faith.

31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling-stone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

CHAPTER. X.

1 Paul's prayer for Israel, who are misled by blind zeal. 11 Salvation open to all that believe, etc.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law. That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above.)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach.

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, &c.

all the Jews.

5 Even so d then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if by grace, e then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace:
otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel's hath not obtained that which he seeketh
for; but the election hath obtained
it, and the rest were 2 blinded.

8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of 2 slumber, g eyes h that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompense
unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened,
that they may not see, and bow
down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid:
but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, k
for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the 2 diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulness!

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of
them.

15 For if the casting away of them
be the reconciling of the world,
what shall the receiving of them be,
but life from the dead?

16 For if a the first-fruit be holy,
the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches o be broken off, and thou, being p a wild olive-tree, wert grafted in e among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree:

18 Boast g not against the branches.
But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off; and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but stand:

21 For if God spare thee, it shall not be as if thou wast not cut off.

which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if s thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou t also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they u abide not in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that g blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved; as it is written, z There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 For this y is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved z for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. a

30 For as ye in times b past have not ? believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not ? believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God c hath ? concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O d the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable e are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 For who f hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or who g hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For h of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to ? whom be glory for ever. Amen.

off the works of darkness, and let us put l on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk 2 honestly, m as in the day; not in rioting n and drunkenness, not in chaurberiaz o and wantonness, not in strife and envy-
ing.

14 But put p ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make q not provision

thereof.

CHAPTER XIV.

How to treat a weak brother, and not to censure one another for things indifferent.

HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but 1 not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received
him.

4 Who a art thou that judgest
another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God b
is able to make him stand.

5 One man c esteemeth one day
above another: another esteemeth
every day d alike. Let every man be fully 2 persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that 3 regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none d of us liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord: and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore or die, we are the Lord's.

9 Fore to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, f As I live,

block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing <sup>a</sup>unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be <sup>a</sup>unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not <sup>a</sup>charitably. Destroy <sup>a</sup>not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For <sup>a</sup>the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, <sup>i</sup>and peace, <sup>k</sup>and joy <sup>i</sup>in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let <sup>m</sup>us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things <sup>n</sup>wherewith one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; <sup>o</sup>but if it is <sup>p</sup>evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy <sup>q</sup>is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that <sup>r</sup>doubteth is damned if he eat, because <sup>r</sup>he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever <sup>r</sup>is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak.

2 We may not please ourselves, but receive one another, as Christ did us all.

WE then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour <sup>b</sup>for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ <sup>c</sup>pleased not himself; but, as it is written, <sup>d</sup>The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatsoever <sup>e</sup>things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded <sup>f</sup>one toward another, <sup>i</sup>according to Christ Jesus:

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received <sup>a</sup>us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, <sup>k</sup>For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, <sup>i</sup>I Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, <sup>m</sup>Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, <sup>n</sup>Esaias saith, <sup>n</sup>Thou shalt be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all <sup>p</sup>joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, <sup>r</sup>able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because <sup>s</sup>of the grace that is given to me of God.

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the <sup>t</sup>offering <sup>t</sup>up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified <sup>u</sup>by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory <sup>v</sup>through Jesus Christ in those things <sup>v</sup>to which pertain <sup>v</sup>to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed.

19 Through mighty signs <sup>w</sup>and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem and round about unto Illyria, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, <sup>x</sup>lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But, as it is written, <sup>y</sup>Thou wast not known by men, he was not spoken of, they shall see; and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause I have been <sup>z</sup>much hindered, that I might come to you.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, after salutation and thanksgiving, 10 exhorteth to unity, 11 and reproveth their dissensions, 26 God, to take away boasting, rejecteth the wisdom of the wise.

PAUL, called a to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes b our brother,

2 Unto the Church of God which is at Corinth, c to them d that are sanctified e in Christ Jesus, called f to be saints, with all that in every place call g upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's :

4 I thank i my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ ;

7 So that ye come behind in no gift ; waiting l for the l coming of our Lord Jesus Christ :

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship n of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye o all speak the same thing, and that there be no p divisions among you ; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul ; and I of Apollos ; p and I of Cephas ; q and I of Christ.

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you but Crispus r and Gaius ;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas : t besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel : not with wisdom u of u words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them v that perish foolishness, but unto us which are saved it is the power w of God.

21 For after a that in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom know not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom.

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling block, and unto the Greeks foolishness.

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Gentiles, Christ the power of God, and wisdom of God.

God : for they are foolishness unto him : neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
15 But he s that is spiritual t judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who t hath known the mind of the Lord, that he u may instruct him? But we u have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER III.

1 How Paul dealt with weak believers. 5 The most eminent preachers only instruments, etc.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you a as unto spiritual,
but as unto carnal, even as unto babes b in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat : for hitherto c ye were not able to bear it, neither yet
now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal : for whereas d there is among you envying, and strife, and e divisions, are ye
not carnal, and walk f as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos : are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollus, but ministers by whom ye believed, even f as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollus watered; but God g gave the increase.

7 So then neither h is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one : and every man i shall receive his own reward
according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together i with God : ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's build-

grace
to the there

y man's work shall be any man's work shall be self shall be saved ; yet so p

Know ye not that ye q are the ple of God, and that the Spirit
od dwelleth in you ?
If any man shall defile the temple
od, him shall God destroy ; for e temple of God is holy, which mple ye are.

Let no man deceive himself.
any man among you seemeth
o be wise in this world, let him
ecome a fool, that he may be wise.
19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God : for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let u no man glory
in men : for all things are your's ;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things
to come ; all are your's ;

23 And ye v are Christ's ; and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER IV.

1 How to account of Christ's ministers. 8 To a self-sufficient vanity Paul opposeth his own afflicted
state, etc.

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards, b that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment ; yea,
I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself ;
yet c am I not hereby justified : but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge d nothing before the time, until the Lord come,

ministers ought to

who e both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts : and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to me ;
self and to Apollos for your sakes ;
that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another ? and what ? hast thou that thou didst not receive ? Now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it ?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, g ye have reigned as kings
without us : and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath forth us the 2 apostles last, for we were appointed to death : for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ ; but ye are wise in Christ ;
weak, but ye are strong ;
honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present
we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted,
have no certain dwelling ;

12 And labour, a work
our own hands : being blessed ; being persecuted ;

13 Being defamed, we i
are made as the filth of the world,
and are the off-scouring of things unto this day.

14 I write not these shame you, but as sons n I warn you.

15 For though ye have many instructors in Christ,
ye not many fathers :
Jesus I have begotten
the gospel.

16 Wherefore, I b ye followers of me.

17 For this cause I you Timotheus, my son, and faithful
shall bring you in
of my ways which I teach every church.

18 Now some

before the unjust, and not before the saints ?

2 Do ye not know that the saints a shall judge the world ? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters ?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels ? how much more things that pertain to this life ?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you ? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren ?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take b wrong ? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded ?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and c defraud,
and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God ? Be not deceived : neither d fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers
of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom
of God.

11 And such e were some of you :
but ye are washed, f but ye are sanctified, g but ye are justified h in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me,
but all things are not i expedient :
all things are lawful for me, but i will not be brought under the power i of any.

13 Men's k for the belly, and the belly for meats : but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for l fornication, but for the Lord : m and the Lord n for the body.

14 And God o hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us
by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members p of Christ ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot ?

16 And he that so doeth, he shall bring his own body into bondage to sin, and to unrighteousness, and to iniquity, and to all uncleanness, and to covetousness, which is idolatry.

17 As we have members of his body,
of his flesh, and of his bone, shall we bring our members into bondage to sin ? No.

18 We shall be members of his body,
of his flesh, and of his bone, and we shall love him, who hath loved us, and himself hath given himself up for us, that he might cleanse us by the washing of water by the word, and bring us to himself by longitudes and
breadth, and might renew us to
himself by longitudes and breadth,
that we might present to ourselves
members of his body, which he sanctifies by the word, and might
bring us to himself by longitudes and
breadth, and might renew us to
himself by longitudes and breadth.

19 That we might present to ourselves
members of his body, which he sanctifies by the word, and might
bring us to himself by longitudes and
breadth, and might renew us to
himself by longitudes and breadth.

20 That we might present to ourselves
members of his body, which he sanctifies by the word, and might
bring us to himself by longitudes and
breadth, and might renew us to
himself by longitudes and breadth.

18 Flees fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

19 What I know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not u your own?

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify u God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The use of marriage: 10 Christ hath forbidden to dissolve the bond thereof, etc.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But d every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, set not 1, but the Lord, Let f not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not g the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now h are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us 4 to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save k thy husband? or 2 how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save the wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as l the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And m so ordain l in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in circumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision o is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping p of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care r not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is s the Lord's 2 free-man: likewise also he that is called, being free, is t Christ's servant.

23 Ye are bought u with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let v every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment w of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful x.

26 I suppose therefore that this y good for the present 4 distress; I say, that y it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not 4 a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time z is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be 4 as though they had none:

to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this n liberty n of your's become a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But o when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest p I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Paul asserteth his apostolical character, 3 and right to a maintenance: 24 he striveth to obtain an incorruptible crown.

A M I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen a Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work b in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this;

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a i wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we e power to forbear working?

7 Who growth a warfare of any time at ed
th

n flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written g in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he h that plougheth should plough in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless & we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know, that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they l which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so hath the Lord m ordained, that they n which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I o have used none of these things; neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for if were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for q necessity is laid upon me; yea, wo is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation r of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not any power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews t I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not u without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To the weak v became I as weak, that I might gain the weak:

I have made all things to all men, that x I might by all means save some.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, y that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

CHAPTER X.

1 The Jews had sacraments typical of ours. 6 Christians must not lust after evil things: 7 They must avoid idolatry: 13 God will in affliction make a way for them to escape, &c.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under a cloud, and all passed through the sea:

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink; d for they drank of that spiritual Rock that l followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were for our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they l also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us examine fornication, as some h of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt i Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for examples; and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Of covering heads in praying. 2

Of profaning the Lord's supper

23 the apostle's account of the institution of it.

DE ye followers ^a of me, even ^a
I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren that ^b ye remember me in all things; and keep ^c the ordinances
as I delivered ^{hem} to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the head ^d of every man is Christ; ^e and the head of the woman ^{is} the man; ^f and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having ^{his} head covered, disho-noureth his head.

5 But every woman ^g that prayeth or prophesieth with ^{her} head uncovered, dishonoureth her head:
for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: ^h but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover ^{his} head, forasmuch as he is the image ⁱ and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For ^k the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man:
9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman
for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have ² power on ^{her} head,
because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in
the Lord.

12 For as the woman ^{is} of the man, even so ^{is} the man also by the woman; but all ⁱ things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: ^{is} it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Both not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair,
it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a ² covering. Now.

the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye . . .

together in the church, I hear a that there be divisions ⁴ among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must e be also ⁵ heresies among you, that p they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, ⁶ this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating, every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and q another is drunken.

22 What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that ⁷ have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For r I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus, s the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do ⁸ in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ⁹ ye do show the Lord's death till he come. t

whether there be prophesies, they

they shall cease; whether there be then shall I know even as also I

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Prophecy is commended, 2, 3, 4,
and preferred before speaking with tongues.

FOLLOW after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, a but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue, b speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no c man 1 understandeth him, howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, e or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet f give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words g easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian; g and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of h spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, h and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing i with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding h also.

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, say Amen at thy giving j of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children m in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye a children, but in understanding be n men.

21 In the law p it is written. With q men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

24 But if all prophesy, and then come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so, talking down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? I want ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let z the prophets speak one or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first y hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits z of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let b your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak, but they are commanded to be under obedience c as also saith e the Lord.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man f think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, come to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

your faith p is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we q are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is r Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For t since by man came death,
u by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But v every man in his own order; Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming.

24 Then cometh h the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father,
when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he z must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed y is death.

27 For he z hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith,
All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued a unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him b that put all things under him,
that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which c are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in d jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by 4 your rejoicing e which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I f die daily.

32 If 5 after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? Let us g eat and drink, for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil k communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake t to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I k speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How l are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that m which thou sowest is not quickened, except it
die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God n giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There a are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, p and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It q is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual r body.

45 And so it is written, s The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The u first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that as flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I show you a mystery: We z shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, y in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the z trumpet shall sound, and the dead a shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal b must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death c is swallowed up in victory.

55 O d death, where is thy sting? O e grave, where is thy victory?

56 The e sting of death is sin; and f the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks g be to God, which giveth us the victory h through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, i be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain j to the Lord.

2 Upon the first b day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, d when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide yea, and winter with you, that e I may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry f a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus g until Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries. f

10 Now if Timotheus g come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh h the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct k him forth in peace, that he may come unto me, for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apolos, l I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come m this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch m ye, stand n fast in the faith, quit you like men, o be strong. p

14 Let q all your things be done with charity.

Ac. 15. 23.

Ac. 15. 23.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not in wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before,
that ye might have a second & be profit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you
I have brought on my way to you.

When I therefore was in Macedonia, did I use lightness; things that I purpose, do I purpose according q to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is true, our 4 word toward you was not yea r and nay.

19 For the Sons of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in t him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth u us with you in Christ, and hath anointed e us, is God:

22 Who hath also sealed u us, and given the earnest of the Spirit x in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that, to spare you, I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion y over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith z ye stand.

CHAPTER II.

1 The reasons of Paul's not coming unto them. 6 Of the excommunicated person.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears, not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love b which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any c have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, d but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this 1 punishment, which was inflicted e of many.

7 So f that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient g in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgive it, for your sakes forgive I it in the 2 person of Christ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door i was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest k in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence unto Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour m of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them n that are saved, and in them that perish:

16 To the one o we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who p is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight q of God speak we 4 in Christ.

CHAPTER III.

He sheweth that their gifts and grace were a sufficient commendation of his ministry.

DO we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles b of commendation by you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Yea are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, d but in fleshy e tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves f to think any thing, and ourselves; but our sufficiency g of God:

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new Testament; not of the letter, h but of the spirit: for the letter i killeth, but the spirit m giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stone, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly j hold the face of Moses, because of the glory n of his countenance, which was to be done by him.

glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God,
and not of us.

8 We are troubled h on every side,
yet not distressed ; we are perplexed,
but not 3 in despair ;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken ;
cast down, but not destroyed ;

10 Always bearing i about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life k also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are l always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death m worketh in us,
but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit n
of faith, according as it is written,
I o believed, and therefore have I spoken : we also believe, and therefore speak :

14 Knowing p that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things q are for your sakes, that the abundant grace r might, through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we s faint not ;
but though our outward man perish, yet the inward t man is renewed day by day.

17 For our u light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory ;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen : v for the things which are seen are temporal ; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER V.

Paul, in assured hope of immortal glory, laboureth to approve himself to Christ, etc.

FOR we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle a were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house b not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, c earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven :

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. d

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened e not with our house, but with that mortality e which is upon us, that mortality e shall be swallowed up of life.

5 For we which walk in this manner wait for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life to come. f

6 Forasmuch as we know that our house shall be dissolved, we desire to have another house put on, that we may not be found naked.

7 Forasmuch as we are clothed with this mortal tabernacle, we groan and sigh, because we desire to be clothed with our house, which is from heaven :

8 For in this manner we wait, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our house,

that we may not be found naked.

us for the self-same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest o of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we h walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing i rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we l labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we k must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ; that every one may receive l the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether i be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror m of the Lord, we persuade men; but we n are made manifest unto God: and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we o commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in 2 appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside p ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ q constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then r were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they s which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, 2 he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, u all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled v us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation:

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses to unto them; and hath 4 committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors x for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he y hath made him to be

Of Paul's faithfulness in the ministry.

WE then, as workers a together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain b.

2 (For he saith, I c have humbled thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I answered thee: behold, now d is the accepted time; behold, now e is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offence d in any thing that the ministry e be not blamed:

4 But in all things f approving ourselves as the ministers g of God, u much patience, in afflictions, u necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, f in imprisonments, 2 in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, g by the power h of God, by the armour i of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, k and yet true;

9 As unknown, l and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, m and not killed:

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things n.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouths are open unto you, our hearts are enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, ye are straitened in your own evils.

13 Now for a recompense in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye p not unequally yoked together with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath q that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God, as God hath said, I r will dwell in them, and walk in them; and s they shall be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from them, ye that are unclean, who touch the altar, who touch the Lord's table.

to you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care v for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed to by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed:
but as we spake all things to you
in truth, even so our boasting,
which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear x and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice, therefore, that I have confidence y in you in all things.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 He stirreth them up to contribute to the saints: 16 he commendeth
Titus and others, etc.

MOREOVER, brethren, we do
you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia z

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty b abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves:

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship c of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Inasmuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same 2 grace
also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound d in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, e
but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich f yet for your sakes he or, g that ye through him
-h he rich.

10 I give my advice
pliant for you, e
ore, not only to forward a year

14 But by an equal this time your abundance <sup>may</sup> supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over;
and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; <sup>m</sup> but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him
the brother, <sup>n</sup> whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen <sup>o</sup> of the churches
to travel with us with this <sup>q</sup> grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 Providing for honest <sup>q</sup> things,
not only in the sight of the Lord,
but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them
our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence
which <sup>h</sup> I have in you.

23 Whether any do inquire of Ti-

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

glory in the Lord.

the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER XI.

Paul being forced, entereth into a commendation of himself.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly :
and indeed I bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy : for I have espoused you a to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin b to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity
that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another c gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose I d was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though e be I rude in speech, yet not f in knowledge ; but we have been thoroughly made manifest g among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abusing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely ?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I h was chargeable to you for that which was lacking to me the i brethren which came from Macedonia supplied : and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me,
no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore I because I love you not ! God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them k which desire occasion ; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false l apostles, deceitful m workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel ; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end o shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; p if otherwise, yet as a fool q receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it q not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence r of boasting.

18 Seeing s that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourself are wise.

20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours t more abundant, in stripes u above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths v oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes w save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten x with rods, once was I y stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night z and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils a by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings b often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care d of all the churches.

29 Who e is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will f glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God g and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which h is blessed for evermore, knoweth i that I lie not.

32 In Damascus k the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me;

now I write to them b which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ
speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty c in you.

4 For though d he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak i in him but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine e yourselves, whether ye be in the faith: prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ f is in you, except ye be reprobates? g

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For h we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection. i

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, k according l to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell.
Be perfect, m be of good comfort,
be n of one mind, live in peace;
and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet o one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

be with you all. Amen.

¶ The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from

by Titus and Lucas.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the GALATIANS.

From the Creation, 4062....Year of the Christian Era, 58....From the building of Rome, 811....Year of Nero Cesar, 5....Year of Claudius Felix, 6....High Priest of the Jews, Joseph.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul's salutation: 6 he wonders that they had so soon left the truth of the gospel, etc.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by a Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who b raised him from the dead:)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: c

3 Grace d be to you, and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave himself e for our sins, that he might deliver us f from this present evil world, g according h to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed i from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

7 Which k is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert l the gospel of Christ:

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him m be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel n unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please o men? for if I yet please men, I should not p be servant of Christ.

11 But I testify unto you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man

12 For I q neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation r of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more ex-

Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I v through the law am dead
to the law, that I might live w unto God.

20 I am crucified x with Christ:
nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: y and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself z for
me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness a come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER III.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and depend on the law. 6
They that believe are justified.

FOOLISH Galatians, a who hath bewitched b you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among
you!

2 This only would I learn of you, Received c ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by d the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun e in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect f by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things
in vain? g if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth h
to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed i God, and it was 2 accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children k of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify l the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee m shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they n which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed o is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the law to do them.

But no man is justified by the sight of God, it is the just p shall live.

... in q not of faith.

but, The man r that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ s hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed t is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing u of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise v of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's 3 covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham u and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was z four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance y be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then scrunch the law? It z was added because of transgressions, till the seed a should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels b in the hand c of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God d is one.

21 Is the law then against e the promises of God? God forbid: for if there f had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, g that the promise h by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law i was our school-master to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a school-master.

26 For ye are all the children k of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many l of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither m Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye a Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We were under the law till Christ came, 5 but Christ freed us.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to weak and beggarly elements, wherunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through unity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first:

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as of Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessing ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, not well: yea, they would

stify again to every man

6 For in Jesus Christ neither g circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith
which k worketh by love.

7 Ye did run well; who did i hinder you, that ye should not obey
the truth!

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear k his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? i then is the offence m of the cross ceased.

12 I would they were even cut off
which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not n liberty for an occasion to the flesh,
but by love serve o one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, p Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk g in the Spirit, and 2 ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For r the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary:
the one to the other: so that t
ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if u ye be led of the Spirit,
ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh v are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred,
variance, emulations, wrath, strife,
seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruits of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the s affections and lusts.

our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the <sup>1</sup>desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature f the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even g when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ; (<sup>2</sup>by grace h ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised i us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus;

7 That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindness k toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace l are ye saved
through faith; m and that not n
of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God o hath before <sup>3</sup>ordained that we should walk in
them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye bring in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands:

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood p of Christ.

14 For he q is our peace, who hath made both r one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition
between us:

15 Having abolished s in his flesh
the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enm-<sup>4</sup> thereby:

17 And came and preached pe
to you u which were afar off,
to them that were nigh.

18 For through v him we have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no strangers and foreigners, but citizens w with the saints, and x heirs of the kingdom of God, if ye hold on the faith,

dation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief a corner-stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy b temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded c together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER III.

The hidden mystery that the Gentiles should be saved.

FOR this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 (If ye have heard of the dispensation a of the grace b of God which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation c he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote <sup>1</sup> afore in few words;

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery d of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not e made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto the holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual f working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less g than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches h of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, i which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by k Jesus Christ; 10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known, by the church, the manifold wisdom l of God.

11 According to the eternal m purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness n and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which o is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

1 He exhorteth to unity. 7 Why men have different gifts. 10 The old man to be put off.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner l of the Lord,) beseech you that ye walk a worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With all lowliness b and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure c of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, d When he ascended up on high, he led <sup>2</sup> captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might <sup>3</sup> fill all things.)

11 And e he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come <sup>4</sup> in the unity f of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect g man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, a submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are member of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular, so love his wife even as himself; and the wife so that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER V.

The duty of children and of servants
(CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right)

2 Honour thy father and mother, which is the first commandment with promise.

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the Lord, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 Not with eye service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, unto the Lord, and not to men;

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against d spiritual wickedness in e high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having f done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness;

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ e in sincerity, Amen.

CHAPTER I.

Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for them: 21 his readiness to suffer.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, a with the bishops and deacons;

3 Grace b be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer c of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel, from the first day until now;

6 Being confident d of this very thing, that he e which hath begun good f work in you will g perform it until the day g of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because h I save you in my heart; inasmuch i both in my bonds, and in the defence k and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers l of my race.

8 For God is my record, how really I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound i yet more and more j knowledge and in all k judgment; 10 That ye may l approve things m that n are excellent; that ye may o sincere and without offence p in the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory m and praise n of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds a in Christ b manifest in all c the palace, and d in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

even of envy and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds;

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this n shall turn to my salvation through o your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, p but that with all boldness, q as always, so now also, Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether r it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die s is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this t is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire t to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: u

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith:

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only v let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye w stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving x together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified y by your z

the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw c in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER II.

1 He exhorteth to unity and humility, 12 and to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels a and mercies,

2 Fulfil b ye my joy, that ye be c like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing d be done through strife or vain glory; but in lowliness of mind let each e esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this g mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, being h in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal i with God:

7 But k made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, l and was made in the m likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became n obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore o God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jesus every p knee should bow, of q things in heaven, and r things in earth, and s things under the earth;

11 And t that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, u to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work v out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For w it is God x which worketh in you both to will and to do of y his good pleasure.

11 Do all things without murmurings z and disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and aa harmless, the sons ab of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked ac and perverse nation, among whom ad ye shine as lights ae in the world:

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, af neither laboured in vain.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

CHAPTER I.

1 He thanketh God for their faith, and describeth the exalted nature and office of Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God and Timothy our brother,

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and gave the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of the truth in all wisdom and understanding:

10 That ye might walk worthy of

and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding there-

8 Beware ⁱ lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For in him ^k dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are complete ^l in him,
which is the head ^m of all principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision ⁿ made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 Buried ^o with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with ^p him through the faith of the operation ^q of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And ^q you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

of ordinances that was against ^s us,
which was contrary to us, and toward it out of the way, nailing it to the cross;

15 And having ^s spoiled principa-

them in ^u it.

16 Let no man therefore jud-

23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and ¹⁰ neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER III.

1 He sheweth where to seek Christ; 5 he exhorteth to mortification, 10 put off the old man, and to put on Christ.

If ye then be risen ^a with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ ^b sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ¹ affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ^d ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When ^e Christ, who is ^f our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortify ^g therefore your members which are upon the earth: fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

7 In ^h the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

8 But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed ⁱ in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

11 Where ^k there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering:

13 Forbearing ^l one another, and forgiving ^m one another, if any man have a ² quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put on charity: ⁿ which is ^o the bond of perfectness.

15 And let the peace ^p of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word ^q of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing one another in psalms ^r and hymns and spiritual

5 For neither f at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness:

6 Nor of men g sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome h as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour k and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 That ye would walk l worthy of God, who m hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not n as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh o also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their p own prophets, and have q persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding r us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost: s

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

CHAPTER III.

1 Why Paul sent Timothy to them: 6 his good report a consolation to him.

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; 2 And sent a Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That b no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we c are appointed thereto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when d I could no longer forbear, I sent e to know your faith, lest e by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour f be in vain.

6 But now when Timothy came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and clarity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also g do at you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted h over you in all our affliction and distress, by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast i in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God?

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect k that which l lacking in your faith!

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love m one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts n unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming o of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth to go on in holiness. 17 Of the resurrection, and last judgment.

The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS

From the Creation, 4058....Year of the Christian Æra, 54.

CHAPTER I.

1 He sheweth his good opinion of their faith, love, and patience; and comforteth them against persecution.

PAUL and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto a the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace b unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which c is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: f

6 Seeing g it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled h rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire 2 taking vengeance on them that know m not God, and n that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction o from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory p of his power;

1 He willth them to continue at fast in the truth received; 3 s eth that there shall be a depe from the faith, 8 and a disc of antichrist, etc.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit h of his mouth, and shall destroy i with the brightness of his coming:

9 Does him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness k of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love l of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, m that they should believe a lie:

12 That n they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we o are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen p you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto q he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory r of our Lord Jesus Christ.

shall stablish you, and keep b you from evil.

4 And we have confidence c in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct d your hearts into the love of God, and into the e patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye will draw f yourselves from every brother f that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you:

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not because we have not power, h but to make ourselves an example unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all but are busybodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, i and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, be not m weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word o by this epistle, note that man, and have n no company with him that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count p him not as an enemy, but admonish q him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord r of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation s of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The r grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

From the Creation 4069....Year of the Christian Era, 65....Year of Matthias, High Priest, 3....Year of C. T. Claudius Nero, 12.

CHAPTER I.

1 Timothy is put in mind of the charge, which was given unto him by Paul. 5 The end of the law.

12 Paul's calling to be an apostle. PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ a by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope; b

2 Unto Timothy, c my own son in the faith: Grace, e mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed g to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now the end h of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some i having swerved k have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, m if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that n the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound o doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed p God, which q was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled r me, for that he counted me faithful, s putting me into the ministry;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious:

but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly v in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful w saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came x into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King z eternal, immortal, a invisible, b the only wise c God, be honour d and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according e to the prophecies which went before f thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

19 Holding g faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck;

children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have a used the office of a deacon well p purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith q which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee,
hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house r of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and s ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy errant is the mystery s of godliness: God was t manifest in the flesh, t justified in the Spirit, u seen of angels, v preached unto the Gentiles, w believed on x in the world, received up y into glory.

CHAPTER IV.
He foretelleth that in the latter times
there shall be a departure from the faith.

NOW the Spirit speaketh expressly, that a in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing
spurs, b and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commending to abstain from meats,
which God hath created to be received c with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving;

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up d in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, e and exercise thyself
rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth
a little; but godliness f is profitable unto all things, having promise g
of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially those that believe.

11 These things command

Rules to be observed.

1 TIMOTHY, V, VI.

Of the duty of servants.

but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, & with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save m thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER V.

Rules to be observed in reproving.
REBUKE not an elder, but treat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show <sup>1</sup> piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth <sup>2</sup> in pleasure is dead b while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially e for those of his own <sup>3</sup> house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man.

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will turn away;

12 having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And whithal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith f that is in thee,
which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother g Eunice;
and I am persuaded that in thee
also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, h which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; i but of power, k and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker l of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power c
God;

9 Who hath saved m us, and c

ed a us with calling, not o according to s, but according to g and grace, which was l in Christ Jesus, before g the world began ;

10 But is now made manifest r by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished s death, and hath brought life t and immortality to light through the gospel :

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things : nevertheless u I am not ashamed : for I know whom I have l believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have v committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast u the form x of y sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That z good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 Thus thou knowest, that all a they which are in Asia be turned b away from me ; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus ; c for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain d.

17 But when ye was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in e that day : and in how many things he f ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER II.

1 Timothy exhorted to constancy and perseverance, 15 and to show himself approved.

THOU therefore, my son, be a strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me l among many witnesses, the same commit b thou to faithful men, who shall be able c to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure d hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth e entangleth himself with the affairs of this life ; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman 2 that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ, k of the seed of David, was raised from the dead according to my gospel :

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, even unto bond ; l but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the k elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 It is a faithful saying ; For if l we be dead with him, we shall also live with him :

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him : if we deny m him, he also will deny us :

13 If n we believe not, yet he abideth faithful : he o cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put p them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive q not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study r to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly s dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings : for they will increase unto more ungodliness :

17 And their word will eat as doth a 2 canker : of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus ;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, t saying u that the resurrection is past already ; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation 2 of God standeth 4 sure, having this seal, The Lord 5 knoweth them that are his. And, Let x every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels y of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth ; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If z a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared a unto every good work.

22 Flee b also youthful lusts : but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call d on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish questions e avoid, they do gender f and g h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z

CHAPTER IV.

1 Paul exhorteth Timothy: he warn-eth him to come to him, and to bring Mark, and other things which he wrote for

I CHASE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom:

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves
teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, & endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, I make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness,
which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day:
and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me.

10 For Demas hath forsaken me,
having loved this present world,
and is departed unto Thessalonica;
Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee:
for he is profitable to me in the ministry.

12 And Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloak that I left at Troas,
with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppermith dome much evil: the Lord will reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom he thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all q men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid r to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord s stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth t of the lion.

CHAPTER I.

5 Why Titus was left at Crete. 6 How ministers should be qualified.

10 Of evil doers.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging a of the truth which b is after godliness;

2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that c cannot lie, promised before d the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching f which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order a the things that are <sup>2</sup> wanting, and ordain i elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a bishop k must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good <sup>3</sup> men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding l fast the faithful word, <sup>4</sup> as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

12 One o of themselves even a prophet of their own, said, The Creteans are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke p them sharply, that thee may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, q and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess s that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work <sup>6</sup> reprobate.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit o on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, p sent forth q to minister for them who shall be heirs r of salvation?

CHAPTER II.

1 We ought to be obedient unto Christ
Jesus, s and that because he vouch-sated to take our nature upon him.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should t let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels a was steadfast, and every transgression b and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

3 How shall we c escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which d at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God e also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and 2 gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, f that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him 3 a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him,
he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we g see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, when h w was lower than the angels, offering of his body unto him

that he k by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, l for whom m are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain n of their salvation perfect o
through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all p
of one : for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren ;

12 Saying, I q will declare r
name unto my brethren ; in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I r will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I s and the children which God t hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then rs the children are partakers of flesh and blood ;
he u also himself likewise took part of the same ; that through death v
he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil ;
15 And deliver them who through fear w of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily h he took not on him the nature of angels ; but he took on hm the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful x and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people :

18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses :
7 therefore f we believe not in him,
we sh be more worthy of punishment than hard-hearted Israel.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and high Priest a of our profession,
Christ Jesus :

2 Who was faithful to him that l appointed him, as also Moses b was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses,
inasmuch as he who hath builded c
the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by one men ; but he that buildeth
attest as God.

5 And Moses d verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, e
a testimony of f those things which were to be spoken after ;

6 But Christ as a Son g over his own house ; whose house h are we,

9 When your fathers tempted me,

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart ; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I swore in my wrath, 2 They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil l heart of unbelief, in departing m from the living God.

13 But exhort n one another daily, while it is called to-day ; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if o we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end :

15 While it is said, p To-day if y will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For q some, when they had heard, did provoke : howbeit not a
that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved
forty years t was u not with them
that had sinned, whose carcases v
fell in the wilderness ?

18 And to whom swore s he that they should not enter into his rest,
but to them that believed not ?

19 So t we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER IV.

word, etc.

I ET us a therefore fear, lest, a

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by
himself,

14 Saying, p Surely blessing I will multiply thee.

strife.

abundantly to show unto the heirs r
of promise the immutability s of his counsel, a confirmed it by an oath;

18 That by two immutable things,
in which it was impossible for God
to t lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for re-

much also he is the mediator of a

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them,
he hath said, Behold, the days come,
saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

9 Not according to the covenant
that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded will make with the house of Israel

after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their mind,
and write them in their hearts;
and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me,
from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sin and their iniquities will I remember no
more.

nant, he hath made the first out.
Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish

CHAPTER IX

1 The rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, 11 far inferior to the blood and sacrifice of Christ

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. a

2 For there was a tabernacle b made: the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, c and the show-bread; d which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the second veil, e the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all:

4 Which had the golden censer, f
and the ark g of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden k pot that had manna, and Aaron's rods that budded, and the tablek of the covenant;

5 And over it the cherubim l of glory shadowing the mercy seat of which we cannot now speak particularly.

Christ's sacrifice all sufficient. HEDREWS, X. Weakness of the law sacrifices.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests <sup>m</sup> went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second <sup>went</sup> the high priest alone <sup>once</sup> every year, not without blood, which he offered for <sup>o</sup> himself, and for the errors of the people :

8 The Holy Ghost this signifying, That the way <sup>p</sup> into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing :

9 Which <sup>was</sup> a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not <sup>q</sup> make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience :

10 Which <sup>stood</sup> only in meats <sup>s</sup> and drinks, and divers washings, <sup>t</sup> and carnal <sup>u</sup> ordinances, <sup>u</sup> imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high <sup>v</sup> priest of good things <sup>to</sup> come, by a greater <sup>x</sup> and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building ;

12 Neither by the blood of goats <sup>y</sup> and calves, but by his own <sup>z</sup> blood he entered in once into the holy place, <sup>a</sup> having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes <sup>b</sup> of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh :

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who <sup>c</sup> through the eternal Spirit offered himself without <sup>d</sup> spot to God, purged your conscience from dead works to serve <sup>e</sup> the living God :

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions <sup>that were</sup> under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament <sup>f</sup> is, there must also of necessity <sup>g</sup> be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament <sup>is</sup> of force after men are dead : otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was <sup>h</sup> dedicated without blood.

19 For <sup>i</sup> when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with <sup>j</sup> water, and <sup>k</sup> scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

21 Moreover <sup>h</sup> he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood ; and without shedding of blood <sup>i</sup> is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these : but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true : but into heaven itself, now to appear <sup>k</sup> in the presence of God for us :

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others ;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world : but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared, to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed <sup>l</sup> unto men once to die, but after this the judgment :

28 So Christ <sup>n</sup> was once offered to bear the sins of many ; <sup>o</sup> and unto them that look <sup>p</sup> for him shall he appear <sup>q</sup> the second time without sin, unto salvation <sup>r</sup>.

FOR the law, having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then <sup>1</sup> would they not have ceased to be offered : because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices <sup>2</sup> there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, & stopped the mouths of lions.

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourges, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were stoned, & they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAPTER XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 23 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for:

what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and sons.

9 Furthermore we have had others of our flesh which correct us, and we gave them reverence, shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterwards it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is laid be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently lest a man fall of the grace of God; I say a root of bitterness spring up trouble you, and thereby be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor into blackness, and darkness, and tempest.

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which they that heard intreat that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And so much as a beast touch a mountain, it shall be moved, and thrust through with a dart.)

21 And so terrible was the vision that Moses said, I exceedingly and quake.)

22 But ye are come unto Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly

and to an innumerable company of angels, w

23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born, x which are a written in heaven, and to God the Judge z of all, and to the spirits of just men a made perfect,

24 And to Jesus the mediator b of the new 7 covenant, and to the blood c of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. d

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that *speake*th from heaven:

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet e once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that *a*re shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us *h*ave grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For our f God is a consuming fire.

2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some b have entertained angels unawares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, c as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage d is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers e and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content f with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I g will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord h is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

14 For here p have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him q therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit r of our lips, 2 giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good, and to communicate, s forget not: for with such sacrifices t God is well pleased.

17 Obey u them that 3 have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch v for your souls, as they that must give account: that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, w in all things willing to live honestly

19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now the God x of peace, that brought y again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd: of the sheep z through the blood of the everlasting a covenant,

21 Make you perfect b in every good work to do his will, 6 working in you: that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation, for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty: with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen

17 Every q good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh

down from the Father of lights,

with whom r is no variableness,

neither shadow of turning.

18 Of s his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits t of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to

wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh

not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthy-

ness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word,

and not hearers only, deceiving

your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural

face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he

was.

25 But whoso looketh y into the perfect law of liberty, z and con-

tinueth therein, he being not a forgetful

hearer, but a doer of the work, this man a shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and brideth not his tongue, b but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this,

To visit c the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted d from the world.

CHAPTER II.

5 Harken, my beloved brethren, b
Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich c in faith, and heirs of d the kingdom d which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor.
Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that e worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, f Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye
do well:

9 But if ye have respect g to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he h is guilty of all.

11 For i he that said, i Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law k
of liberty.

13 For he l shall have judgment without mercy, that hath showed no mercy; and mercy o rejoiceth n
against judgment.

14 What n doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith save him?

CHAPTER V.

1 Wicked rich men warned of God's judgments. 7 Of patience. 13 To pray in adversity.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep & howl for your miseries
that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasures together for the last days.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed
the just; and he doth not resist
you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Be-the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter ra-

9 <sup>2</sup> Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, m and of patience.

15 But let none of you suffer as a men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed ;
but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judg-

God : and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God ?

CHAPTER V.

1 He exhorteth the elders to feed their

and all to be sober, watchful, and constant in the faith ; and to resist

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an

ings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory : that shall be revealed :

2 Feed b the flock of God i which

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all h of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility : for God i resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble k yourselves therefore gence, add to your faith virtue; h and to virtue knowledge; i

⁷ And to knowledge temperance; k and to temperance patience; l and of unrighteousness, as they a that count it pleasure to riot in the day-their own deceivings while they feast with you ;

14 Having eyes full of a adultery,
and that cannot cease from sin ;
beguiling unstable souls : an heart
they have exercised with covetous practices ; cursed children :

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam o the son of Bo-

righteousness :

16 But was rebuked for his iniqui-man's voice forbade the madness

of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds p that are carried with a tempest ; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak q great swelling words of vanity, they al-lure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were b clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty,
they themselves are the servants of corruption : for r of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again s entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better t for them not to have known the way u of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto
them.

22 But it is happened unto them
according to the true proverb, v
The dog is turned to his own vomit
again ; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER III.

1 The certainty of Christ's coming to judgment. 11 An exhortation to godliness.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you ; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance :

2 That a ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of t

John's testimony of Christ.

amandment of us the apostles
he Lord and Saviour:

Knowing this first, that there

And saying, Where d is the promise of his coming? for since the others felt asleep, all things continue as they were from the begin-

5 For this they willingly are igno-

the heavens were of old, and the earth f standing out of the water g
and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water g
perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth,
which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire h against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day i
with the Lord as a thousand years,
and a j thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack k concerning his promise, as some men account slackness; but is long-suffering l to us-ward, not willing m that any should perish, but that all should n come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief o in the night; in the which the heavens p shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

Holiness the test of true joy.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness.

12 Looking for o and p having unto the coming of the day of God,
wherein the heavens, being on fire,
shall be dissolved, and the elements
shall melt r with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth
righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation;
even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you

16 As also in all his epistles speaking in them of these things
in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest
they do also the other scriptures unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, since ye know these things before, be lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow up in grace,
and the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. To be glory both now and
Amen.

The First Epistle general of JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 He declareth what he had seen and known of the Word of life. 5 To have fellowship with God he enjoineth holiness.

THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen b with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have c handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen d it, and hear witness, and show unto you that eternal life, e which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship f with us: and truly our fellowship g is with the Father, and with his Son
Jesus Christ.

4 And these things writ
you, that f your joy may be full. 5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, that God is in him, and that in him is no darkness g at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not have his life h in us.

7 But if we walk in the light,
as he is in the light, we have fellowship with him, and his blood cleanseth us from all unrighteousness.

8 If we say we have fellowship with him, and do not have his life i in us, we are liars, and our conscience
bears witness against us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and our sin will condemn us.

If r any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, s and the lust of the e eyes, and the pride z of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And v the world passeth away,

and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last t

time: and as ye have heard: that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us; but they were not of us; for: if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest: that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction a from the Holy One, and ye know b all

things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no

lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that c denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever d denieth the Son

the same hath not the Father:

(but) he that acknowledgeth the Son

hath the Father also.

24 Let e that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal f

life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth g you of all things, and h, and is i to lie, and even

as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in j him.

28 And now. If he children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous

ye know that h every one t

doeth righteousness is born

in him.

CHAPTER III.

declareth the singular love of God toward us in making us his sons; 3 we therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, &c.

1 BEHOLD, what manner of love a the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God; therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; e for we shall see f him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know g that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever h sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: h that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He k that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that l he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever m is born of God doth not commit sin: for his seed n remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the 1 message that ye heard from the beginning, that o we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, p who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world q hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He r that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whosoever s hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby t perceive we the love

The test of love to God.

Beloved, let us love h one another: for love is of God: and every e that loveth is born of God, and oweth God.

He that loveth not knoweth t God; for God is love.

In this k was manifested the love

God toward us, because that d sent his only begotten Son in the world, that l we might live rough him.

Herein is love, not that we red God, but that he loved us, d sent his Son to be the propitiation m for our sins.

Beloved, if n God so loved us, s ought also to love one another.

No o man hath seen God at any me. If we love one another, God *v*elleth in us, and his love is *per*ced p in us.

Hereby g know we that we dwell him, and he in us, because he th given us of his Spirit.

And we have seen and do *tes*ify that the Father sent the Son be the Saviour of the world.

Whoever r shall confess that us is the Son of God, God *v*elleth in him, and he in God.

And we have known and *be*ssed the love that God hath to us. d s is love; and he that dwelleth love dwelleth in God, and God him.

Herein is o our love made *per*fect, that we may have holdness in e day of judgment: because s is, so are we in this world.

There is no fear in love: but *r*rect love casteth out fear: *be*cause fear hath torment. He that areth is not made perfect in love.

We love him, because he t first red us.

If a man say, I love God, and steth his brother, he is a liar: for e that loveth not his brother

And this commandment have om him, That v he who loveth love his brother also.

For whatsoever is born of God overcometh a the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is he that came e by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit f that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, g the Word, h and the Holy Ghost: i and these three are one.

And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, k and the water, l and the blood: m and these three agree in one.

If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness n in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar: because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life o is in his Son.

He p that hath the Son hath life: and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye q may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

And this is the confidence that we have i in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

And if we know r that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: s I do not sav t that he shall pray for it.

All unrighteousness is sin; and there v is a sin not unto death.

We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked toucheth him not.

...is able to save us,

And we know that we are of ckedness.

The Second Epistle of JOHN.

He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief; & lest they lose the reward of their former profession; 10 and to have nothing to do with seducers.

us for ever.

peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and
love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found
of thy children walking in truth,
as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady,
not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that commandment unto thee, that which we had from the beginning,
that we love a one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who p
liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns q before the throne,
saying,

11 Thou art worthy, r O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: s for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER V.

1 The book sealed with seven seals,
which no man is worthy to open: t
the Lamb openeth the book: the beasts and elders praise him.

AND I saw in the right hand of A him that sat on the throne a book a written within and on the back side, sealed b with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel pro- claiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to
look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion d
of the tribe of Juda, the Root d of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals
thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb e as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, f which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all
the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts g and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, h and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers i
of saints.

9 And they sung a new song, l
saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seal thereof: for thou wast slain, o thou hast redeemed us to God by blood l out of every kind waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun r was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying s through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo, to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth angel a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomless pit: 2 he openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions: 12 the first wo is past, etc.

AND the fifth angel sounded, A and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. b

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts d upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions e of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them f that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men h seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes i of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were k crowns like gold, and their faces l were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of a chariot of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and o their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king p over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name q Apollyon.

12 One r wo is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared s for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred thousand thousand: u and I heard v the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: w and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails x were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet y repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, z and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, a nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER X.

1 A mighty strong angel appeared, with a book open in his hand: b he sweareth by him that liveth for ever that there shall be no more time: John is commanded to take c the book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow a was upon his head, and his face b was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth.

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal d up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth e lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And swore by him f that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, g that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh h angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery i of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice k which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book, which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, l and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER XI.

3 The two witnesses prophesy. 6 They have power to shut heaven, that it rain not. 7 The beast shall fight against them, and kill them, etc.

2 But the court c which is with the temple d leave out, and measure it not: for e it is given to the Gentiles: and the holy shall they tread under f foot g and two months.

3 And I will h give power to my i two witnesses, j and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the two k olive-trees and the two candlesticks l standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man shall hurt the fire proceedeth out of their mouth and devoureth their enemies: if any man shall hurt them, he shall in this manner be killed.

6 These m have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters n to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast o which ascendeth out of the bottom pit shall make p war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street r of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, s where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people and of the nations and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and a half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth.

11 And after three days and half the Spirit t of life from the Father entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear came upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was the great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to God of heaven.

14 The second witness

behold, the third w cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh b angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms c of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he d shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty e elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which f art, and wast, and art to come: because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned g.

18 And the nations were angry, h and thy wrath is come, and the time i of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward k unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small l and great: and shouldst destroy them which o destroy the earth.

19 And the temple m of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, n and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, o and great hail.

CHAPTER XII.

1 A woman clothed with the sun trovaileth: 4 the great red dragon standeth before her, ready to devour her child: 5 she is delivered, and fleeth into the wilderness, etc.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman a clothed with the sun, b and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: 2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, c having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And e she brought forth a man child, who f was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, h called the Devil, i and Satan, k which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now l is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame m him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives n unto the death.

12 Therefore o rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because q he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 And to the woman were given two wings r of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood, s after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, t and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns. 11 Another beast cometh up out of the earth, which supporteth the worship of the former beast.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast a rise out of the sea, having b seven and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns; and upon his heads the ¹ name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was ² like unto a leopard, and his feet were as ³ the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon ⁴ gave him his power, and his seat, ⁵ and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads, as it were ² wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed; and all the world wondered ⁶ after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? ⁷ who ⁸ is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth ⁹ speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to ¹⁰ continue forty ¹¹ and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, ¹² and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make war ¹³ with the saints, and to overcome them: and power ¹⁴ was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from ¹⁵ the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 He ¹⁶ that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience ¹⁷ and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another ¹⁸ beast coming up out of the earth; and he ¹⁹ had two horns like a lamb, and he ²⁰ was as a dragon.

And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound he healed ²¹.

And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those ²² signs which he had power to in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image

all be tormented with fire t and sulfur in the presence of the oly angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the smoke x of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest a day
nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiv-
eth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord a from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest
from their labours; and their works
do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud
one sat like x unto the Son of man,
having on his head a golden crown,
and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust y in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest z of the earth is a ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth:
and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven,
he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud
cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, a Thrust in thy sharp sickle,
and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press b of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine-press was trodden c without d the city, and blood e came out of the wine-press, even f unto the horse-brides, by the space of a thousand and six hundred arlangs,

CHAPTER XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of the three that overcome the beast, etc.

AND I saw another sign a
in heaven, great and marvellous seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath a of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea b, glass mingled with fire: c as them that had gotten the victory over d the beast, and over his image and over his mark, and on the number of his name, stand e
on the sea of glass, having the harp
of God.

3 And they sing the song f
of Moses g the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, g saying, Great and marvellous are thy works
Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, h thou king of the saints.

4 Who i shall not fear thee,
Lord, and glorify thy name? k
thou only k art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the temple m of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven
was opened:

6 And the seven angels came t
out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts
girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts y
gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials, full of the wrath of God, saying, Live for ever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven angels had fulfilled the seven plagues.

19 And the great city g was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup h of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And i every island fled away,
and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail k out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent:
and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER XVII.

3, 4 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, etc.: 5 her name, 7 The interpretation of the seven heads and the ten horns, etc.

AND there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will show unto thee the judgment of the great whore a that sitteth upon many waters: b

2 With whom c the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth
have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a d scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having e seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication f

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, g BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF h HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken h with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, i and of the beast k that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was,
and is not; and shall ascend l out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: m and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, n whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of

when they behold the beast was, and is not, and yet is.

And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads o are as mountains, on which the beast sitteth.

And there are seven kings: five fallen, and one is, and the other not yet come; and when he goeth, he must continue a short season.

And the beast that was, and is, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

And the ten horns p which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

These shall make war q with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

For God e hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The fall of Babylon: 4 God's people commanded to go out of her, etc.

And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive of her plagues.

For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: the cup which she hath filled to her double.

How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, much torment and sorrow give her for she saith in her heart, I am a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall utterly burned with fire: strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

And the kings of the earth who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour o is thy judgment come.

And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

The merchandise of gold, silver, and precious stones, pearls, and fine linen, and silk, and scarlet, and all fine wood, and all manner of ivory, and all manner of most precious wood, and iron, and marble,

And cinnamon, and odours, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine wheat, and beasts, and horses, and chariots, and souls of men.

And the fruits that lusted after are departed, and all things which were goodly are departed, and thou shalt find them at all.

The merchants of the earth which were made rich stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and saying, Alas, that city that was clothed in purple, and with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off.

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What a city is like unto this great city!

19 And they cast dust v on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoice v over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged x you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone x shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom a and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants b were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries c were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain d upon the earth.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints. 7 The marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 17 The fowls called to the great slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voice a of much people heaven, saying, Alleluia; b Salvation, c and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

For true d and righteous are his judgments; for he hath judged the sat e whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and f hath avenged x the blood of his saints at her hand.

And again they said, Alleluia. g And the smoke h rose up for ever i ever.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

of God and of Christ, and with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up upon the breadth of the earth, and covered the camp of the saints and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and they shall be tormented day and night forever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away: and there was no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death gave up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth: 2 The blessedness of God: 3 The judgment of the world: 4 A description of the new Jerusalem.

AND I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw new Jerusalem, coming down from God, out of heaven, as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a voice saying, Behold, the dwelling of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be with them.

and God shall wipe away all *g*s from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for these things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: these words are true and faithful.

And he said unto me, It k is a. I am Alpha and Omega, beginning and the end. I will be unto him that is athirst of fountain of the water of life fy.

He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his father, and he shall be my son.

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and the detestable, and the whoremongers, and the sorcerers, and idolaters, and all that hate, and shall have their part in lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee brk the Lamb's wife.

And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, which showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.

Having the glory of God: her light was like unto a stone precious, even like a jasper clear as crystal;

And had a wall great and high, and twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

On the east three gates; on the south three gates; on the south-east three gates; and on the west three gates.

And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

And he that talked with me, a golden reed to measure the wall and the gates thereof, and the city.

And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length, and the breadth, and the height of it are

and he measured the wall

thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth an emerald; the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoberyl; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, or of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 3 The light of the city of God is himself. 4 The angel will not be worshipped. 5 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

AND he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street he of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him

4 And g they shall see his face: and his name h shall be in their foreheads.

5 And i there shall be no night there: and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: k and they shall reign l for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent m his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: n blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which showed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not o the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He p that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, q let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly: and my reward is with me, to give every man according to his work.
